Kipling Pageant:

A Kipling Pageant Rudyard Kipling, 1939 Kipling's Art of Fiction 1884-1901 David Sergeant, 2013-10-31 Kipling's Art of Fiction 1884-1901 re-establishes its subject as a major artist Through extended close readings of individual works and unprecedentedly detailed attention to changes in location and readership it distinguishes between two kinds of Kipling fiction The first is coercive and concerned with the authoritarian control of meaning the second relates less directly to its immediate historical surroundings and is more aesthetically complex Misunderstandings have often resulted from confusing the two kinds of work Distinguishing between them allows for a newly coherent account of Kipling's career both explaining his artistic achievement and making clearer his identity as a political writer Changes in Kipling's narrative practice are tracked as he moves from India to Britain and the US and engages with a succession of new audiences and political contexts detailed readings are provided of such key texts as Plain Tales from the Hills The Jungle Books and Kim As well as revealing the precise nature of Kipling's artistry this book shows how properties of narrative which have been generally underrated such as embodiment and externality can be used to make sophisticated fictions and by linking these to Robert Louis Stevenson's discussion of the romance suggests new ways in which such work might be approached The Rotarian, 1936-04 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Gandhi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine The Progresses, Pageants, and Entertainments of Queen Elizabeth I Jayne Elisabeth Archer, Elizabeth Goldring, Sarah Knight, 2007-03-29 More than any other English monarch before or since Queen Elizabeth I used her annual progresses to shape her royal persona and to bolster her popularity and authority During the spring and summer accompanied by her court Elizabeth toured southern England the Midlands and parts of the West Country staying with private and civic hosts and at the universities of Oxford and Cambridge The progresses provided hosts with unique opportunities to impress and influence the Queen and became occasions for magnificent and ingenious entertainments and pageants drawing on the skills of architects artists and craftsmen as well as dramatic performances formal orations poetic recitations parades masques dances and bear baiting The Progresses Pageants and Entertainments of Queen Elizabeth I is an interdisciplinary essay collection drawing together new and innovative work by experts in literary studies history theatre and performance studies art history and antiquarian studies As such it will make a unique and timely contribution to research on the culture and history of Elizabethan England Chapters include examinations of some of the principal Elizabethan progress entertainments including the coronation pageant Veritas temporis filia 1559 Kenilworth 1575 Norwich 1578 Cowdray 1591 Bisham 1592 and Harefield 1602 while other chapters consider the themes raised by these events including the ritual of gift giving the conduct of government whilst on progress the significance of the visual arts in the entertainments regional identity and militarism elite and learned women as hosts the circulation and publication of entertainment and pageant texts the afterlife of the Elizabethan progresses including their reappropriation in Caroline England and the documenting of Elizabeth's reign by late eighteenth and early nineteenth century antiquarians such as John Nichols who went on to compile the monumental The Progresses of Queen Elizabeth 1788-1823 Supplement, 1953 Isabel S. Johnson, 2011-03-31 Out of Bounds focuses on the crucial role that conceptions of iconic colonial Indian spaces jungles cantonments cities hill stations bazaars clubs played in the literary and social production of British India Author Alan Johnson illuminates the geographical rhetorical and ideological underpinnings of such depictions and from this argues that these spaces operated as powerful motifs in the acculturation of Anglo India He shows that the bicultural intrinsically ambivalent outlook of Anglo Indian writers is acutely sensitive to spatial motifs that insofar as these condition the idea of home and homelessness alternately support and subvert conventional colonial perspectives Colonial spatial motifs not only informed European representations of India but also shaped important aesthetic notions of the period such as the sublime This book also explains how and why Europeans rhetorical and visual depictions of the Indian subcontinent whether ostensibly administrative scientific or aesthetic constituted a primary means of memorializing Empire creating an idiom that postcolonial India continues to use in certain ways Consequently Johnson examines specific motifs of Anglo Indian cultural remembrance such as the hunting memoir hill station life and the Mutiny all of which facilitated the mythic iconography of the Raj He bases his work on the premise that spatiality the physical as well as social conceptualization of space is a vital component of the mythos of colonial life and that the study of spatiality is too often a subset of a focus on temporality Johnson reads canonical and lesser known fiction memoirs and travelogues alongside colonial archival documents to identify shared spatial motifs and idioms that were common to the period Although he discusses colonial works he focuses primarily on the writings of Anglo Indians such as Rudyard Kipling John Masters Jim Corbett and Flora Annie Steel to demonstrate how conventions of spatial identity were rhetorically maintained and continually compromised All of these considerations amplify this book's focus on the porosity of boundaries in literatures of the colony and of the nation Out of Bounds will be of interest to not only postcolonial literary scholars but also scholars and students in interdisciplinary nineteenth century studies South Asian cultural history cultural anthropology women's studies and sociology Archaeologies of the British Susan Lawrence, 2003-04-17 Beginning with the early English colonisation of Ireland and Virginia the international range of contributors in Archaeology of the British examine the interplay of objects and identity in Scotland and Wales regional England Canada Australia South Africa Cyprus and Sri Lanka Informed by developments in historical archaeology and by postcolo Digest; Review of Reviews Incorporating Literary Digest, 1908 Spectacle and Public Performance in the Late

Middle Ages and the Renaissance ,2006-04-01 No volume about the spectacles and public performances of early modern England could pretend to treat comprehensively a body of materials so conspicuously vast Rather than efforts to survey the territory these essays are best understood in the original sense of the term as essays as trials attempts experiments to open alternative ways of understanding that vast corpus of mystery plays civic pageants court masques and professional dramas that constitute its subject The book crosses traditional period lines including studies of Medieval as well as Renaissance entertainments Once more the essays are not organized according to a single critical or historical methodology They employ an eclectic range of interpretive practices reflecting the variety of interpretive approaches now current in the field Contributors include Tiffany J Alkan Robert W Barrett Jr Sarah Beckwith Tom Bishop Peter Cockett Richard K Emmerson Peter Holland Nora Johnson Richard C McCoy Lauren Shohet and Robert E Stillman Right Backed by Might Roger Beaumont,2001-02-28 This study provides an overview of the International Air Force IAF concept which emerged in the early 20th century out of a long progression of schemes for creating multi national armed forces to enforce the peace most often referred to as an international police force IPF After broadly tracing the IAF s complex lineage Beaumont surveys the proliferation of IPF and IAF proposals throughout the 20th century including schemes offered by Kipling H G Wells and Theodore Roosevelt Later ideas included the Allies Independent Air Force of 1917 18 the evolution of the League to Enforce Peace into the League of Nations imperial air policing between the World Wars and a host of proposals official and informal such as visions of a United Nations IAF and the ad hoc coalition air forces assembled by the major western powers in the Gulf War and the Balkans in the 1990s The IAF concept gained far greater popularity even among contemporary historians than is generally appreciated Beaumont interweaves the review of the IAF and IPF designs with diplomacy and war especially the rise of air power and the confounding of its advocates visions of a cheap quick road to victory Based on Beaumont s survey of secondary and primary sources during more than a decade of research this book considers the IAF image from such diverse perspectives as pacifism popular culture and collective security Mummings and Entertainments John Lydgate,2010-03-01 John Lydgate is known as the most distinguished poet of fifteenth century England This volume presents his brilliant and underappreciated dramatic texts written for both private and public entertainment encompassing both religious and secular topics This is the first time since 1934 that many of these poems have been reprinted or reedited They are published here with an extensive gloss and notes as well as a glossary and an introduction making them accessible to a new generation of students of the Middle Ages These works are indispensable to any study of medieval English drama The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1929 Makers and Users of Medieval Books Carol M.
