The End of the Affair Graham Greene, 1951 In England during World War II an American writer and the bored wife of a British civil servant fall in love then she mysteriously ends the affair

The Business of Reading Julian Lovelock, 2022-02-24 In The Business of Reading Julian Lovelock charts the development of the English novel over the past hundred years Smuggling in titles from Scotland Ireland and the Caribbean he focuses on twenty texts written since the end of the First World War some well known but others less so placing them in their historical context Novelists represented range from D H Lawrence E M Forster and Virginia Woolf through Graham Greene Kingsley Amis and Iris Murdoch to such contemporary writers as Ian McEwan Maggie O Farrell and Graham Swift Written in a lucid style that reflects his expertise and enthusiasm Lovelock's innovative selection perceptive analysis and lightness of touch will appeal to the general reader the book club member and the student He argues that our response as readers is an important part of the creative process and while he mainly avoids the critical isms that have characterised recent academic debate he introduces such concepts as intertextuality metafiction and the role of the often unreliable narrator showing how an appreciation of the way the language of fiction works can only add to our understanding and enjoyment

Creating an Effective Couples Therapy Practice Butch Losey, 2017-12-15 Most clinicians seek guidelines and indicators as to the effectiveness of their interventions with clients Some may even be implementing evidence based interventions and seek an in depth understanding of their results This book helps clinicians who provide couple's or marriage therapy and counseling go from the ambiguous realm of thinking or knowing their effectiveness to being able to demonstrate it It identifies effective strategies for common treatment concerns that connect to the successful outcomes of therapy Here the process starts even before the couple enters therapy and goes beyond the final session Dr Losey discusses specific outcome measures and how they can be used in session so that the couple can assess their relationship and develop specific goals and interventions for treatment The author also examines session notes pre treatment change and developing quality post treatment goals in his discussion of clinical effectiveness

Saint Hysteria Cristina Mazzoni, 1996 Saint Hysteria examines scientific literary and religious texts that share a fascination with the otherness of the female body whether in ecstatic pleasure or in neurotic pain Cristina Mazzoni focuses on material from the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries mainly in Italy and France Her approach uses the methodologies of cultural studies and feminism but also benefits from the insights of psychoanalytic criticism She asks how the identification of mysticism with hysteria became prevalent and explores the continuing dialogue between a historicizing view of hysteria and a view of hysteria as repressed religious mysticism According to Mazzoni this dialogue is discernible at various levels and in a variety of discourses The medical history of hysteria she maintains is often linked to the religious history of supernatural phenomena and the medical discourse of positivism depends on the religious feminine element that it attempts to repress Similarly she finds a continuity between the literature of naturalism and that of decadence in their representations of the interdependence of neurosis and religion Finally the religious writings of women mystics and the discourses they inspired reveal an unresolved tension between nature and supernature body and soul or psyche which Mazzoni suggests mirrors and complicates the very issues raised by hysterical conversion Among those whose views she considers are the writers Jules and Edmond de Goncourt Gabriele d Annunzio and Antonio Fogazzaro as well as Graham Greene and Simone Weil the mystics Angela of Foligno Gemma Galgani and Teresa of Avila and the theorists Jean Martin Charcot Cesare Lombroso Jacques Lacan Simone de Beauvoir Julia Kristeva and Luce Irigaray Graham Greene A. F. Cassis,1981 Covers fifty years of criticism of Graham Greene a leading man of letters on the English literary scene

Waiting for the End Earl G. Ingersoll,2007 Waiting for the End examines two dozen contemporary novels within the context of a half century of theorizing about the function of ending in narrative That theorizing about ending generated a powerful dynamic a quarter century ago with the advent of feminist criticism of masculinist readings of the role played by ending in fiction Feminists such as Theresa de Lauretis in 1984 and more famously Susan Winnett in her 1991 PMLA essay Coming Unstrung were leading voices in a swelling chorus of theorist pointing out the masculinist bias of ending in narrative With the entry of feminist readings of ending it became inevitable that criticism of fiction would become gendered through the recognition of difference transcending a simple binary of female male to establish a spectrum of masculine to feminine endings regardless of the sex of the writer Accordingly Waiting for the End examines pairs of novels one pair by Margaret Atwood and one by Ian McEwan to demonstrate how a writer can offer endings at either end of the gender spectrum

Defeat and Division Douglas Porch,2022-08-25 Defeat and Division launches a definitive new account of France in the Second World War In this first volume Douglas Porch dissects France s 1940 collapse the dynamics of occupation and the rise of Charles de Gaulle s Free France crusade culminating in the November 1942 Allied invasion of French North Africa He captures the full sweep of France s wartime experience in Europe Africa and beyond from soldiers and POWs to civilians in arms colonial subjects and foreign refugees He recounts France s struggles to reconstruct military power within the context of a global conflict with its armed forces shattered into warring factions and the country under Axis occupation Disagreements over the causes of the 1940 debacle and the subsequent requirement for the armistice mirrored long standing fractures in politics society and the French military itself as efforts to reconstitute French military power crumbled into Vichy collaboration De Gaulle s exile resistance Alsace Moselle occupation struggles and a scuffle for imperial supremacy
