A Poem for Every Season Beverly A. Glass, 2015-09-25 In this life we must eat and drink to stay alive We have in different areas of the world some more than others snow rain and wind sunshine and cool days for the harvest These seasons all interact to bring forth food with the help of the farmers So whatever season you go through let it produce We all know the adage When life gives you lemons make lemonade Who doesn't love seventy degree weather in the winter But we need the cold to ward off germs So know that every season has its ups and downs just prepare for the ride with coats and snow boots umbrellas and rain boots shorts and a T shirt sunscreen a sweater So depending on where you live gear up We can't stop the seasons but we can put on our gear I love the season of rest as any crop has to sit still for a while so be still and know that God is good Ephesians 6 10:18 tells us to put on the whole armor of God as Christians We are combating spiritual forces versus seasonal forces The armor is used interchangeably but we need it on at all times so that we will be able to stand against the wiles of the devil And as you can see God has our back A
