Footnotes Elena Alexander, Jill Johnston, Douglas Dunn, Marjorie Gamsó, Ishmael Houston-Jones, Kenneth King, Yvonne Meier, Sarah Skaggs, 2013-10-15 The writings of six choreographers are assembled in this book and the leap they have taken to go from the medium of choreography into written text constitutes a form of translation Some of the texts investigate the possibilities of written language as invention others use it as a means to illustrate specific tenets or describe choreographic projects All yield insight into the process of coaxing language from the body Information Subject Mark Poster, Stanley Aronowitz, 2013-10-23 First Published in 2001 In this collection of essays and interviews Mark Poster examines theoretical approaches and develops his own position on our information based society He contends that new communications media disrupt and transfigure the way identities are constituted in cultural exchanges He looks in detail at several aspects of what might be called internet culture including virtuality and democracy Poster advocates an awareness of the Internet and other new forms of communication calling for a mobilization to ensure accessibility to all and to configure technology into vehicles of open cultural creation For example nothing is pure about the Internet politically he points out and it remains an open question as to who will transform the potentiality of new communications media into determinate cultural configurations This book explores the rupture and potentiality between the electronic self and the face to face self inherent in new forms of technology and media Music/ideology Jean-François Lyotard, 1998 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Practice Stan Allen, Diana Agrest, 2000 Nine essays that practicing architect Allen wrote between 1989 and 1997 and extensively reworked over the next two years explore how the modes of representation and techniques of realization available to the architect affect the practice Though conversant in contemporary theory and architecture history he argues that concepts in architecture are not imported from other disciplines but emerge through the materials and procedures of architectural practice itself He includes many monochrome photographs but no index c Book News Inc Wake of Art Arthur C. Danto, Gregg Horowitz, Tom Huhn, Saul Ostrow, 2013-09-13 Since the mid 1980s Arthur C Danto has been increasingly concerned with the implications of the demise of modernism Out of the wake of modernist art Danto discerns the emergence of a radically pluralistic art world His essays illuminate this novel art world as well as the fate of criticism within it As a result Danto has crafted the most compelling philosophy of art criticism since Clement Greenberg Gregg Horowitz and Tom Huhn analyze the constellation of philosophical and critical elements in Danto's new Hegelian art theory In a provocative encounter they employ themes from Kantian aesthetics to elucidate the continuing persistence of taste in shaping even this most sophisticated philosophy of art Critical Vices Nicholas Zurbrugg, Warren Burt, 2005-07-15 This book of Nicholas Zurbrugg's challenging and provocative essays charts the most exciting developments in late 20th century multimedia art Zurbrugg challenges Jean Baudrillard's Fredric Jameson's and Achille Bonito Oliva's unfavorable accounts of postmodern techno culture Interweaving literary and cultural theory and visual studies Zurbrugg demonstrates how multimedia visionaries such as Bill Viola and Robert Wilson are notable exceptions to the neutering of mass media culture bringing together the modernist and postmodern avant garde Looking Back to the Future Griselda Pollock,2014-04-08 In this selection of recent essays Pollock insightfully engages all major areas of contemporary theory especially focusing on sexed subjectivities post colonialism and Marxist informed history In her commentary Penny Florence places Pollock s critique of modernism art history and criticism within the context of the social political and ideological developments that have taken place since the 1970s Florence recognizes in Pollock s work a critical model that moves beyond the contradictions that take place within the history of art Pollock s own essays and Florence s commentary elaborate the complexities in evaluating this prominent theorist and feminist whose work demands a capacity to sustain contradiction

The Theatre of Naturalism Philip Beitchman,2011 The impact of naturalism a literary approach invented by Zola and especially significant in the field of the novel through his American disciples Crane Norris and Dreiser is well acknowledged and recognized Not so well recognized but equally important is naturalistic theatre this was a style that also originated with Zola but its progeny was more international and its significance more radical and insurrectionary than in the less spectacular genre of fiction The Theatre of Naturalism Disappearing Act establishes the incipiently revolutionary context between the Paris Communist Commune crushed in 1871 and the successful Bolshevik insurrection of October 1917 more or less foregrounded or in the background of works by Zola Strindberg Ibsen Hauptmann Synge Shaw and Tolstoy focused especially on issues of class struggle and class war as well as the prospects and possibilities of challenging the hegemony of the ruling orders Especially in regard to later theatre for instance the hypernaturalism of The Brig Living Theatre of Kenneth Brown and of plays by Arnold Wesker and David Storey Philip Beitchman frequently invokes themes culled from recent French theory particularly Derrida s deconstruction and Baudrillard s ideas about simulation The Theatre of Naturalism will open up new perspectives for anyone interested in theory or theatre whether scholars or the wider theatre loving or performing public the subject of compelling and unique critical exchange between Moira Roth who holds the Trefethen Chair of Art History at Mills College Oakland and Jonathan D Katz who is Chair of the Department of Gay and Lesbian Studies at City College San Francisco
