North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century Jules Heller,Nancy G. Heller,2013-12-19 First Published in 1997 North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century A Biographical Dictionary was created to fill a gap of there being a comprehensive reference work like this available even though the bibliography in English on various aspects of the history of women artists has grown exponentially during the past ten years As researchers the editors have been frustrated many times by being unable to locate basic information about many of the artists included in this volume especially those working outside the United States This leads directly to another reason for producing this particular kind of reference book to try and create a better understanding between and among the artists and art audiences in these countries

Montreal After Dark Matthieu Caron, 2025-06-13 Sex and jazz liquor and gambling Montreal in the early twentieth century was a city that offered an exceptional nighttime scene in North America By mid century that scene came under scrutiny and Montreal's influential mayor Jean Drapeau would be elected for the first time on a reformist platform that promised to end corruption Over more than three decades Drapeau would endeavour to transform Montreal into a world class global city by regulating its nightlife Montreal After Dark chronicles the spaces where nighttime regulations were enforced and contested City authorities understood the night as enabling disorder and they reorganized policing and crafted bylaws to gain control over it Police and politicians mutually reinforced each other's drive to morally cleanse the urban landscape especially for international events like Expo 67 and the 1976 Olympics But in an era of social unrest Drapeau's administration also found itself responding to the protective services discontent The political culture of the city was quickly transformed following terrifying nights without their services Matthieu Caron shows how in an effort to incorporate the night into the expansionary tendencies of consumer capitalism municipal authorities took sides in a debate over who had the right to public space at night what constituted acceptable behaviour or expression whose sexual activity sustained the social order and whose threatened to destroy it In terms that are strikingly familiar today Montreal After Dark elucidates how the desires of politicians would come to reorganize how consumption and leisure labour and dissent noise sex and art were lived in Montreal after the sun went down

Beyond Wilderness John O'Brian, Peter White, 2017-12-30 The great purpose of landscape art is to make us at home in our own country was the nationalist maxim motivating the Group of Seven's artistic project The empty landscape paintings of the Group played a significant role in the nationalization of nature in Canada particularly in the development of ideas about northernness wilderness and identity In Beyond Wilderness contributors pick up where the Group of Seven left off They demonstrate that since the 1960s a growing body of both art and critical writing has looked beyond wilderness to re-imagine landscape in a world of vastly altered political technological and environmental circumstances By emphasizing social relationships changing identity politics and issues of colonial power and dispossession contemporary artists have produced landscape art that explores what was absent in the work of their predecessors Beyond Wilderness expands the public understanding of Canadian landscape representation tracing debates about the place of landscape in Canadian art and the national imagination through the twentieth century to the present Critical writings from both contemporary and historically significant curators historians feminists media theorists and cultural critics and exactingly reproduced artworks by contemporary and historical artists are brought together in productive dialogue Beyond Wilderness explains why landscape art in Canada had to be reinvented and what forms the reinvention took Contributors include Benedict Anderson Cornell Grant Arnold Vancouver Art Gallery Rebecca Belmore Jody Berland York Eleanor Bond Concordia Jonathan Bordo Trent Douglas Cole Marlene Creates Marcia Crosby Malaspina Greg Curnoe Ann Davis Nickle Arts Museum Leslie Dawn Lethbridge Shawna Dempsey Christos Dikeakos Peter Doig Rosemary Donegan OCAD Stan Douglas Paterson Ewen Robert Fones Northrop Frye Robert Fulford General Idea Rodney Graham Reesa Greenberg Gu Xiong British Columbia Cole Harris British Columbia Richard William Hill Middlesex Robert Houle Andrew Hunter Waterloo Lynda Jessup Queen s Zacharias Kunuk Igloolik Isuma Productions Johanne Lamoureux Montr al Robert Linsley Waterloo Barry Lord Lord Cultural Resources Marshall McLuhan Mike MacDonald Liz Magor ECIAD Lorri Millan Gerta Moray Guelph Roald Nasgaard Florida State N E Thing Company Carol Payne Carleton Edward Poitras Dennis Reid Art Gallery of Ontario Michel Saulnier Nancy Shaw Simon Fraser Johanne Sloan Concordia Michael Snow Robert Stacey David Thauberger Loretta Todd Esther Tr panier Qu bec Dot Tuer OCAD Christopher Varley Jeff Wall Paul H Walton McMaster Mel Watkins Toronto Scott Watson British Columbia Anne Whitelaw Alberta Joyce Wieland Jin me Yoon Simon Fraser Lawrence Paul Yuxweluptun and Joyce Zemans York

Art and Rivalry Carol Bishop-Gwyn,2019-10-08 The unauthorized biography of Canada s most famous artist couple and the rivalry that drove them She painted as if with pure light radiant colours making quotidian kitchen scenes come alive with sublimated drama He painted like clockwork each stroke precise and measured with exquisite care leaving no angle unchecked and no subtlety of tone unattended Some would say Mary Pratt was fire and Christopher ice And yet Newfoundland s Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera or Jackson Pollack and Lee Krasner presented their marriage as a portrait of harmony and balance But balance off the canvas rarely makes great art and the Pratt's art was spectacular. As a youth at Mount Allison University in New Brunswick, Mary pursued her future husband, a prodigious art talent, and supported his determination to study painting instead of medicine. They married and removed themselves to a Newfoundland outport where his painting alone provided the means to raise a family. But as Mary's own talents became evident and she sought her own hours at the easel when not raising their four children, and as rumours of Christopher's affair with a young model spread, the Pratts' harmonious exterior slowly cracked to scandal in Newfoundland and fascination across the country. A marriage ended and gave way to a furious competition for dominance in Canadian art.

Louise Lecavalier MJ Thompson, 2025-06-26 As principal dancer with Montreal-based company La La La Human Steps, Louise Lecavalier was among the most iconic dancers of her generation: strong, muscled, androgynous, punk. Moving with spectacular speed, precision, and an athletic physicality, her commitment to dancing would ultimately transform the potential of what bodies within Western concert dance could do. Drawing on extensive oral history accounts and archival material, the book follows Lecavalier's impact on the evolving aesthetic of La La La Human Steps via the development of its early repertoire and offers the first sustained account of her 1982 solo Non Non Non je ne suis pas Mary Poppins. More, it tracks diverse influences and sources for the repertoire, complicating understandings of nationalism in Quebec while marking the significance of the collective in generating new aesthetics. What emerges is a portrait of the dancer as artist, icon, labourer, and mover of cultural discourse. Featuring an expansive set of photos and ephemera, including performance documentation by photographer/activist Linda Dawn Hammond, production images by choreographer douard Lock, and street photography by key players in the 1980s Montreal scene, this study offers a critical and celebratory appraisal of Lecavalier's unique contribution and the role of the dancer more broadly as a producer of culture.

The Avant-Garde and the Margin Sanja Bahun-Radunovic, V.G. Julie Rajan, 2009-03-26 The collection of essays The Avant-garde and the Margin: New Territories of the Modernist Avant-garde refigures the critical and historical picture of the modernist avant-garde by introducing a variety of less commonly discussed geo-artistic sites and dynamics. The contributors explore the multifaceted relations established between the avant-garde centers (France, Germany, England, and others) and their counterparts in the cultural periphery (Greece, India, Japan, Poland, Quebec, Romania, and the former Yugoslavia) as well as the unique artistic and literary dialogues which these encounters engendered. The primary concern of the anthology is the set of relations established between the center and the margin, the redefinition of which was pivotal for the formulation of the modernist avant-garde aesthetic project itself. While enriching the kaleidoscopic picture of modernism, the essays in this collection also offer new methodological approaches to this polychrome cultural image. In this way, the collection avoids the pitfalls of both the traditional diffusionist/Eurocentric model of the world and the more recent over-relativization of the positions of the margin and the center. In their stead, the anthology proposes a hermeneutics of encounter that is simultaneously spatial and historical, aware of its limits but convinced of its own necessity.

Imagining Resistance J. Keri Cronin, Kirsty Robertson, 2011-09-23 Imagining Resistance
