experimentation with export led development inspired by Lenin's New Economic Policy and the economic reforms of Eastern Europe and Asia Having uncovered an extraordinary collection of internal party and government documents Lawrence Reardon meticulously traces the evolution of the coastal development strategy starting with special economic zones in 1979 and evolving into the fourteen open coastal cities the Hainan SEZ and eventual accession to the global trade regime in 2001 Reardon details how Deng and Zhao Ziyang tackled large scale smuggling operations compromised with Chen Yun's conservative views and overcame Deng Liqun's ideological opposition Although Zhao Ziyang was airbrushed out of official Chinese history after June 4 1989 Reardon argues that Zhao was the true architect of China's opening strategy A Third Way provides important new insights about the crucial period of the 1980s and how it paved the way for China's transformation into a global economic superpower

Neoliberalism and neo-jihadism Imogen Richards, 2020-09-29 Few social and political phenomena have been debated as frequently or fervidly as neoliberalism and neo jihadism Yet while discourse on these phenomena has been wide ranging they are rarely examined in relation to one another Neoliberalism and Neo jihadism examines political economic characteristics of twentieth and early twenty first century neo jihadism Drawing on Bourdieusian and neo Marxist ideas it investigates how the neo jihadist organisations Al Qaeda and Islamic State engage with the late modern capitalist paradigm of neoliberalism in their anti capitalist propaganda and quasi capitalist financial practices An investigation of documents and discourses reveals interactions between neoliberalism and neo jihadism characterised by surface level contradiction and structural connections that are both dialectical and mutually reinforcing Neoliberalism here is argued to constitute an underlying status quo while neo jihadism as an evolving form of political organisation is perpetuated as part of this situation Representing differentiated unique and exclusive examples of the revolutionary phenomenon of neo jihadism Al Qaeda and Islamic State are demonstrated to be characteristic of the mutually constitutive nature of power and resistance Just as resistance movements throughout modern history come to resemble the forms of power they sought to overthrow so too have Al Qaeda and Islamic State reconstituted the dominant political economic paradigm of neoliberalism they mobilised in response to

Washington's Dark Secret John Maszka, 2018-10-01 As a scholar of terrorism John Maszka has examined how politics the media and the War on Terror play off one another His most startling claim is that the War on Terror is a war for natural resources and that terrorism has little to do with it Once the military became mechanized oil quickly became the most sought after commodity on the planet and the race for energy was eventually framed as a matter of national security Ironically Maszka argues the true threats to national security are the massive oil conglomerates themselves Maszka delves into the repercussions of a government that capitalizes on an us versus them mentality such as the demonizing of an entire religion sensationalizing radical violent attacks and loosely applying the word terrorism Because the United States current approach to terrorism has led to the politicization and abuse of the term Maszka suggests a need for a standardized definition of terrorism Currently too many acts of violence can be labeled terrorism resulting in state and nonstate actors labeling their enemies as terrorists yet claiming their own acts of violence as legitimate and retributive Maszka argues that much of the violence labeled as terrorism today is not terrorism at all In an ambitious attempt to connect seemingly unrelated events in politics and the media Maszka offers an unflinching portrayal of the hypocrisy underlying our foreign policy
