Fragile Ecologies Contemporary Artists Interpretations And Solutions:

Fragile Ecologies Barbara C. Matilsky,1992      FRAGILE ECOLOGIES. Barbara C. Matilsky,1992      A Cultural History of Waste Disposal Benjamin A. Lawson,2024-12-11 This book offers a historical analysis of landfill sites in New York City Greater Toronto and Greater Tel Aviv and uses them as case studies to emphasize the international and global scale of issues concerning waste disposal and park redevelopments New York Toronto and Tel Aviv are currently redeveloping giant landfills into parks to much fanfare The park redevelopments may be seen as an attempt to erase or assuage the decades of problematic waste disposal policy that led to the creation of such large landfills Booster rhetoric underscores this point such as promoting how the parks will be a green lung for the city This book contextualizes these redevelopments by offering a historical analysis providing a greater understanding of the past current and future potential issues It goes on to analyze the language and media coverage surrounding former waste sites becoming park redevelopments including how cities use art to promote their image and gain cultural relevance By engaging with both the works of waste historians and literature on waste and discard studies the book provides theoretical models for analyzing the role of power in municipal systems as well as human and ecological impacts on waste It concludes with an analysis of the features necessary for landfill parks to be successful This book will be useful for scholars researchers and academics studying waste studies the environment cities and sustainable development as well as for policymakers and environmental eco artists      The Routledge Companion to Art in the Public Realm Cameron Cartiere,Leon Tan,2020-10-19 This multidisciplinary companion offers a comprehensive overview of the global arena of public art It is organised around four distinct topics activation social justice memory and identity and ecology with a final chapter mapping significant works of public and social practice art around the world between 2008 and 2018 The thematic approach brings into view similarities and differences in the recent globalisation of public art practices while the multidisciplinary emphasis allows for a consideration of the complex outcomes and consequences of such practices as they engage different disciplines and communities and affect a diversity of audiences beyond the existing art world The book will highlight an international selection of artist projects that illustrate the themes This book will be of interest to scholars in contemporary art art history urban studies and museum studies

Handbook of Ecocriticism and Cultural Ecology Hubert Zapf,2016-05-10 Ecocriticism has emerged as one of the most fascinating and rapidly growing fields of recent literary and cultural studies From its regional origins in late twentieth century Anglo American academia it has become a worldwide phenomenon which involves a decidedly transdisciplinary and transnational paradigm that promises to return a new sense of relevance to research and teaching in the humanities A distinctive feature of the present handbook in comparison with other survey volumes is the combination of ecocriticism with cultural ecology reflecting an emphasis on the cultural transformation of ecological processes and on the crucial role of literature art and other forms of cultural creativity for the evolution of societies towards sustainable futures In state of the art contributions by leading international scholars in the field this handbook maps some of the most important developments in contemporary ecocritical thought It introduces key theoretical concepts issues and directions of ecocriticism and cultural ecology and demonstrates their relevance for the analysis of texts and other cultural phenomena Ecologies in Practice Elysia French,Amanda White,2024-06-30 What is the responsibility or the task of the arts as we face environmental crisis Ecologies in Practice is an edited collection of dynamic and multi formatted contributions that explore the ways in which cultural production informs perceptions communications and knowledge of environmental distress in a Canadian context pointing to the significance of the arts in the creation and sharing of crucial counter narratives and alternative possibilities Ecologies in Practice identifies the arts as an important mode of inquiry for reimagining and for public engagement and understanding of pressing environmental and social concerns while acknowledging the ways in which it contributes important work to the growing interdisciplinary field of Environmental Humanities Bringing together artistic perspectives from a range of lenses and voices including artists writers scholars activists curators theorists and makers Ecologies in Practice offers important tools for artists scholars students and research creators invested in arts and the environment Contributors present artistic methods as alternative sites of understanding that contribute significant and affective work to environmental scholarship while thinking outside of the disciplinary borders and confines of the artworld Ecologies in Practice aims to initiate vital conversations among practitioners and together with readers consider what environmentally engaged arts lend differently to these conversations Eco-Aesthetics Malcolm Miles,2014-05-08 By moving beyond traditional aesthetic categories beauty the sublime the religious Eco Aesthetics takes an inter disciplinary approach bridging the arts humanities and social sciences and explores what aesthetics might mean in the 21st century It is one in a series of new radical aesthetics promoting debate confronting convention and formulating alternative ways of thinking about art practice There is no doubt that the social and environmental spheres are interconnected but can art and artists really make a difference to the global environmental crisis Can art practice meaningfully contribute to the development of sustainable lifestyles Malcolm Miles explores the strands of eco art eco aesthetics and contemporary aesthetic theories offering timely critiques of consumerism and globalisation and ultimately offers a possible formulation of an engaged eco aesthetic for the early 21st century Art Nature Dialogues John K. Ecological Design, Tenth Anniversary Edition Sim Van der Ryn,Stuart Cowan,2013-03-05 Ecological Design is a landmark volume that helped usher in an exciting new era in green design and sustainability planning Since its initial publication in 1996 the book has been critically important in sparking dialogue and triggering collaboration across spatial scales and design professions in pursuit of buildings products and landscapes with radically decreased environmental impacts This 10th anniversary edition makes the work available to a new generation of practitioners and thinkers concerned with moving our society onto a more sustainable path Using examples from architecture industrial ecology sustainable agriculture ecological wastewater treatment and many other fields Ecological Design provides a framework for integrating human design with living systems Drawing on complex systems ecology and early examples of green building and design the book challenges us to go further creating buildings infrastructures and landscapes that are truly restorative rather than merely diminishing the rate at which things are getting worse

Landscape into Eco Art Mark Cheetham,2018-02-14 Dedicated to an articulation of the earth from broadly ecological perspectives eco art is a vibrant subset of contemporary art that addresses the widespread public concern with rapid climate change and related environmental issues In Landscape into Eco Art Mark Cheetham systematically examines connections and divergences between contemporary eco art land art of the 1960s and 1970s and the historical genre of landscape painting Through eight thematic case studies that illuminate what eco art means in practice reception and history Cheetham places the form in a longer and broader art historical context He considers a wide range of media from painting sculpture and photography to artists films video sound work animation and installation and analyzes the work of internationally prominent artists such as Olafur Eliasson Nancy Holt Mark Dion and Robert Smithson In doing so Cheetham reveals eco art to be a dynamic extension of a long tradition of landscape depiction in the West that boldly enters into today s debates on climate science government policy and our collective and individual responsibility to the planet An ambitious intervention into eco criticism and the environmental humanities this volume provides original ways to understand the issues and practices of eco art in the Anthropocene Art historians humanities scholars and lay readers interested in contemporary art and the environment will find Cheetham s work valuable and invigorating Everyday Aesthetics Yuriko Saito,2008-01-03 Everyday aesthetic experiences and concerns occupy a large part of our aesthetic life However because of their prevalence and mundane nature we tend not to pay much attention to them let alone examine their significance Western aesthetic theories of the past few centuries also neglect everyday aesthetics because of their almost exclusive emphasis on art In a ground breaking new study Yuriko Saito provides a detailed investigation into our everyday aesthetic experiences and reveals how our everyday aesthetic tastes and judgments can exert a powerful influence on the state of the world and our quality of life By analysing a wide range of examples from our aesthetic interactions with nature the environment everyday objects and Japanese culture Saito illustrates the complex nature of seemingly simple and innocuous aesthetic responses She discusses the inadequacy of art centered aesthetics the aesthetic appreciation of the distinctive characters of objects or phenomena responses to various manifestations of transience and the aesthetic expression of moral values and she examines the moral political existential and environmental implications of these and other issues
