If It Ain't Right Its Wrong:

It's Legal but It Ain't Right Nikos Passas, Neva R. Goodwin, 2010-02-22 It's Legal but It Ain't Right chronicles the abuse of power and privilege by businesses that defy the strictures of law and limits of regulation Contributors stretch the conceptual boundaries of corporate deviance across a wide range of industries at a time when standards of corporate social responsibility and good corporate citizenship are in flux William S Laufer Professor The Wharton School of Business This delightful and serious book involves a matter I have long felt of first importance That is our tendency to make social truth and acceptance conform to personal or larger corporate interests On this I have written but gladly yield to this persuasive parallel No one concerned with literature informed and relevant as distinct from self serving truth should miss It's Legal but It Ain't Right John Kenneth Galbraith This absorbing and well written book of essays on the harmful consequences of legal industries skillfully illuminates the ways in which some corporate harms fail to be transformed into criminal law making and enforcement and offers cogent suggestions for better regulation in the public interest Dr Michael Levi Professor of Criminology Cardiff University Many U S corporations and the goods they produce negatively impact our society without breaking any laws We are all too familiar with the tobacco industry's effect on public health and health care costs for smokers and nonsmokers as well as the role of profit in the pharmaceutical industry's research priorities It's Legal but It Ain't Right tackles these issues plus the ethical ambiguities of legalized gambling the firearms trade the fast food industry the pesticide industry private security companies and more Aiming to identify industries and goods that undermine our societal values and to hold them accountable for their actions this collection makes a valuable contribution to the ongoing discussion of ethics in our time This accessible exploration of corporate legitimacy and crime will be important reading for advocates journalists students and anyone interested in the dichotomy between law and legitimacy Song of the Canyon Kid Scott Cherney, 2013-12-10 A straight shooting guitar strumming cowboy returns to Dirt Clod Missouri only to learn that the town's in ruins a hanging judge wants to add him to his resume and his gal's about to marry a known desperado How's The Canyon Kid going to save the day let alone croon a few tunes with a noose around his neck Adapted from the author's play Song of the Lone Prairie or Poem on the Range You Might Be Right, but You Ain't Right with the Word of God! Dimitri Yanuli, 2012-12-21 We believers are to be ambassadors of Christ representing Him in whatsoever we eat drink and do to the glory of the Father regardless of denomination or worldly flesh dominated traditions man has contrived God the Father has not only paid the price for our salvation through the innocent shed blood of His Son Jesus Christ of Nazareth but He has also given us the power and authority for each of us to accomplish our destiny and receive complete restoration through the baptism of the third person of the Trinity the Holy Spirit This path is outlined only in the written word of the living God in the Bible from the written account of Moses in Genesis to the Revelation of the Apostle John on the isle of Patmos in Revelation Your newly saved temple is protected by your restored and rehabilitated soul walls and they alone determine your eternal rewards not your salvation but your rewards Let us now travel together through this life journey as we examine our soul walls for restoration deliverance and spiritual healing that only the Bible explains Postcards From My Mind Christopher Setterlund, 2009-12-17 Postcards From My Mind is the first collection of my own personal poetry and song lyrics written over a ten year span from 1996 2006 They explore the vast range of emotions felt through the late teen years and into the twenty something age Anybody can relate to what I have written Backwoods: A Collection of Rural Poetry of Love, Truth, Life and Death , The Saturday Evening Post ,1928 Atkinson's Evening Post, and Philadelphia Saturday News ,1928 SCC Library has 1974 89 plus scattered issues Aylwin Theodore Watts-Dunton, 1899 American Magazine ,1912 The Smart Set ,1906 HOW TO FAIL EINSTEIN AT COLLEGE PETER STYVASANT, The Right Mistake Walter Mosley, 2009-09-29 From New York Times bestselling author Walter Mosley the third collection of Socrates Fortlow tales a thought provoking exploration of wickedness and what s to be done about it Seattle Times Living in south central L A Socrates Fortlow is a sixty year old ex convict still strong enough to kill men with his bare hands Filled with profound guilt about his own crimes and disheartened by the chaos of the streets Socrates calls together local people of all races and social stations and begins to conduct a Thinkers Club where all can discuss life s unanswerable questions Infiltrated by undercover cops and threatened by strain from within the Thinkers Club doesn t have it easy But simply by debating racial authenticity street justice and the possibility of mutual understanding Socrates and his unlikely crew actually begin to make a difference The Right Mistake is Walter Mosley at his most incisive In turns outraged and affectionate it offers a profoundly literary and ultimately redemptive exploration of the possibility of moral action in a violent world a taste of chocolate Celina Adrian, 2017-07-24 In the deceptively calm lull between World War II and Vietnam the United States faced one of its most important challenges the battle to establish precedents for true racial equality In a small Southern town segregation and racial bias erupt in the lives of four children Black siblings Jeremiah Sarah Mae and Wallace will cross paths with a White boy Glen Dale in a way that will leave all of them changed forever In navigating their way through an oppressive town in the wake of a murder their lives will depend on whether they can throw off the ideologies and indoctrinations that have enslaved them all One of these children will have a hard journey toward adjusting their perspective Narrated by children and beautifully written in authentic dialect that gives a deeply intimate look at each character this thought provoking novel of childhood survival reminds us that growth and change are inevitable and necessary but not easy The Sunday Magazine ,1888 The Spirit of Vengeance John V. Baiamonte, Jr., 1999-03-01 In May 1921 Joseph Rini and five other men of Italian descent drove from New Orleans to Independence Louisiana in a stolen car to attempt the late night robbery of an Independence bank During the confused events of that night a local businessman was shot by an unknown assailant and the six men were shortly thereafter captured and charged with murder largely on the basis of circumstantial evidence They were found guilty When this verdict was appealed and the state supreme court reversed it on a technicality a second trial in May 1922 ended with an identical decision and sentence. A series of fruitless appeals followed and on May 9 1924 the prisoners were hanged in Amite City the nation's only execution of six men for the murder of one. Using court transcripts newspaper accounts and interviews John Baiamonte recounts the dramatic and often moving story of these six men and their trial which in its day was to become a national and international cause célèbre. He explores the social prejudices of the day particularly the popular assumption that any criminal activity involving Italians was part of a plot by the Mafia. Fear of Italian gangsters especially from a tightly organized Mafia had been rampant in southern Louisiana since the 1890s as was prejudice against the hardworking law-abiding Sicilian immigrants who had settled in large numbers in Tangipahoa Parish where these events took place. Bloody Tangipahoa had long been notorious for violence particularly against minorities. Moreover the parish judicial system at that time the trial judge and the state Board of Pardons which reviewed the Italians' appeal were thought to be involved with the Ku Klux Klan. Even the governor John M. Parker was one of the leaders of a mob that murdered eleven Italians suspected of Mafia affiliation in New Orleans in 1891. Baiamonte also examines the mood of the courtroom the pressures put upon the lawyers the jury and the witnesses to convict the six despite the fact that the prosecution's only witness to the shooting failed to identify any of the defendants and no witness could place the defendants closer than three miles from Independence on the night of the murder. Everyone became a participant in the courtroom even the spectators. They applauded when new evidence against the defendants was introduced. In cameos of each of the convicted men Baiamonte describes moods and actions. Joseph Bocchio one of the condemned read Shakespeare and wrote poems which were published in the local paper Spirit of Vengeance affords an intriguing view of a tumultuous period in Louisiana history and the six men whose vain struggle to survive brought them international attention. American Illustrated Magazine ,1908 The American Magazine ,1908 Knowing What To Do Timothy Chappell,2014-03-27 Timothy Chappell develops a picture of what philosophical ethics can be like once set aside from the idealising and reductive pressures of conventional moral theory. His question is How are we to know what to do and the answer he defends is By developing our moral imaginations. The series of studies presented in Knowing What To Do contribute to the case that the moral imagination is a key part of human excellence or virtue by showing that it plays a wide variety of roles in our practical and evaluative lives. There is no short cut or formulaic way of knowing what to do but the longer and more painstaking approach is more rewarding anyway. This approach involves developing our repertoire of natural human capacities for imagination open deliberation and contemplative attention to the world the people and the reality of value around us. National Petroleum News ,1923 Youth Devotions Josh McDowell,Ed Stewart,2003-08-04 Presents Scripture verses and readings for each day of the year designed to help young people make good choices in their daily lives.
