Euthanasia Opposing Viewpoints:

Euthanasia James D. Torr, 2000 In 1997 the Supreme Court ruled that states may legalize physician assisted suicide and this form of euthanasia is now legal in Oregon The authors in this anthology which replaces Greenhaven's 1995 edition examine mercy killing and assisted suicide Euthanasia, 1989 Opposing Viewpoints Sources Bruno Leone, David L. Bender, 1984 The Right to Die Alan Meisel, Kathy L. Cerminara, Thaddeus M. Pope, 2004-01-01 The Right to Die Third Edition analyzes the statutory and case law The Right to Die Anne Wallace Sharp, Robert Taylor, 2009-04-03 Doctor assisted suicide is legal in Oregon Washington Colorado California Washington D C and Vermont As of January 2016 991 patients have died by taking legally backed drugs under supervision in Oregon according to CNN This timely edition examines issues surrounding the right to die The book takes a critical look at topics such as euthanasia assisted suicide the refusal of medical treatment and life sustaining treatment Contemporary Moral Issues Lawrence M. Hinman, 2016-07-01 Contemporary Moral Issues is an anthology that provides a selection of readings on contemporary social issues revolving around three general themes Matters of Life and Death Matters of Equality and Diversity and Expanding the Circle which includes duties beyond borders living together with animals and environmental ethics The text contains a number of distinctive high profile readings and powerful narratives including Jonathan Foer's Eating Animals Eva Feder Kittay's On the Ethics of Selective Abortion for Disability and Susan M Wolf's Confronting Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia My Father's Death Each set of readings is accompanied by an extensive introduction a bibliographical essay pre reading questions and discussion questions Supporting Crisis Survivors Everton I. Anderson, 2013-07-22 CHAPTER ONE CRISIS AND TRAUMAS V PRESENT EVERYWHERE What are the Distinguishing Traits of a Crisis Research has shown that the Chinese word for crisis involves two characters one means danger and the other means opportunity One psychologist summarized the peculiarities in this manner A crisis is a turning point that usually cannot be avoided They are filled with danger because they disrupt life and threaten to overwhelm the people who are affected Furthermore a crisis also presents people with the opportunity to change grow and develop better ways of coping Since people in crisis often feel confused and helpless they tend to be more open to receive outside help including the help that comes from rescue workers from counselors and from God CHAPTER TWO THE MULTIFARIOUS ELEMENTS OF LOSS Increasing Number of Loss Individuals seem to cope with losses better when they are occasional Yet after the age of 50 or 60 they pass into a period of increasing number of losses Still grieving from the previous loss it is ever so hard to make sense of the current one Furthermore if one had never learnt to deal effectively or contend with occasional losses then it is inevitable having several will be catastrophic Equally important is that each type of loss brings its own kind of suffering and reaction CHAPTER THREE PURPOSE OF CRISIS COUNSELING When a visit is made if the crisis counselor does not have an objective the appointment will be unsuccessful Therefore the underlining purpose of crisis counseling is to support the hurting and not to encourage the avoidance of reality This means the counselor advises individuals in crisis to admit the crisis express grief normally and arrive at a healthy resolution

CHAPTER FOUR THE CRISIS OF DEATH AND DYING Although human suffering in multiple dimensions is a factor of life which causes great pain and human anguish it must not be used as a reason for justifying the direct taking of human life K God must always be understood as the Creator and Sustainer of life It was Norman St John Stevas who articulated this view skillfully The value of human life for the Christian in the first century A D as today rested not on its development of superior sentience but on the unique character of the union of a body and soul both destined for eternal life The right to life thus has a philosophical foundation K Respect for the lives of others because of their eternal destiny is the essence of the Christian teaching

CHAPTER FIVE COMFORTING THE SUICIDAL AND VICTIMS FAMILY The following are invaluable principles that are crucial to the helpline counseling methods

The Suicidal X Activity The person needs to feel that something is being done for him or her right now This solemn promise or guarantee can alleviate his or her anxiety X Involvement of others If the caller realizes that others are now involved and caring for him or her the person will be more apt to feel the care and concern and will more likely respond

The Family Counselors friends and family members alike feel guilt extreme displeasure and self blame because the death was not averted However ultimately responsibility for suicide rests with the victim who was unable or unwilling to cope with the pressures of life

Ways to support Promise to visit the mortuary and advise family members to do the same If possible accompany the grief stricken relatives knowing that the initial shock and denial could be overwhelming X Resist the phrase It was an accident a terrible accident Some may think this is helpful but its more of an expression of ones own anxiety X Do not pass judgment But he or she was up all night drinking They did not understand what they were doing It is not helpful or necessary to give reasons for the suicide X The date on which the suicide took place

Euthanasia Neal Bernard, 1989 Through a collection of writings various aspects of the subject of euthanasia are explored including the pro life movement and the legality of living wills

The Center for Bioethics and Human Dignity Presents Dignity and Dying John Frederic Kilner, Arlene B. Miller, Edmund D. Pellegrino, 1996 This book offers a more well founded perspective for considering some of the significant ethical issues in the field of medicine and health care

Older Adults' Views on Death Victor G. Cicirelli, PhD, 2006-05-26 This empirically based study of older adults ranging in age from 70 90 years examines the influence of family relations religious beliefs age related health changes culture and more on personal meanings of death fears of death and views of the dying process Gerontologists will gain a more realistic understanding of all of the factors influencing an older individual s view of death and the dying process These views impact the development of both effective interventions to provide appropriate emotional support and coping strategies to help persons deal with fears of approaching death

Abortion-- Murder Or Mercy? François B. Gérard, 2001 This book is meant to provide an overview of and gather the literature on abortion one of the most divisive issues of our times Honest women and men the world over must deal with this issue in their hearts and minds whether or not they ever face the issue

personally It is hard to conceive of a single thinking person who doesn't have an opinion on abortion usually strongly held The arguments are cogent on both sides of the issue We hope that this collection will bring to the attention of readers the publications which shed light on the fundamental issues involved Last Rights Barbara Logue, 1993-01-01 Several recent trends demographic social and economic are increasing the incidence and public support of deliberate death among the old and sick The number of elderly people is at an all time high Medical technology can prolong the lives of these men and women but it cannot keep them independent free of pain or competent to manage their own affairs Never before have so many been so sick for so long Changes in the size and structure of the American family make long term home care almost impossible while exorbitant health costs and scarce resources limit the provision of high quality care by paid workers Researcher Barbara J Logue refers to any deliberate behavior that causes death as death control She points out that death control like birth control involves very serious and deeply personal decisions choices that ought to be made on the basis of reliable information with care and compassion without coercion She goes on to assert that like birth control death control should be performed legally and with the help of the medical community Without access to assisted deaths many frail old people are left to endure wretched deaths Some die slowly of neglect or malnutrition in nursing homes Others take their own lives sometimes by violent means while they can still act independently because they are afraid that no one will help them if they wait until they are very sick Some die alone fearful of implicating friends or relatives in their back alley euthanasia While some die too soon because they are poor uneducated or hard to manage others are overtreated and their deaths delayed because doctors and hospitals want to increase their income or fear prosecution if they help a patient die Barbara Logue describes these and many other hazards inherent in our present long term care system noting that all too often the system causes suffering instead of alleviating it After assessing the alternatives she urges that we must make compassionate death control as available as birth control We must regulate and monitor it like any other medical procedure taking steps to minimize the risks while maximizing the benefits Terminal Illness Andrea C. Nakaya, 2005 Presents various opinions on the best way to care for the terminally ill and their friends and family including a debate on the role of euthanasia

INNOVATION AND CHANGE IN THE HUMAN SERVICES Nicholas D. Richie, Diane E. Alperin, 2002-01-01 This second edition of Innovation and Change in the Human Services considerably updates and expands the previous volume An overview of the development of human services over the course of the twentieth century culminates in an evolutionary model which illustrates how human services generally progress from an initial individual problem stage to one of considerable governmental involvement and media attention Eight specific human services are discussed in detail hospices for those with life limiting illness continuing care retirement communities services for those with HIV AIDS domestic assault services day care for children services for the homeless lifelong occupational counseling and services for Alzheimer's patients A full chapter is devoted to some of the major events of the last decade of the twentieth century the Clinton Health Care Plan the Welfare Reforms of 1996 and the Oregon Death with Dignity Act The chapter on human services education compares degree programs in human services and social work and suggests a functional approach which would allow the human services worker to move easily from one setting to another due to having mastered a common core curriculum with universal applicability The last chapter deals with human services issues of considerable importance at the start of the twenty first century including the corporatization of human services the privatization of human services Social Security reform and healthcare reform This material is expected to be of use not only to educators and students in the human services but also to policy analysts and health services administrators practitioners who face everyday the challenge of refining adapting the programs they administer study and support
