Srivastava, 2019-05-29 First published in 1999 this volume is the first full length study of one of the most important political institutions of the erstwhile Soviet political system the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union CPSU The originality of this work lies in its main argument that the central reform during Perestroika was that of the Party and the State a reform which ultimately resulted in the CPSU and its institutions the Central Committee being one of the most vital among them firstly surrendering the monopoly over political power and control over the instrumentalities of the State and secondly systematically de institutionalising and dismantling the formidable Soviet political system The seeds of transformation and the shape of politico economic and socio cultural systems that emerged in successor States were laid down during the Soviet era in particular during Perestroika itself The continuity is therefore as striking as the change if not more so Beyond Sovietology Susan Gross Solomon, 2019-07-03

This volume a product of the Soviet Domestic Politics workshop sponsored by the Social Science Research Council marks an end and a new beginning The end of course is that of Sovietology now permanently overtaken by events The beginning encompasses not only a radical multiplication of subjects for analysis the post Soviet states but also the arrival of a new generation of scholars entering the field at its turning point As the essays in this collection demonstrate they bring fresh contemporary social scientific questions and methods to an unprecedentedly accessible universe of diverse social groups and societies once subsumed under the Soviet rubric Their work enriches not only post Soviet studies but the entire range of comparativist work in the social sciences Among the authors included here are Jane Dawson Ellen Hamilton Joel Hellman Mark Saroyan Joseph Schull and Michael Smith 1974 Annual Supplement Joan Schmitz Bergholt,2013-12-21 Marxist Governments Bogdan Szajkowski,1981-06-18 Catalogue, 1926-1968 Great Britain. Foreign Office. Library,1972
