For Every Child A Better World:

For Every Child, a Better World Louise Gikow, Ellen Weiss, 1993 Explains the basic rights of children and that all children do not live a life in which their needs are met For Every Child a Better World Louise Gikow, 2001 Inspired by the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child this book introduces readers to the fact that many children in the world do not have access to medicine clean water clean air enough food or a safe place to live A Better World for Children? Michael King, 2002-09-11 By exploring such diverse issues as the management of child abuse legal reforms following sex abuse enquiries moral explanations for the actions of child murderers the impossible task faced by social workers and the limitations of children's rights campaigns Michael King examines the revolutionary ideas of the social theorist Niklas Luhmann He demonstrates how Luhmann's theory of autopoietic systems compels readers to re-examine exactly what they mean by society Questioning the relationship between personal morality and political will it challenges the assumption that changing society is merely a matter of changing attitudes and highlights the pitfalls associated with formulating social reform

Children Bear the Promise of a Better World, 1942 For a Better World James Naylor, Rhonda L. Hinthner, Jim Mochoruk, 2022-09-16 Canada's largest and most famous example of class conflict the Winnipeg General Strike redefined local national and international conversations around class politics region ethnicity and gender The Strike's centenary occasioned a re-examination of this critical moment in working class history when 300 social justice activists organizers scholars trade unionists artists and labour rights advocates gathered in Winnipeg in 2019 Probing the meaning of the General Strike in new and innovative ways For a Better World includes a selection of contributions from the conference as well as others explorations of the character of class confrontation in the aftermath of the First World War Editors Naylor Hinthner and Mochoruk depict key events of 1919 detailing the dynamic and complex historiography of the Strike and the larger Workers Revolt that reverberated around the world and shaped the century following the war The chapters delve into intersections of race class and gender Settler colonialism's impact on the conflict is also examined Placing the struggle in Winnipeg within a broader national and international context several contributors explore parallel strikes in Edmonton Crowsnest Pass Montreal Kansas City and Seattle For a Better World interrogates types of commemoration and remembrance current legacies of the Strike and its ongoing influence Together the essays in this collection demonstrate that the Winnipeg General Strike continues to mobilize revealing our radical past and helping us to think imaginatively about collective action in the future Every Right for Every Child Enakshi Ganguly Thukral, 2020-11-29 Despite some acknowledgement over the years of the significance of seeing children as rights holders children's concerns continue to run the risk of not being considered political and mainstream they continue to be viewed as extensions of adults or simply as members of families and communities This when the reality is that children are citizens the minute they are born and entitled to as much attention if not more than adults given their age and vulnerability Concerned with the mainstreaming of children

s interests in policy making this book raises such questions as What is good governance vis vis children What are the standards and indicators Can there be one answer for this question that is applicable to all countries In order to arrive at a better understanding of what good governance for children means and how the realization of the political cultural social and civil rights of children may be achieved the book draws on the diverse and yet comprehensive body of knowledge that has developed over the years from initiatives taken by organisations across the world who work with policy makers to make governance systems more accountable and responsive to the well being of children as citizens in themselves simultaneously empowering children to take part in decision making processes that impact their lives
