Developing Programs in Adult Education Edgar J. Boone, R. Dale Saifrit, Jo Jones, 2002-05-10 The Second Edition of Developing Programs in Adult Education will serve as an indispensable guide for current and prospective adult educators in planning designing implementing and evaluating accounting for adult education programs Like the successful First Edition this revised and expanded volume presents a conceptual programming model that draws from many concepts constructs and theories generated by adult educators and other scholars in closely allied disciplines The updated model field tested and validated enhances and elaborates on the complex contextual relationships and processual actions represented in the original The authors offer illustrative applications within varied organizational contexts and provide a panorama of both macro and micro perspectives and actions of a program planning process with examples from various fields of adult education practice This innovative text is the definitive authority on one of the few theoretical models of the programming process based in systems theory merged with the practice ecology of adult education Ethics and Leadership in Business and Politics Faan Malan, Ben Smit (professor.), 2001 This work provides a mindset for leadership to deal with the problem of unethical transgressions in South African communities and business It provides a thorough and comprehensive diagnosis of leadership and morality from an analysis of causes to the compilation of remedies A Funder's Guide to Evaluation Peter York, 2005 Traditionally funders expect evaluation to show that resources are being used wisely But evaluation can be a much more powerful tool for both funders and nonprofits Forward looking grantmakers and grantees are leveraging their evaluations ensuring that the time and money spent ultimately improves effectiveness for everyone This book shows how they are doing it including How the evaluative learning approach furthers ongoing improvement via collaborative stakeholder influenced evaluations How to bridge the differences in what funders and nonprofits need from evaluation How evaluation builds four critical capacities leadership adaptive capacity management and technical capacity Seven steps a funder can take to build the evaluative learning capacity in nonprofits Thirteen specific evaluative learning strategies that funders can support Worksheets and assessment tools will help funders 1 assess their readiness to implement evaluative learning 2 develop a logic model 3 uncover grantees current evaluation efforts and preparedness for evaluative learning and 4 use resources wisely when selecting an evaluative learning support strategy When the funding community supports evaluative learning nonprofits and funders together can figure out how to strengthen programs better allocate resources and share successful models Library Performance and Service Competition Larry Nash White, 2014-01-23 A practice driven and proven resource for library administrators of all types of libraries The work describes how the library can identify the service environment factors impacting customers strategic needs identify library competitors strategic abilities and service environment impacts and use the combined results to develop proactive competitive responses that drive the service environment instead of reacting to the service environment These strategic competitive responses would allow the library to increase the value of its service impact and effectiveness while increasing customer appreciation and the libraries advantage in the competitive service environment Written by a highly knowledgeable practitioner from the library field Experience of the author library and for profit management experience provides a hybrid blended view of library competition and management responses from both the library and for profit management worlds Written to be applicable to all types of libraries PROMOTION DE LA SANTE ET AUTONOMISATION DANS LE CONTEXTE AFRICAIN David Houžto, Glenn Laverack, 2014-02-26 Le terme promotion de la santé en Afrique pr s de 30 ans apr s l adoption de la Charte d Ottawa continue d avoir des connotations compl tement hors du sens que lui conf re cette charte Cela n est pas tonnante quand on sait que la notion de santé dans ce contexte africainquivaut la lutte contre la maladie travers les soins de santé dispens s par des professionnels de la santé dans des formations sanitaires et les hôpitaux. L'évolution que connaît le continent depuis quelques décennies est de donner un peu plus de place à la communauté à travers les relais communautaires dans une participation communautaire vivante de son contenu car le pouvoir n'est jamais passé entre les mains des communautés. C'est au vu de tout ceci que le présent ouvrage se propose de tenter pour expliquer les fondements de l'autonomisation communautaire et de la promotion de la santé avec leur importance pour la région africaine en proie aux mauvais indicateurs de santé comparativement aux autres régions du monde.

Health Promotion Practice Glenn Laverack, 2004-03-06 Health Promotion Practice explores the issue of how such an approach to health promotion practice can improve a community's success towards achieving healthier conditions through its own actions. Placing empowerment at the heart of health promotion practice and offering advice for health promoters who accept the challenge to work in such a way Health Promotion Practice defines key concepts of health, health promotion and community empowerment.

Managing Program Evaluation: Towards Explicating a Professional Practice Donald W. Compton, Michael L. Baizerman, 2009-04-13 This book explores issues in understanding managing evaluation, an often invisible process guiding evaluation studies, evaluators, other workers and evaluation units. The chapters define and illustrate through four case studies. Central questions in the domain of managing are: Should the evaluation field recognize managing as a core professional expertise? Should it promote this by legitimizing preparation of experts and expertise? What should curriculum, pedagogy and learning sites be? The authors suggest beginning foci, curricula and pedagogy in managing evaluation and wish to stimulate reflection and conversation within our profession on how to manage evaluation in various contexts and multiple layers.
