

A young boy with dark hair, wearing a blue long-sleeved shirt, is shown from the side, looking out over a city at night. His right hand is raised, palm facing forward, as if he is reaching out or trying to stop something. In the background, a city skyline is visible under a dark, cloudy sky. A large, bright fire or explosion is occurring in the middle ground, casting a strong orange and red glow over the scene. The overall mood is one of urgency and danger.

A country torn apart.
A family split in half.
Can they survive?

Narrative as Dialectic Abduction Donna E. West, 2022-09-19 This book presents a fresh approach to the communicability of narratives revealing the cognitive underpinnings of Charles Sanders Peirce's pragmatistic model It demonstrates how abductive processes modify habits of belief and action in what Peirce refers to as double consciousness Abductions generated during double consciousness paradigms have increased efficacy compared to instinctual abductions Novel inferences from working memory become consciously integrated with existing long term memory units which permits fuller consideration of the plausibility of propositions Special attention is given to children's prelinguistic means to represent propositional or assertory conflicts and to resolve these conflicts via listening and re-telling narrators accounts Overall this book serves both a theoretical and applied purpose It is intended to support innovative therapeutic interventions to facilitate the reconstruction of narratives by adults and children Its practical applications and theoretical grounding will appeal to graduate students and scholars alike who wish to examine narrative as an interdisciplinary enterprise an ontological and cultural phenomenon narration by way of action image sequences not just a literary linguistic paradigm Ultimately this account presents narrative as a modal forum to resolve logical and practical conflicts compelling the interpreter to become an involved partner in the narrated event itself

Alien Abduction in the Cinema Paul Meehan, 2023-08-17 The alien abduction phenomenon is one of the enduring enigmas of our time While the reality of alien abductions is a hotly debated topic among UFO researchers scientists skeptics and true believers alike the phenomenon indisputably exists as an artifact of popular culture This book analyzes more than 75 films that draw their inspiration from allegedly fact based accounts of alien contact from 1951's The Man from Planet X to Contact in 2021 These films are examined in terms of both their cinematic qualities and their exploration of thematic elements derived from abduction reports Abduction motifs that appear in science fiction classics such as The Day the Earth Stood Still 2001 and Close Encounters are analyzed as well as those in lesser known films like The Stranger Within Starship Invasions Dark Skies and Proximity Special attention is given to movies based on the famed experiences of abductees Betty and Barney Hill Whitley Strieber and Travis Walton The book also addresses skeptical theories about the origins of the phenomenon in science fiction and examines an uncanny prescience that appears to anticipate these inexplicable occurrences

Mediating International Child Abduction Cases Sarah Vigers, 2011-10-07 There is growing enthusiasm for the use of mediation to seek to resolve cases arising under the Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction the Convention However despite being endorsed by the conclusions of meetings of experts judicial comment and even legislative changes there have been relatively few cases where mediation has played a significant role It is suggested that the reason underlying this dichotomy between the widespread support for the use of mediation and the current limited practice is that there are several key questions regarding the use of mediation in the context of the Convention which remain to be answered Specifically what is meant by Convention mediation How can a mediation process fit within the constraints of the Convention And why offer mediation in Convention cases given the existing legal framework This book addresses these questions and in so doing seeks to encourage a movement from enthusiasm about the use of mediation in the Convention context to greater practice This title is included in Bloomsbury Professional s Family Law online service

Truth-Seeking by Abduction Ilkka Niiniluoto, 2018-10-24 This book examines the philosophical conception of abductive reasoning as developed by Charles S Peirce the founder of American pragmatism It explores the historical and systematic connections of Peirce s original ideas and debates about their interpretations Abduction is understood in a broad sense which covers the discovery and pursuit of hypotheses and inference to the best explanation The analysis presents fresh insights into this notion of reasoning which derives from effects to causes or from surprising observations to explanatory theories The author outlines some logical and AI approaches to abduction as well as studies various kinds of inverse problems in astronomy physics medicine biology and human sciences to provide examples of retroductions and abductions The discussion covers also everyday examples with the implication of this notion in detective stories one of Peirce s own favorite themes The author uses Bayesian probabilities to argue that explanatory abduction is a method of confirmation He uses his own account of truth approximation to reformulate abduction as inference which leads to the truthlikeness of its conclusion This allows a powerful abductive defense of scientific realism This up to date survey and defense of the Peircean view of abduction may very well help researchers students and philosophers better understand the logic of truth seeking
