John Grierson A Guide To References And Resources:

John Grierson Jack C. Ellis, 1986 Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film 3-Volume Set Ian Aitken, 2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumi re brothers Workers Leaving the Lumi re Factory 1885 to Michael Moore s Fahrenheit 911 2004 This Encyclopedia provides a resource that critically analyzes that history in all its aspects Not only does this Encyclopedia examine individual films and the careers of individual film makers it also provides overview articles of national and regional documentary film history It explains concepts and themes in the study of documentary film the techniques used in making films and the institutions that support their production appreciation and preservation Theorizing Documentary Michael Renov, 2012-10-02 A key collection of essays that looks at the specific issues related to the documentary form Questions addressed include What is documentary and How fictional is nonfiction A Philosophical History of Documentary, 1895-1959 Dan Geva, 2021-09-15 This book presents a chronology of thirty definitions attributed to the word term phrase and concept of documentary between the years 1895 and 1959 The book dedicates one chapter to each of the thirty definitions scrutinizing their idiosyncratic language games from close range while focusing on their historical roots and concealed philosophical sources of inspiration Dan Geva s principal argument is twofold first that each definition is an original ethical premise of documentary and second that only the structured assemblage of the entire set of definitions successfully depicts the true ethical nature of documentary insofar as we agree to consider its philosophical history as a reflective object of thought in a perpetual state of being self defined an ethics sui generis The Official Picture Carol Payne, 2013-06-01 Mandated to foster a sense of national cohesion The National Film Board of Canada s Still Photography Division was the country s official photographer during the mid twentieth century Like the Farm Security Administration and other agencies in the US the NFB used photographs to serve the nation Division photographers shot everything from official state functions to images of the routine events of daily life producing some of the most dynamic photographs of the time seen by millions of Canadians and international audiences in newspapers magazines exhibitions and filmstrips In The Official Picture Carol Payne argues that the Still Photography Division played a significant role in Canadian nation building during WWII and the two decades that followed Payne examines key images themes and periods in the Division s history including the depiction of women munitions workers landscape photography in the 1950s and 60s and portraits of Canadians during the Centennial in 1967 to demonstrate how abstract concepts of nationhood and citizenship as well as attitudes toward gender class linguistic identity and conceptions of race were reproduced in photographs The Official Picture looks closely at the work of many Division photographers from staff members Chris Lund and Gar Lunney during the 1940s and 1950s to the expressive documentary photography of Michel Lambeth Michael Semak and Pierre Gaudard in the 1960s and after The Division also produced a substantial body of Northern imagery documenting Inuit and Native peoples Payne details how Inuit groups have turned to the archive in recent years in an effort to reaffirm their own cultural identity For decades the Still Photography Division served as the country's image bank producing a government endorsed official picture of Canada A rich archival study The Official Picture brings the history of the Division long overshadowed by the Board's cinematic divisions to light

Historical Dictionary of British Cinema Alan Burton, Steve Chibnall, 2013-07-11 British cinema has been around from the very birth of motion pictures from black and white to color from talkies to sound and now 3D it has been making a major contribution to world cinema Many of its actors and directors have stayed at home but others ventured abroad like Charlie Chaplin and Alfred Hitchcock Today it is still going strong the only real competition to Hollywood turning out films which appeal not only to Brits just think of Bridget Jones while busily adding to franchises like James Bond and Harry Potter So this Historical Dictionary of British Cinema has a lot of ground to cover This it does with over 300 dictionary entries informing us about significant actors producers and directors outstanding films and serials organizations and studios different films genres from comedy to horror and memorable films among other things Two appendixes provide lists of award winners Meanwhile the chronology covers over a century of history These parts provide the details countless details while the introduction offers the big story And the extensive bibliography points toward other sources of information

Film and Reform Ian Aitken, 2013-12-13 Best known for his documentaries such as Drifters North Sea and Housing Problems John Grierson was the most important figure in the British documentary film movement and one of the most influential of British film theorists This major assessment of Grierson and the documentary film movement examines the intellectual and aesthetic influences on his work focusing on the material he produced in the inter war years and comparing the idealistic strain of Grierson's social commentary with other social reformists such as the Next Five Years Group and writers like Orwell and Priestley Underlining the link between film and reform the book clarifies the meaning and significance of Grierson's ideas and the historical role of the documentary film movement Originally published in 1990

A Philosophical History of Documentary, 1960-1990 Dan Geva, 2025-08-03 A Philosophical History of Documentary 1960 1990 is the second book in a three volume set It offers a systematic hermeneutical reading of thirty definitions of Documentary from 1960 to 1990 by then a familiar already used and abused dialectical object of thought and practice The book progresses chronologically through three decades of ongoing efforts by documentarians theorists historians and philosophers to define Documentary examining the philosophical foundations ethical implications and evolving documentarological sensibilities of these definitions It also reassesses the intense ontological debates about Documentary highlighting the discourse's expanding definitional landscape Building on the first volume which examined thirty definitions from 1895 to 1959 this work weaves an intricate hermeneutical network of interconnections among all sixty definitions It further anticipates the third volume which will analyze forty additional definitions of Documentary from 1991 to the present offering a comprehensive philosophical history of the evolution of Documentary as both concept and practice

detailed description available for The Documentary Film Movement Filming Politics Malek Khouri, 2007 The National Film Board of Canada NFB was created in 1939 to produce distribute and promote Canadian cinema both domestically and abroad In Filming Politics author Malek Khouri explores the work of the NFB during this period and argues that the political discourse of the films produced by this institution offered a counter hegemonic portrayal of working class people and presented them as agents of social change Filming Politics brings to light a number of films from the early years of the NFB most of which have long been forgotten A New History of Documentary Film Betsy A. McLane, 2022-12-29 A New History of Documentary Film includes new research that offers a fresh way to understand how the field began and grew Retaining the original edition's core structure there is added emphasis of the interplay among various approaches to documentaries and the people who made them This edition also clearly explains the ways that interactions among the shifting forces of economics technology and artistry shape the form New to this edition An additional chapter that brings the story of English language documentary to the present day Increased coverage of women and people of color in documentary production Streaming Animated documentaries List of documentary filmmakers organized chronologically by the years of their activity in the field The Measure of Democracy Daniel J. Robinson, 1999-04-24 Politicians government officials and public relations officers lean heavily on polling when fashioning public policy Proponents say this is for the best arguing that surveys bring the views of citizens closer to civic officials Critics decry polling's promotion of sycophantic politicians who pander to the whims of public sentiment or conversely the use of surveys by special interest groups to thwart the majority will Similar claims and criticisms were made during the early days of polling When George Gallup began polling Americans in 1935 he heralded it as a bold step in popular democracy The views of ordinary citizens could now be heard alongside those of organized interest groups When brought to Canada in 1941 the Gallup Poll promised similar democratic rejuvenation In actual practice traditionally disadvantaged constituencies such as women the poor French Canadians and African Americans were often heavily underrepresented in Gallup surveys Preoccupied with election forecasting Gallup pollsters undercounted social groups thought less likely or unable to vote leading to a considerable gap between the polling results of the sampled polity and the opinions of the general public Examining the origins and early years of public opinion polling in Canada Robinson situates polling within the larger context of its forerunners market research surveys and American opinion polling and charts its growth until its first uses by political parties Nonfiction Film Richard Barsam, 1992-11-22 Richard Barsam has given us as comprehensive a study of the origins and development of the nonfiction mode in motion pictures as we are ever likely to have in one volume He draws on all the major written sources and many which are little known and he shares with us many eloquent descriptions of the films themselves giving us a valuable textbook Richard Dyer MacCann superb work Historical Journal of Film Radio and Television Directors in British and Irish Cinema Robert Murphy, 2019-07-25 A guide to directors who have worked in the British and Irish film industries between 1895 and 2005 Each of its 980 entries on individuals directors gives a resume of the director s career evaluates their achievements and provides a complete filmography It is useful for those interested in film making in Britain and Ireland Projecting Canada Zoë Druick,2007-02-22 The National Film Board of Canada now in its seventh decade is internationally acclaimed as a beacon of non commercial filmmaking In Projecting Canada Zoë Druick shows that the NFB born out of a nation building project continues to be inextricably involved in the crises of nation technology and social scientific knowledge that shape the Canadian cultural landscape Canadian Film and Video Loren R. Lerner,1997-01-01 This extensive bibliography and reference guide is an invaluable resource for researchers practitioners students and anyone with an interest in Canadian film and video With over 24 500 entries of which 10 500 are annotated it opens up the literature devoted to Canadian film and video at last making it readily accessible to scholars and researchers Drawing on both English and French sources it identifies books catalogues government reports theses and periodical and newspaper articles from Canadian and non Canadian publications from the first decade of the twentieth century to 1989 The work is bilingual descriptive annotations are presented in the language s of the original publication Canadian Film and Video Film et vidéo canadiens provides an in depth guide to the work of over 4000 individuals working in film and video and 5000 films and videos The entries in Volume I cover topics such as film types the role of government laws and legislation censorship festivals and awards production and distribution companies education cinema buildings women and film and video art A major section covers filmmakers video artists cinematographers actors producers and various other film people Volume II presents an author index a film and video title index and a name and subject index In the tradition of the highly acclaimed publication Art and Architecture in Canada these volumes fill a long standing need for a comprehensive reference tool for Canadian film and video This bibliography guides and supports the work of film historians and practitioners media librarians and visual curators students and researchers and members of the general public with an interest in film and video This is England Neil Rattigan,2001 Third that the condition of total war in which Britain found itself a short time after the commencement of hostilities would mean that films and indeed all mass popular culture would respond to the urgency of the situation by taking a special interest in representations of British society And fourth following on from this that British films of the Second World War would one way or another be agents of propaganda From these propositions the book examines just what these films had to say about social class in the images of Britain they were promulgating with the corollaries of just how were they saying it and why were they saying it Alongside this is a concern with what propaganda purposes were being met by these films Jacket Canadian Communication Thought Robert E. Babe,2000-01-01 Babe examines the writings of ten major thinkers in the context of their physical and cultural environments and finds that there is indeed a mode of theorizing that is quintessentially Canadian A New History of British Documentary J. Chapman,2015-03-11 A New History of British Documentary is the first comprehensive overview of documentary production in Britain from early film to the present day It covers both the film and television industries and demonstrates how documentary practice has adapted to changing institutional and ideological contexts International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers Tom Pendergast, Sara Pendergast, 2000 Contains over two thousand entries arranged alphabetically within four volumes that provide information about significant films actors and actresses directors and writers and production artists in North American British and West European cinematic history Includes photographs and indexes
