Congressional Serial Set United States. 95th Congress, 1st session, 1977,1977 Historic Documents of 2014 CQ Press,Heather Kerrigan,2015-06-10 For more than 40 years the Historic Documents series has made primary source research easy by presenting full primary documents and excerpts from documents on the important events of each year for the United States and the world Each volume includes approximately 70 events with well over 100 documents from the previous year from official or other influential reports and surveys to speeches from leaders and opinion makers to court cases legislation testimony and much more Historic Documents is renowned for the well written and informative background history and context it provides for each document Published annually the updated 2014 volume begins with an insightful essay that sets the year s events in context and each document or group of documents is preceded by a comprehensive introduction that provides background information on the event Full source citations are provided Readers have easy access to material through a detailed thematic table of contents and an index as well as an Other Historic Documents of Interest section which lists related entries from this and previous editions Global Climate Negotiations United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations,1998 Being the Person Your Dog Thinks You Are Jim Davies,2021-02-02 A crisp and sparkling blend of cognitive science and human behavior that offers meaningful and attainable pathways towards becoming our best selves Why do we feel like in order to be productive happy or good we must sacrifice everything else Is it possible to feel all three at once Without even knowing it we re doing things everyday to sabotage ourselves and our societies habits that prevent us from optimizing long term happiness Where most books imagine solutions that when enacted fail to fundamentally improve our lives Jim Davies grounds his research in cognitive science to show you not only what works but how much it works Being the Person Your Dog Thinks You Are shows us how we can use science to become our best selves using resources we already have within our own brains Davies s book challenges and inspires us to approach the big picture while also staying mindful of the everyday details in real life Davies proves why multitasking is bad for you when a little unmindfulness can be good for you how to best justify which charities to donate to and how to hack your brain The most surprising truth Davies offers us spreads across these pages like wildfire you too can lead an optimally good life not through uprooting your life from the ground up but from adapting your mentality to your given present A better life doesn t need to look like a massive change like our beloved dogs who already view us as our best selves it's already much closer than you think

Environmental Ethics and Forestry Peter C. List, 2000 During the past twenty five years North American forestry has received increasingly vigorous scrutiny Critics including the environmentalists environmental scientists representatives of public interest groups and many individual citizens have expressed concerns about forestry's basic assumptions and methods as well as its practical outcomes Criticism has centered on such issues as the exploitation of forests for timber production the reduction and fragmentation of old growth habitats the destruction of biodiversity the degradation of grasslands through grazing practices lack of government attention to recreation facilities silvicultural methods like clearcutting and the use of herbicides and pesticides the exportation of industrial forestry techniques to other parts of the world and the use of public monies to provide services for private resource companies as in the creation of logging roads This rising tide of public scrutiny has led many foresters to suspect that their contract with society to manage forests using their best professional judgment had been undermined Some of these professionals as well as some of their critics have begun to reexamine their old beliefs and to look for new ways of practicing forestry Part of this reflective process has entailed new directions in environmental ethics and environmental philosophy This reader brings together some of the new thinking in this area Here students of the applied environmental and natural resource sciences as well as the interested general reader will discover a rich sampling of writings in environmental ethics and philosophy as they apply to forestry Readings focus on basic ethical systems in forestry and forest management philosophical issues in forestry ethics codes of ethics in forestry and related natural resource sciences such as fisheries science and wildlife biology Aldo Leopold's land ethic in forestry ethical advocacy and whistleblowing in government resource agencies the ethics of new forestry ecoforestry and public debate in forestry as well as ethical issues in global forestry such as the responsibilities of forest corporations environmentalists and individual wood consumers This volume contains materials from the founders of forestry ethics such as Bernhard Fernow Gifford Pinchot John Muir and Aldo Leopold from such organizations as the Society of American Foresters the Wildlife Society the American Fisheries Society Forest Service Employees for Environmental Ethics and the Ecoforesters group in addition to writings by a variety of well known environmental philosophers and foresters including Holmes Rolston Robin Attfield Lawrence Johnson Michael McDonald Paul Wood James E Coufal Raymond Craig Kristin Shrader Frechette Jeff DeBonis Jim L Bowyer Alasdair Gunn Goug Gaigle Alan G McQuillan Stephanie Kaza Alan Dregson Duncan Taylor and Kathleen Dean Moore Author note Peter C List is Professor of Philosophy at Oregon State University where he teaches courses on environmental ethics ethical issues in the natural resource sciences and sustainable forestry He is the author of articles on Aldo Leopold's land ethic and co author of several articles on public attitudes about federal forests and forest management published in the Journal of Forestry and Society and Natural Resources
