Are What You Imagine Dina Glouberman,2014-04-22 This is a practical book that guides the reader step by step from difficult times through a turning point to a new beginning Each chapter includes a section entitled Spiritual Gym which features imagery exercises relevant to that chapter Dr Glouberman s website will host MP3 downloads to help guide the reader through the exercises The content is based on a 3 step approach to new beginnings 1 The catalyst the life event or inner search that gets the person moving 2 The turning point an expansion in perspective on oneself and life This includes an acceptance of present feelings and situations a connection with deeper and more stable levels of oneself and a vision of the possible futures 3 The new beginning accepting the vision without expecting to be happy ever after The various stages of the process are illustrated through quotes and accounts from interviews with friends and colleagues as well as prominent figures Interviewees include Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans Gabrielle Roth Five Rhythms creator actor Michael York and poet and men s movement founder Robert Bly The book combines a chatty approachable and humorous style with original insights of subtlety and depth as well as state of the art utilisation of imagery throughout Dying, Assisted Death and

Mourning ,2009-01-01 Dying and death are topics of deep humane concern for many people in a variety of circumstances and contexts However they are not discussed to any great extent or with sufficient focus in order to gain knowledge and understanding of their major features and aspects The present volume is an attempt to bridge the undesirable gap between what should be known and understood about dying and death and what is easily accessible Included in the present volume are chapters arranged in three sections First there are chapters on aspects of dying written by people who have professional experience and personal insights into the nature of the processes at work and the ways it should be treated Secondly there are chapters on assisted death Euthanasia that illuminate the practices involved in the professional assistance given to persons who suffer from an incurable illness and who do not want their painful life to be medically extended Thirdly there are chapters on mourning examined in a variety of cultural contexts These provide insights for different ways of maintaining the presence of the dead in the life of the living life in the hearts Writing Works Gillie Bolton,Victoria Field,Kate Thompson,2006 Writing Works is a guide for writers or therapists working with groups or individuals and is full of practical advice on everything from the equipment needed to run a session to ideas for themes all backed up by the theory that underpins the methods explained Practitioners contribute detailed accounts of organizing writing workshops for clients
