Engineering Communist China:

Scientific and Engineering Manpower in Communist China, 1949-1963 Zhuyuan Zheng, 1967 Scientific and Engineering Manpower in Communist China, 1949-1963 National Science Foundation (U.S.). Office of Economic and Manpower Studies, Zhuyuan Zheng, 1965 Engineering Communist China You-Li Sun, Dan Ling, 2003 Dan Ling a patriotic young engineer eager to help build a new China falls afoul of the authorities and spends 17 years as a political prisoner Rehabilitated after Deng Xiaoping came to power Dan returns to work with unflagging determination to help provide a good life for himself and his people after enduring prison work camps and work farms and the primitive life of the social outcast breaking new ground on the frozen northern frontier Lings personal story is interwoven with glimpses of rural and urban life from the 1950s to the 1970s as China fought to make the wrenching leap from a feudalistic to a modern society Ancient practices alternate with breath taking and misguided experimentation as the common man is called upon to stride boldly into the unknown but no doubt glorious future Scenes of naivety brutality generosity and pettiness personal bonds and vendettas illustrate how peasants workers and intellectuals survived in the evolving Communist system This is an expose written without rancor and a heartening story of faith in man s ability to progress Scientific and Engineering Manpower in Communist China, 1949-1963 ,1965 Scientific and Engineering Manpower in Communist China ,1967

Engineering, Development and Philosophy Steen Hyldgaard Christensen, Carl Mitcham, Bocong Li, Yanming An, 2012-10-30 This inclusive cross cultural study rethinks the nexus between engineering development and culture It offers diverse commentary from a range of disciplinary perspectives on how the philosophies of today s cultural triumvirate American European and Chinese are shaped and given nuance by the cross fertilization of engineering and development Scholars from the humanities and social sciences as well as engineers themselves reflect on key questions that arise in this relational context such as how international development work affects the professional views identities practice and ethics of engineers The first volume to offer a systematic and collaborative study that cuts across continental boundaries the book delineates the kinds of skills and competences that tomorrow s engineering success stories will require and analyzes fascinating aspects of the interplay between engineering and philosophy such as how traditionally Chinese ways of thinking can influence modern engineering practice in the world s most populous country China s problematic mix of engineering woes and wonders from the high profile crash on its high profile rail network to its bird s nest Olympic stadium adds to the urgency for reform while Europe s Enlightenment informed legal frameworks are contrasted with Chinese mechanisms in their governance of the field of nanotechnology a crucial element of future technical evolution Fascinating and compelling in equal measure this volume addresses one of the topics at the leading edge of humanity s quest to survive and to thrive
