Congress, 1961 Spreading the American Dream Emily Rosenberg, 2011-04-01 In examining the economic and cultural trs that expressed America s expansionist impulse during the first half of the twentieth century Emily S Rosenberg shows how U S foreign relations evolved from a largely private system to an increasingly public one and how soon the American dream became global Foreign Policies Of Northern Europe Bengt Sundelius, 2019-04-05 This cross national treatment of the foreign policies of Northern Europe Denmark Finland Iceland Norway Sweden is organized by substantive policy areas rather than by country thus allowing most similar case analyses of several dimensions of the countries international relations The authors make comparisons among the countries in each area of investigation and present details of security international development and neighborhood and foreign policy processes They also describe and explain international and domestic forces that shape the region s external policies The combination of sound empirically based data and attention to broader international and theoretical interests allows relevant comparisons with other advanced industrial states

The Foreign Policies of European Union Member States Ian Manners, Richard Whitman, 2000 This comparative analysis of the foreign policies of European Union member states includes comprehensive coverage of the post Maastricht period and the three newest members of the EU In the only comparative study of its kind since 1976 the book analyzes the dual impact of the Maastricht Treaty on the European Union and the post Cold War environment on the foreign policy processes of the EU s member states The book argues for a new approach to the foreign policy analysis of EU states that recognizes the fundamental changes that membership brings after the Cold War but also acknowledges the diverse role of policies which states seek to retain or advance as being special

Discourse and Affect in Foreign Policy Jakub Eberle, 2019-05-01 Foreign and security policy have long been removed from the political pressures that influence other areas of policymaking This has led to a tendency to separate the analytical levels of the individual and the collective Using Lacanian theory which views the subject as ontologically incomplete and desiring a perfect identity which is realised in fantasies or narrative scenarios this book shows that the making of foreign policy is a much more complex process Emotions and affect play an important role even where hard security issues such as the use of military force are concerned Eberle constructs a new theoretical framework for analysing foreign policy by capturing the interweaving of both discursive and affective aspects in policymaking He uses this framework to explain Germany s often contradictory foreign policy towards the Iraq crisis of 2002 2003 and the emotional even existential public debate that accompanied it This book adds to ongoing theoretical debates in International Political Sociology and Critical Security

Studies and will be required reading for all scholars working in these areas Transforming Europe Through Crises Didem Buhari, Christian Kaunert, Seckin Baris Gulmez, 2022-11-28 How many Europes is a critical question that led to several attempts to analyse European crises and transformations globally This book builds upon the argument that Europe cannot be reduced to a singular dynamic identity or vision but rather provides a four fold taxonomy Thin Thick Parochial and Global Europe The book contributors aim to respond to the emerging necessity to incorporate both the parochial dynamics unmaking Europe and the globalist dynamics decentering Europe into the analysis of European crises and transformations in diverse sectors ranging from security and foreign policy to the rule of law and democracy Accordingly this book is unpacking Europe in a time of severe crises facing the EU such as Brexit the Syrian refugee crisis Catalan secessionism the rise of far right and terrorism which have accelerated the resurgence of formerly marginalized and repressed dynamics as influential trends in national regional and global politics It reveals an ongoing hegemonic struggle over the representation of Europe among many Europes involving two separate integrationist models of regionalization or Europe making and two distinct dynamics that have sought to fragment and de centre the European Union through nationalism and globalism respectively The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of European Politics and Society Newsletter ,1964

Cold War Kenneth Alan Osgood, 2006 Osgood focuses on major campaigns such as Atoms for Peace People to People and cultural exchange programs Drawing on recently declassified documents that record U S psychological operations in some three dozen countries he tells how U S propaganda agencies presented everyday life in America to the world its citizens living full happy lives in a classless society where economic bounty was shared by all Osgood further investigates the ways in which superpower disarmament negotiations were used as propaganda maneuvers in the battle for international public opinion He also reexamines the early years of the space race focusing especially on the challenge to American propagandists posed by the Soviet launch of Sputnik Dutch-American Relations, 1945-1969 Hans Loeber, 1992 Routledge Library
