John Hustons Filmmaking:

John Huston's Filmmaking Lesley Brill, 1997-10-13 John Huston's Filmmaking offers an analysis of the life and work of one of the greatest American independent filmmakers Always visually exciting Huston's films sensitively portray humankind in all its incarnations chronicling the attempts by protagonists to conceive and articulate their identities Fundamental questions of selfhood happiness and love are intimately connected to the idea of home which for the filmmaker also signified a congenial place among other people in the world In this study Lesley Brill shows Huston's films to be far more than formulaic adventures of masculine failure arguing instead that they demonstrate the close connection between humanity the natural world and divinity John Huston John Huston, 2001 Over thirty years of interviews with the American director of such classic films as The Maltese Falcon Key Largo The African Queen and The Night of the Iguana John Huston Scott Hammen, 1985 Examines American film director John Huston's work in a strictly critical approach offering much insight into the illustrious director's career The Cinema of John Huston Gerald Pratley, 1977 John Huston as Adaptor Douglas McFarland, Wesley King, 2017-01-28 John Huston as Adaptor makes the case that adaptation is the salient element in Huston's identity as a filmmaker and that his early and deep attraction to the experience of reading informed his approach to film adaptation Thirty four of Huston's thirty seven films were adaptations of literary texts and they stand as serious interpretations of literary works that could only be made by an astute reader of literature Indeed Huston asserted that a film director should be above all else a reader and that reading itself should be the intellectual and emotional basis for filmmaking The seventeen essays in this volume not only address Huston as an adaptor but also offer an approach to adaptation studies that has been largely overlooked How an adaptor reads the works to which he is drawn and how his literary interpretations can be brought to the screen without relegating film to a subservient role are some of the issues addressed by the contributors An introductory chapter identifies Huston as the quintessential Hollywood adaptor and argues that his skill at adaptation is the mark of his authorial signature The chapters that follow focus on fifteen of Huston's most important films including The Maltese Falcon 1941 The Treasure of the Sierra Madre 1948 The African Queen 1951 The Night of the Iguana 1964 Under the Volcano 1984 and The Dead 1987 and are divided into three areas aesthetics and textuality history and social context and theory and psychoanalysis By offering a more comprehensive account of the centrality of adaptation to Huston's films John Huston as Adaptor offers a greater understanding of Huston as a filmmaker John Huston Tony Tracy, Roddy Flynn, 2014-01-10 Years after his death American filmmaker John Huston 1906 1987 remains an enigmatic and compelling figure This wide ranging collection of new essays encompasses a variety of topics relating to Huston's lifestyle political activities and cinematic legacy Fresh analyses of such films as Key Largo The Asphalt Jungle The African Queen The Misfits and Prizzi's Honor are included along with insightful studies of Huston's oft overlooked literary adaptations In This Our Life Moby Dick and A Walk With Love and Death Also evaluated are Huston's controversial

World War II documentary Let There Be Light and two a clef portraits of the real Huston in the films The Way We Were and White Hunter Black Heart Bookending these essays are revealing interviews with John's actress daughter Angelica Huston and film producer Wieland Schultz Keil
