Jan Patočka Philosophy And Selected Writings:

Jan Patočka Erazim Kohák, 1989-10-05 One of the most important Central European philosophers of this century Jan Patočka 1907-1977 was a student and heir of Masaryk Husserl and Heidegger as well as a philosopher and historian of ideas in his own right Patočka who was forced to retire prematurely from Charles University in Prague for his political convictions died of a brain hemorrhage while under Czech police interrogation for having signed the human rights manifesto Charta 77 Although many of his works are available in French and German in this volume Erazim Kohák has translated Patočka's central philosophical texts into English for the first time As a student and personal friend of Husserl Patočka was keenly aware of the focal role of reason in the constitution of experienced reality Simultaneously as a student of Heidegger he was no less aware of the irreducible autonomy of that reality This double recognition led Patočka on a lifelong philosophical quest for a synthesis that would bridge modernity's split between the freedom of humans and the givenness of the world and more broadly between the Enlightenment and romanticism For the philosophical reader Patočka's perceptive writings provide the most helpful key to understanding the basic modern dialogue acted out by Husserl and Heidegger Yet Patočka widely respected for his writings on culture and the arts as well as for his studies of J A Comenius and the history of science offers much more a comprehensive attempt to come to terms with our intellectual heritage and our divided present Kohák as well as translating the writings provides a comprehensive introduction covering the full scope of Patočka's thought and a complete bibliography of his writings The result is an intellectually rich volume equally well suited as an introduction to Patočka an advanced study in phenomenology and a historical insight into philosophy behind the Iron Curtain since 1938 The Selected Writings of Jan Patočka Jan Patočka, 2022-03-24 Jan Patočka's contribution to phenomenology and the philosophy of history mean that he is considered one of the most important philosophers of the 20th century Yet his writing is not widely available in English and the Anglophone world remains rather unfamiliar with his work In this new book of essential Patočka texts of which the majority have been translated from the original Czech for the first time readers will experience a general introduction to the key tenets of his philosophy This includes his thoughts on the relationship between philosophy and political engagement which strike at the heart of contemporary debates about freedom political participation and responsibility and a truly pressing issue for modern Europe what exactly constitutes a European identity In this important collection Patočka provides an original vision of the relationship between self world and history that will benefit students philosophers and those who are interested in the ideals that underpin our democracies The Selected Writings of Jan Patočka Jan Patočka, 2022-03-24 Jan Patočka's contribution to phenomenology and the philosophy of history mean that he is considered one of the most important philosophers of the 20th century Yet his writing is not widely available in English and the Anglophone world remains rather unfamiliar with his work In this new book of essential Patočka texts of which the majority have been translated from the original Czech for the first time readers will experience a general introduction to the

The Heresies of Jan Patočka James Dodd,2023-03-15 A nuanced reflection on the meaning and resonance of Patočka's philosophy Foregrounding the turbulent political and intellectual scene in Czechoslovakia following the Prague Spring in 1968 James Dodd explores the unity of philosophy history and politics in Jan Patočka's life and legacy Dodd presents Patočka as an essential philosopher of modern concepts such as freedom subjectivity and history and also as an interpreter of prominent thinkers such as Husserl and Heidegger Dodd outlines the phenomenology that Patočka as a late pupil of Husserl and Heidegger crafted in response to the classical model before turning to his philosophy of history which was oriented around the problem of Europe and the care for the soul Finally Dodd examines Patočka's role as a dissident intellectual and one of the principal voices of the Charter 77 human rights movement until his death in March 1977 By situating Patočka's thought in relation to classical phenomenology and to the political and historical conditions of Central Europe Dodd illuminates the enduring impact of this key thinker of the twentieth century

Jan Patočka and the Phenomenology of Life After Death Gustav Strandberg,Hugo Strandberg,2023-12-12 This volume contains for the first time in English Jan Patočka's seminal essay The Phenomenology of Afterlife as well as contributions surrounding and analyzing this text In his essay Patočka reflects on our relation to the dead and on how the departure of a loved one affects our continued existence The premise of Patočka's investigation is that our existence always takes place by and through an originary and reciprocal being for others The contributors in the volume extend the field of inquiry into the wider phenomenological and post phenomenological discussion of death by being cognizant of how works of literature can broaden our understanding of the care of death grief forgiveness and non reciprocal love Also included are reflections on issues of philosophical anthropology community collective memory and the ecstatic nature of life issues that can all be related back to Patočka's initial reflections but which nonetheless radiate into a myriad of directions This volume appeals to students and researchers in the field

The Political Thought of Václav Havel Daniel Brennan, 2016-10-05 The book considers Václav Havel's body of writing as a cohesive whole offering a consistent political philosophy This bold claim is backed up through a close examination of Havel's plays letters essays and aphorisms The political philosophy that a close reading of Havel reveals is a liberal one However Havel is not the run of the mill liberal having influences from the field of phenomenology Masaryk Husserl Levinas Patočka and Heidegger which give him a nuanced view of the self Havel sees the self as something always being formed Hence for Havel man has an ability to shake his current state and invite transcendence into his life This agonistic process reveals our responsibility and liberates the self from forces which coerce behaviour

Thinking After Europe Francesco Tava, Darian

Meacham, 2016-08-16 Jan Patočka perhaps more so than any other philosopher in the twentieth century managed to combine intense philosophical insight with a farsighted analysis of the idea and challenges facing Europe as a historical cultural and political signifier. As a political dissident in communist Czechoslovakia he also became a moral and political inspiration to a generation of Czechs including Václav Havel. He accomplished this in a time of intense political repression when not even the hint of a unified Europe seemed visible by showing in exemplary fashion how concrete thought can be without renouncing in any way its depth. Europe as an idea and a political project is a central issue in contemporary political theory. Patočka's political thought offers many original insights into questions surrounding the European project. Here for the first time a group of leading scholars from different disciplines gathers together to discuss the specific political impact of Patočka's philosophy and its lasting significance.

Recalling Masaryk's The Czech Question, 2023-02-13 This book presents T. G. Masaryk's efforts to shape the identity of a small nation in late the 19th and early 20th century. It features contributions from leading Czech scholars who analyse Masaryk's efforts 120 years later. Masaryk is considered the most important figure in modern Czech history. Drawing on the ideas of his ideological predecessors and humanists he wanted to integrate the Czech nation into the family of advanced world nations in line with international intellectual trends. Masaryk was the first in world history to fulfil the Platonic ideal of a philosopher who founded a state.

Caring for the Soul in a Postmodern Age Edward F. Findlay, 2012-02-01 In 1977 the sixty nine year old Czech philosopher Jan Patočka died from a brain hemorrhage following a series of interrogations by the Czechoslovak secret police. A student of Husserl and Heidegger he had been arrested along with young playwright Václav Havel for publicly opposing the hypocrisy of the Czechoslovak Communist regime. Patočka had dedicated himself as a philosopher to laying the groundwork of what he termed a life in truth. This book analyzes Patočka's philosophy and political thought and illuminates the synthesis in his work of Socratic philosophy and its injunction to care for the soul. In bridging the gap not only between Husserl and Heidegger but also between postmodern and ancient philosophy Patočka presents a model of democratic politics that is ethical without being metaphysical and transcendental without being foundational.

Into the World: The Movement of Patočka's Phenomenology Martin Ritter, 2019-10-15 Critically evaluating and synthesizing all the previous research on the phenomenology of Czech philosopher Jan Patočka the book brings a new voice into contemporary philosophical discussions. It elucidates the development of Patočka's phenomenology and offers a critical appropriation of his work by connecting it with non phenomenological approaches. The first half of the book offers a succinct and systematizing overview of Patočka's phenomenology throughout its development to help readers appreciate the motives behind and grounds for its transformations. The second half systematically explicates critically examines and creatively develops Patočka's concept of the movement of existence as the most promising part of his asubjective phenomenology. The book appeals to new readers of Patočka as well as his scholars and to students and researchers of contemporary philosophy concerned with topics such as embodiment personal identity intersubjectivity sociality or historicity.

By re-assessing Patocka's philosophy of history and his civilizational analysis it also helps to better articulate the question of the place of Europe in the post-European world The Young Nietzsche's Education Jozef Majerník, 2025-07-01 A new interpretation of what is arguably Nietzsche's most neglected work This study is an interpretation of the four essays that comprise Nietzsche's Untimely Considerations also called the Untimely Meditations as a single coherent whole whose focus is to educate their readers toward self-cultivation and genuine culture and ultimately to the philosophic life Jozef Majerník engages in a close reading of each of the essays finding in them Nietzsche's theoretical understanding of human life in general as well as the best possible kind of life and plans for large-scale cultural reform in conjunction with Wagner's Bayreuth project The focal point of Majerník's interpretation is the complex understanding of the nature of the human soul found in the Untimely Considerations which he terms the erotic historic soul after its two main constituent parts desiring and memory He argues that this conception of the soul is at its core the same model that we find in Nietzsche's mature works
