Embodied Geographies Spaces Bodies And Rites Of Passage:

Embodied Geographies Elizabeth Kenworthy Teather, 1999 Embodied Geographies provides a comprehensive account of different types of life crises which develop our identities and affect how we live our lives Chapters focus on pregnancy childbirth teenagers and parenthood migration the threat and reality of violence illness and disability bereavement the ensuing family responsibilities and death itself It includes case studies from the UK Australia New Zealand Singapore Hong Kong Canada and the USA

What Is a Person? Christian Smith, 2010 The task of understanding human beings what we ourselves are our constitution and condition is a perennial problem in philosophy and related disciplines Smith argues here that our understanding of human persons is threatened by technological development and capricious academic theories alike seeking to deny or relativize the personhood of humanity Smith's book puts a stake in the ground in defense of a view of the human that is genuinely humanistic in the traditional sense and capable of sustaining with intellectual coherence things like modern human rights and universal benevolence

Sociology, Youth and Youth Work Practice Simon Bradford, 2012-09-24 How can sociology inform our understanding of young people's experiences Introducing core theories by drawing on a range of cultural resources from pioneering research to genre defining films this book demonstrates how a sociological imagination can enhance informal educational and social welfare approaches to work with young people

Alcohol, Drinking, Drunkenness Mark Jayne, Gill Valentine, 2016-03-23 While disciplines such as anthropology sociology politics social policy and the health and medical sciences have a tradition of exploring the centrality of alcohol drinking and drunkenness to people's lives geographers have only previously addressed these topics as a peripheral concern Over the past few years however this view has begun to change accelerated by an upsurge in interest in alcohol consumption relating to political and popular debate in countries throughout the world This book represents the first systematic overview of geographies of alcohol drinking and drunkenness It asks what role alcohol drinking and drunkenness plays in people's lives and how space and place are key constituents of alcohol consumption It also examines the economic political social cultural and spatial practices and processes that are bound up with alcohol drinking and drunkenness Designed as a reference text each chapter blends theoretical material with empirical case studies in order to analyse drinking in public and private space in the city and the countryside as well as focusing on gender generations ethnicity and emotional and embodied geographies

(Re)imagining the World Yan Wu, Kerry Mallan, Roderick McGillis, 2013-06-18 Re Imagining the world Children's Literature's Response to Changing Times considers how writers of fiction for children imagine the world not one universal world but different worlds imaginary strange familiar even monstrous worlds The chapters in this collection discuss how fiction for children engages with some of the changes brought about by new technologies information literacy consumerism migration politics different family structures cosmopolitanism new and old monsters They also invite us to think about how memory shapes our understanding of the past and how fiction engages our emotions our capacity to empathise and our desire to discover and what the future may hold The contributors bring different perspectives from education postcolonial studies literary criticism cultural studies childhood studies postmodernism and the social sciences With a wide coverage of texts from different countries and scholarly and lively discussions this collection is itself a testament to the power of the human imagination and the significance of children s literature in the education of young people

Rural Women's Health Beverly Leiper, Belinda Leach, Wilfreda Thurston, 2012-09-17 The well being of rural communities affects the well being of those who reside in towns and cities because of rural urban connections through food drinking water infectious disease extreme environmental events recreation and for many retirement residence In rural areas themselves women play a critical role in the health of their families and communities yet women s health is often marginalized or ignored There have been limited studies to date about rural women and health in Canada Filling an important gap in scholarship this collection identifies priority issues that must be addressed to ensure these women s well being and offers innovative theoretical and methodological ideas for improvement Rural Women s Health integrates perspectives from rural practitioners residents and scholars in a variety of fields including nursing sociology anthropology and geography to tackle issues relevant to diverse settings across the country As such it presents a national perspective on the nature of women s health while respecting internal and regional diversity as well as viewpoints from international scholarship

Children in the City Pia Christensen, Margaret O'Brien, 2003-08-29 This timely and thought provoking book explores children s lives in modern cities At a time of intense debate about the quality of life in cities this book examines how they can become good places for children to live in Through contributions from childhood experts in Europe Australia and America the book shows the importance of studying children s lives in cities in a comparative and generational perspective It also contains fascinating accounts of city living from children themselves and offers practical design solutions The authors consider the importance of the city as a social material and cultural place for children and explore the connections and boundaries between home neighbourhood community and city Throughout they stress the importance of engaging with how children see their city in order to reform it within a child sensitive framework This book is invaluable reading for students and academics in the field of anthropology sociology social policy and education It will also be of interest to those working in the field of architecture urban planning and design

Key Thinkers on Space and Place Phil Hubbard, Rob Kitchin, 2010-11-30 In this latest edition of Key Thinkers on Space and Place editors Phil Hubbard and Rob Kitchin provide us with a fully revised and updated text that highlights the work of over 65 key thinkers on space and place Unique in its concept the book is a comprehensive guide to the life and work of some of the key thinkers particularly influential in the current spatial turn in the social sciences Providing a synoptic overview of different ideas about the role of space and place in contemporary social cultural political and economic life each portrait comprises Biographical information and theoretical context An explication of their contribution to spatial thinking An overview of key advances and controversie Guidance on further reading With 14

additional chapters including entries on Saskia Sassen Tim Ingold Cindi Katz and John Urry the book covers ideas ranging from humanism Marxism feminism and post structuralism to queer theory post colonialism globalization and deconstruction presenting a thorough look at diverse ways in which space and place has been theorized An essential text for geographers this now classic reference text is for all those interested in theories of space and place whether in geography sociology cultural studies urban studies planning anthropology or women s studies Sound Tracks John Connell,Chris Gibson,2003

Sound Tracks is the first comprehensive book on the new geography of popular music examining the complex links between places music and cultural identities It provides an interdisciplinary perspective on local national and global scenes from the Mersey and Icelandic sounds to world music and explores the diverse meanings of music in a range of regional contexts In a world of intensified globalisation links between space music and identity are increasingly tenuous yet places give credibility to music not least in the country and music is commonly linked to place as a stake to originality a claim to tradition and as a marketing device This book develops new perspectives on these relationships and how they are situated within cultural and geographical thought Race and Racialization, 2E Tania Das Gupta,Carl E. James,Chris Andersen,Grace-Edward

Galabuzi,Roger C. A. Maaka,2018-02-01 Few words have generated as much debate and controversy as the word race Through a critical examination of this complex subject this anthology brings together essential contributions to the study of race and racialization An excellent compilation of classic and contemporary works by academic and activist writers Race and Racialization provides historical comparative and global perspectives on race and its intersection with gender class ethnicity indigeneity and sexuality This well updated second edition includes a new section on state multiculturalism and a diverse ensemble of Canadian and international contributors who explore such relevant themes as colonialism institutional racism ethnocentrism privilege marginalization and resistance Featuring introductions to each piece written by the editors annotated lists of supplementary readings to encourage further exploration and contributions by activists from Idle No More and Black Lives Matter this comprehensive and highly accessible anthology is perfect for students studying race racism cultural diversity identity and belonging social inequality and social justice Social Geography Vincent J. Del Casino, Jr.,2009-03-09

Introducing the debates that inform current social geographic research and theory and interrogating the historical development of social geography Social Geography A Critical Introduction explores how urban and rural spaces are organized in ways that construct and maintain social inequality Puts into context the assumptions of various strains of social geographic thought as they have developed historically Assists students in addressing key social geographic questions and methodologies Provides a showcase for cutting edge work in the field Is written in an accessible and lively style setting out a wide breadth of social geographic research Imagining Women's Conventual Spaces in France, 1600-1800 Barbara R. Woshinsky,2010

Blending history architecture and literary analysis this ground breaking study explores the convent s place in the early modern imagination After the Council of Trent imposed strict claustral enclosure the nun became an intensified object of desire in male authored narratives Convents also inspired feminutopian discourses by women writers Recent criticism has identified spaces that women have made their own the ruelle the salon the hearth of fairy tales Woshinsky s book definitively adds the convent to this list Children's Emotions in Policy and Practice Peter Kraftl,Matej Blazek,2016-04-29 This volume examines children s and young people s emotions in policy making and professional practice It seeks both to inform readers about up to date research and to provoke debate encouraging and enabling critical reflections upon emotions in policy and practice relevant to readers own context Children's Mobilities Lesley Murray,Susana Cortés-Morales,2019-05-04 This book offers a critical and comprehensive analysis of children s mobilities by focusing on its interdependent imagined and relational aspects In doing so it challenges existing literature which in mobilities studies tends to overlook the mobilities of marginalised social groups in social science more generally tends to immobilize children s studies and in children s mobility studies has mainly focused on the independent and corporeal travel of children The book situates children s mobilities in wider contexts offering an interdisciplinary and critical perspective throughout and drawing on scholarship at the confluence of childhood and mobilities and a range of research to offer new insights that inform the field of mobilities and studies of childhood In this way the book aims at widening the perspective on children s mobility towards the inclusion of diverse age groups and of the manifold forms of mobilities that are part of children s lives from an interdependent and relational point of view Children, Home and School Ros Edwards,2004-08-02 In contemporary western societies there are increasing emphases on children being the responsibility of their parents contained within the home and on their compartmentalisation into separate and protected organised educational settings Thus home and school form a crucial part of children s lives and experiences This book explores the key institutional settings of home and school and other educationally linked organised spaces in children s lives and the relationships between these It presents in depth discussions concerning new research findings from a range of national contexts and focuses on various aspects of children s and sometimes adult s own understandings and activities in home and school and after school settings and the relationship between these The contributors assess children from a variety of backgrounds and circumstances and consider how these children see and position themselves as autonomous within connected to or regulated by home and school Discussion of the impact of policy and practice developments on the everyday lives of these children is also included The Practice of Freedom Richard J. White,Simon Springer,Marcelo Lopes de Souza,2016-09-29 The last two decades have seen a re birth of practices and principles that connect with the soul of left libertarianism although they may not explicitly engage with the anarchist tradition From practices of mapping and land use planning to local protests and transnational social movements this book explores a variety of case studies that trace the influences of and affinities between anarchist and geographic practice The chapters explore the vast possibilities of inventive exploratory libertarian practices from contemporary and historic contexts around the globe They examine the ways in which various spatial practices have been compatible with left libertarian principles and explore the extent to which anarchists neo anarchists and libertarian autonomists have animated these waves of protest and forms of resistance In an age that is desperately in need of critical new directions this volume shows that a serious re turn toward anarchist thought and practice can challenge and inspire geographers to travel beyond their traditional frontiers of geographical praxis Urban Nightscapes Paul Chatterton,Robert Hollands,2003-09-02 In many western cities urban nightlife is experiencing a McDonaldisation where big branded names are taking over large parts of downtown areas leaving consumers with an increasingly standardised experience This book takes a new look at this rapidly changing aspect of urban life examining the relationships between young adults nightlife and city spaces It focuses on what the authors call urban nightscapes both mainstream and alternative youthful cultural activities in bars pubs night clubs and music venues which occur against a backdrop of increasing corporate influence in the night time economy

Literacies, Power, and the Schooled Body Kerry Dixon,2010-11-15 This book examines how children s bodies are trained in time and space to produce schooled literate individuals Moving from theory to practice examples of real classroom events show how teachers practices direct discipline onto children s bodies Disrupting Rape Culture Fanghanel, Alexandra,2020-08-12 Pussy grabbing hot mommas topless protest nasty women Whether hypersexualised desexualised venerated or maligned women s bodies in public space continue to be framed as a problem A problem that is discursively solved by the continued proliferation of rape culture in everyday life Indeed despite the rise in research and public awareness about rape culture and sexism in contemporary debates gendered violence continues to be normalised Using case studies from the US and UK the de sexualised pregnancy the troublesome naked protest the errant BDSM player Fanghanel interrogates how the female body is figured through and revolts against gendered violence Rape culture currently thrives This book demonstrates how it happens the politics that are mobilised to sustain it and how we might act to contest it

Children, Young People and Social Inclusion E. Kay M. Tisdall,2006-11 Social inclusion and participation have become policy mantras in the UK and Europe As these concepts are being translated into policies and practice it is a critical time to examine their interpretation implementation and impacts This book asks how far and in what way social inclusion policies are meeting the needs of children and young people
