Literary Companion To Lectionary:

Literary Companion to the Lectionary Mark Pryce, 2001-01-01 This book offers poems and literary pieces for Sundays and Principle Feasts in the Liturgical Year Each selection relates to an aspect of the scripture readings given from the Eucharist in the revised Common Lectionary and Common Worship Lectionary

Literary Companion to the Lectionary Mark Pryce, 2001-12-01 This beautiful book offers poems and literary pieces for Sundays and principal feasts throughout the liturgical year Each selection relates to an aspect of the Scripture readings for the Eucharist in the Revised Common Lectionary the Roman Catholic lectionary and the Book of Common Prayer Drawn from many centuries and many countries including Britain Ireland North America Africa and Australia these readings bridging literature and liturgy can prompt private prayer or public worship through imaginative engagement A short note before each passage connects with an idea image or story found in one of the biblical readings or the seasonal theme From Robert Herrick to Brendan Kennelly from Christina Rossetti to Emily Dickinson from Dante to Monica Furlong the poets novelists and playwrights gathered here bring an added dimension that graces the life of the church

Words That Listen J. Barney Hawkins IV, 2018-03-17 An accessible and distinctive anthology of texts to support preaching and enhance individual devotion Consulting editors include former Presiding Bishop Frank Griswold Cynthia Kitteridge Mark Oakley Canon Chancellor St Paul's Cathedral London Volume 1 covers Advent to Ascension Volume 2 Pentecost to end of Church Year The great themes of faith are also the great themes of literature and the arts As we come to terms with God hope faith tragedy guilt fear and love so the poets writers musicians and artists pick up the same themes and their understanding can enrich and deepen our own Words That Listen brings these two worlds together For each gospel Markham and Hawkins offer four connecting resource suggestions e.g. a poem extract from a novel a film television sporting illustration and or a humorous story to illuminate make connections and spark new ways of looking at familiar stories The suggestions for each Sunday include a brief summary and explanation of the extracts

The Oxford Handbook of Anglican Studies Mark David Chapman, Sathianathan Clarke, Martyn Percy, 2016 The Anglican Communion is the third largest Christian denomination and claims a membership of some 80 million members in about 164 countries Given that there are only around two hundred countries in the world this makes the churches of the Anglican Communion the most geographically widespread denomination after Roman Catholicism The 44 essays in this volume embrace a wide range of academic disciplines theological historical demography and geography and different aspects of culture and ethics They are united in their discussion of what is effectively a new inter disciplinary subject which we have termed Anglican Studies At the core of this volume is the phenomenon of Anglicanism as this is expressed in different places and in a variety of ways across the world This Handbook covers a far broader set of topics from a wider range of perspectives than has been hitherto attempted in Anglican Studies At the same time it doesn't impose a particular theological or historical agenda The contributions are drawn from across the spectrum of theological views and opinions It shows that the unsettled nature of the polity is part of its own rich history and many will see this as a somewhat lustrous tradition In its comprehensive coverage this volume is a valuable contribution to Anglican Studies and helps formulate a discipline that might perhaps promote dialogue and discussion across the Anglican world The Living Church, 1998

Making Nothing Happen Gavin D'Costa, Eleanor Nesbitt, Mark Pryce, Ruth Shelton, 2018-10-24 Making Nothing Happen is a conversation between five poet theologians who are broadly within the Christian tradition Nicola Slee Ruth Shelton Mark Pryce Eleanor Nesbitt and Gavin D Costa Together they form The Diviners a group which has been meeting together for a number of years for poetry and theological and literary reflection Each poet offers an illuminating reflection on how they understand the relation between poetry and faith rooting their reflections in their own writing and illustrating discussion with a selection of their own poems The poets open up issues for deeper exploration and reflection including the nature of creativity and the distinction between divine and human creation the creative process as exploration epiphany and revelation the forging of identity through writing ways in which the arts reflect challenge and dialogue with faith and faith can inform and challenge the arts power and voice in poetry and faith and ways in which race gender and culture interact with and shape poetic and theological discourse This book will be of interest to poets and theologians to all who read poetry and are interested in the connections between literature and faith to those seeking inspiration for preaching liturgy and pastoral care and to those committed to the practice and nurturing of a contemplative attitude to life in which profound attention and respect are offered to words and to the creative Word at work Liturgical Spirituality Stephen Burns,2013-11-20 Of particular interest to scholars and practitioners across the Anglican Communion with contributions from a wide breadth of scholars Liturgical Spirituality is a collection of Anglican reflections on the spirituality of the liturgy inviting readers into the Church s patterns of prayer seasons of the year and sacramental action With contributions from all over the world from the North Atlantic to Australia the collection helps develop a comprehensive understanding of contemporary Anglican spirituality Journeying with Matthew James Woodward,Paula Gooder,Mark Pryce,2016-08-02 Journeying with Matthew offers a brief and accessible guide to the Gospel of Matthew Like the previous volumes in this series Journeying with Matthew follows the Revised Common Lectionary Each chapter corresponds to a season of the liturgical year and the Gospel passages read during that season Inside readers will find an introduction to the biblical text that looks at historical and literary themes imaginative new ways to encounter Matthew in preaching and study including poetry and reflections on the text s meaning for contemporary Christian life Each chapter ends with an action item reflection questions and a prayer Perfect for lectionary pastors to use during personal reflection and sermon preparation this inspiring resource will serve as an essential guide along the journey of encountering Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew Also available Journeying with Luke Reflections on the Gospel and Journeying with John Reflections on the Gospel On Rowan Williams Matheson Russell,2009-01-01 Theologian poet public intellectual and clergyman Rowan Williams is one of the leading lights of contemporary British theology He has published over twenty books and one hundred scholarly essays in a distinguished career as an academic theologian that culminated in his appointment as Lady Margaret Professor of Divinity at Oxford University Williams left this post to serve in the Anglican Church first as Bishop of Monmouth then Archbishop of Wales before finally being enthroned in 2003 as the 104th Archbishop of Canterbury In this collection of essays a talented younger generation of Australian theologians critically analyzes the themes that bind together Williams s theology These sympathetic yet probing essays traverse the full breadth of Williams s work from his studies on Arius the Desert Fathers Hegel and Trinitarian theology to his more pastoral writings on spirituality sexuality politics and the Anglican Church Religious Celebrations Bloomsbury Publishing,2011-09-13 This two volume work presents a comprehensive survey of all the ways people celebrate religious life around the globe Religious Celebrations is an alphabetically organized encyclopedia that covers more than 800 celebratory occasions from all of the world s major religious communities as well as many of the minor faith traditions The encyclopedia provides a complete reference tool for examining the myriad ways people worldwide celebrate their religious lives across religious boundaries providing information on numerous celebratory activities never before covered in a reference work Offering the most comprehensive coverage of religious holidays ever assembled this two volume book covers festivals commemorations holidays and annual religious gatherings all over the world with special attention paid to the celebrations in larger countries Entries written by distinguished researchers and specialists on different religious communities capture the unique intensity of each event be it fasting or feasting frenzied activity or the universal cessation of work a huge gathering of the faithful en masse or a small family centered event The work spotlights celebrations that currently exist without overlooking now abandoned celebrations that still impact the modern world

Moving On in Ministry Tim Ling, 2014-08-19 While the Church of England provides practical resources for clergy as they make changes in their careers very little theological reflection has been done around this subject Not all change is welcome and driving factors differ from those in secular employment This important volume explores key questions to consider at points of transition

Poetry, Practical Theology and Reflective Practice Mark Pryce, 2019-03-13 This groundbreaking study offers an innovative critical analysis of poetry as a resource for reflective practice in the context of continuing professional development In the contemporary drive in all professions for greater rigour in education training and development little attention is paid to the inner shape of learning and meaning making for individuals and groups especially ways in which individuals are formed for the task of their work Building on empirical research into the author's professional practice the book takes the use of poetry in clergy continuing ministerial development as a case study to examine the value of poetry in professional learning Setting out the advantages and limitations of poetry as a stimulant for imaginative critical reflexivity and formation within professional reflective practice the study develops a practical model for group reflection around poetry distilling pedagogical approaches for working effectively with poetry in continuing professional development Drawing together a number of strands of thinking about poetry Practical Theology and reflective practice into a tightly argued study the book is an important methodological resource It makes available a range of primary and secondary sources offering researchers into professional practice a model of ethnographic research in Practical Theology which embraces innovative methods for reflexivity and theological reflection including the value of auto ethnographic poetry

Difficult Gospel Mike Higon, 2005-01-01 Rowan Williams is widely recognized as a creative and powerful theologian but his theological writings are frequently complex and difficult This book provides a clear and simple guide to all the main themes of his theology and shows how they are related to his reading of the Bible his careful and wide ranging engagement with the Christian tradition and his grappling with contemporary culture It shows how the Archbishop's ideas about peace or about popular culture about sexuality or about evangelism relate to his understanding of the nature of the life of God and the challenging good news of Jesus Christ This book is designed especially for those who have no formal training in theology or academic expertise but are interested in finding out more about what Rowan Williams stands for

Researching Female Faith Nicola Slee, Fran Porter, Anne Phillips, 2017-11-09 Religious and spiritual engagement has undergone multiple significant changes in recent decades Researching Female Faith is a collection of essays based on recent and original field research conducted by the contributors and informed by a variety of theoretical perspectives into the faith lives of women and girls broadly from within a Christian context Essays describe and recount original qualitative research that identifies illuminates and enhances our understanding of key aspects of women s and girls faith lives Offered as a contribution to feminist practical and pastoral theology the essays arise out of and feed back into a range of mainly UK pastoral and practical contexts While the essays in this volume will contribute to an enhanced appreciation and analysis of female faith the core focus is on feminist qualitative research methods and methodology Thus they demystify and illuminate the process of research including features of research which are frequently under examined The book is a first in bringing together a specific focus on feminist qualitative research methodology with the study of female faith lives It will therefore be of great interest to students academics and practitioners with interests in faith and gender in theology religious studies and sociology
