Development Centre, 1979 Evaluating Development Assistance Olav Stokke, 1991 Reviews trends in institutionalized aid evaluation during the 1980s and 1990s Inquires to what extent evaluation has adapted to new forms of aid Social Impact Assessment And Monitoring Michael J Carley, Eduardo Bustelo, 2019-05-28 This systematic critical review of more than 600 recent publications in social impact assessment SIA and related fields is based on the authors belief that SIA is more than an analytical technique it is also a logical and timely response to our ever growing need for more and better information to facilitate decision making in an increasingly c Encyclopedia of Evaluation Sandra Mathison, 2005 All humans are nascent evaluators Evaluation has been with us throughout history and in its modern form has moved from the margins to the centers of organizations agencies educational institutions and corporate boardrooms No longer a specialized part time activity evaluation has become institutionalized a common practice and indeed an important commodity in political and social life The Encyclopedia of Evaluation is an authoritative first of its kind who what where why and how of the field of evaluation Covering professional practice as well as academia this volume chronicles the development of the field its history key figures theories approaches and goals From the leading publisher in the field of evaluation this work is a must have for all social science libraries departments that offer courses in evaluation and students and professional evaluators around the world The entries in this Encyclopedia capture the essence of evaluation as a practice methods techniques roles people as a profession professional obligations shared knowledge ethical imperatives events places and as a discipline theories and models of evaluation ontological and epistemological issues International Scope Despite the fact that evaluation practice is not institutionalized in the same way around the world the encyclopedia recognizes the international growth of the profession due in large part to organizations such as UNICEF the World Bank and USAID Entries cover the following Afghanistan Belgium Cambodia Ethiopia Germany Greece Guyana Israel Netherlands Niger Scotland South Africa Spain and Uganda In addition the international group of authors includes contributions from more than a dozen nations There are a number of stories about evaluation practice around the world that are set off as sidebars in the text. These stories provide a glimpse into the nature of evaluation practice in a diverse set of circumstances, delineate the common and uncommon issues for evaluators around the world, and point to the complexities of importing evaluation from one culture to another.

Interdisciplinary Methodological Coverage Much of the practice of evaluation has grown out of the social science research tradition. While psychological methods and psychometrics continue to be useful, evaluation research today draws from a wide range of disciplines including anthropology, education, political science, literary criticism, systems theory, and others. This Encyclopedia covers all of the relevant methodologies, including both qualitative and quantitative approaches.

Evaluators and Theories The Encyclopedia of Evaluation includes significant coverage of the major figures in the field throughout its history. Many of these figures are well known for a particular theory or approach, and whenever applicable, the entries make this connection for the reader, as well as provide references for further reading. Good examples include Michael Quinn Patton and Utilization Focused Evaluation; David Fetterman and Empowerment Evaluation; Daniel Stufflebeam's CIPP Model of Evaluation; and Huey Chen and Theory driven Evaluations.

Key Themes, Concepts, Evaluation Concepts, Methodological Concepts, Philosophical Concepts, Social Science Ethics, and Standards Evaluation Approaches and Models, Evaluation around the World, Stories, Evaluation Planning, Evaluation Theory, Laws and Legislation, Organizations, People, Publications, Qualitative Methods, Quantitative Methods, Representation, Reporting, Communicating, Systems, Technology, Utilization, Key Features. More than 100 contributors from around the world. Single affordable volume with nearly 600 entries arranged alphabetically. Entries written by an international team of experts, including narratives that depict evaluation practice around the world. Reader's Guide arranges entries into 18 thematic categories to facilitate browsing among core topics.

Bos,M. Sanders,C. Secchi,2013-06-29 This study is the result of research undertaken by the Netherlands Economic Institute Division Balanced International Growth Rotterdam under the auspices of the O E C D Development Centre In the division of labour agreed with professor Grant L Reuber who directed a parallel study under the auspices of the Centre the N E I research deals with the evaluation of economic effects of private foreign investment in developing countries The effects studied are confined to macro economic effects which are quantifi able The lack of a satisfactory methodology for the assessment of these effects seemed to justify this limitation in the approach to the evaluation of private foreign investment The study is organized as follows Part I reviews briefly and critically the literature about the evaluation of private foreign investment and suggests the need for an appropriate macro economic methodology Part II develops the principles and techniques for such a methodology which is applied empirical ly to data for five developing countries in Part III While Parts II and III are concerned with the effects of aggregated volumes of private foreign invest of the previous parts the appraisal of ment Part IV considers independently projects financed through foreign investment and discusses the special fea tures of social benefit cost analysis of such projects Gender and Social Protection in the Developing World Rebecca Holmes,Nicola Jones,2013-03-14 Millions of pounds of international development funds are invested annually in social protection programmes to tackle poverty Poverty is perpetuated by risk and vulnerability much of which is gendered Despite this little attention has been paid to gender sensitive policy and programme design and implementation Gender and Social Protection in the Developing World introduces a much needed gender lens to these debates Drawing on empirical evidence from poor households and communities in Africa Asia and Latin America the book provides rich insight into the effects of a range of social protection instruments It concludes that with relatively simple changes to design and with investment in implementation capacity social protection can contribute to transforming gender relations at the individual intrahousehold and community levels With a foreword by Stephen Devereux Evaluating Climate Change and Development Rob D. van den Berg, Osvaldo N. Feinstein, 2011-12-31 Climate change has become one of the most important global issues of our time with far reaching natural socio economic and political effects To address climate change and development issues from the perspective of evaluation an international conference was held in Alexandria Egypt This book distills the essence of that timely conference building on the experiences of more than 400 reports and studies presented Developing countries may be particularly vulnerable to the expected onslaught of higher temperatures rising sea levels changing waterfall patterns and increasing natural disasters All societies will have to reduce their vulnerability to these changes and this book describes how vulnerabilities may be addressed in a systematic manner so that governments and local communities may better understand what is happening Different approaches are also discussed including the use of human security as a criterion for evaluation as well as ways to deal with risk and uncertainty Evaluating Climate Change and Development presents a rich variety of methods to assess adaptation through monitoring and evaluation The volume deals with climate change development and evaluation challenges and lessons learned from evaluations mitigation of climate change adaptation to climate change vulnerability risks and climate change and presents a concluding chapter on the road ahead Collectively the authors offer a set of approaches and techniques for the monitoring and evaluation of climate change Public Expenditures, Growth, and Poverty Fan, Shenggen, 2008-05-11 Public Expenditures Growth and Poverty assesses the efficacy of poverty reduction programs in Latin America Africa and Asia by synthesizing studies conducted by the International Food Policy Research Institute over the past ten years Overall the studies find that investments in agricultural research infrastructure and human capital are beneficial in the long term while food aid and poverty reduction programs have little utility beyond immediately abating hunger and generating short run income effects The book develops a conceptual framework for analyzing public expenditures and their short and long run impact on poverty through various channels It surveys spending trends and analyzes the effect of growing public investment on urban and rural poverty through case studies of India China Thailand and Uganda And it highlights the advantages of directing spending toward public works programs that engage impoverished peoples rather than using the limited aid money on food subsidies and other passive donations Featuring discussions about the roles of various social safety net programs and a chapter devoted solely to the vexing poverty in sub Saharan Africa Public Expenditures Growth and Poverty will aid policy makers and encourage further more analytic study of worldwide poverty reduction programs Australian National Bibliography ,1978 Land Evaluation Guidelines for Rainfed
