Interactions Between Agroecosystems and Rural Communities Cornelia Flora, 2001-02-05 There is an increasing realization among biophysical scientists that human behavior drastically impacts the degree to which sound agroecosystems are implemented Written by an international team of experts assembled by a leading rural sociologist Interactions Between Agroecosystems and Rural Communities shows how human behavior impacts agroecosyst Interactions Between Agroecosystems and Rural Communities Cornelia Flora, 2001-02-05 There is an increasing realization among biophysical scientists that human behavior drastically impacts the degree to which sound agroecosystems are implemented Written by an international team of experts assembled by a leading rural sociologist Interactions Between Agroecosystems and Rural Communities shows how human behavior impacts agroecosyst Agroecology Stephen R. Gliessman, 2007 Providing the theoretical and conceptual framework for this continually evolving field Agroecology The Ecology of Sustainable Food Systems Second Edition explores environmental factors and complexities affecting agricultural crops and animals Completely revised updated and reworked the second edition contains new data new readings new issues and case studies and new options It includes two completely new chapters one on the role of livestock animals in agroecosystems and one on the cultural and community aspects of sustainable food systems The author clearly delineates the importance of using an ecosystem framework for determining if a particular agricultural practice input or management decision contributes or detracts from sustainability He explains how the framework provides the ecological basis for the functioning of the chosen management strategy over the long term He also examines system level interactions stressing the need for understanding the emergent qualities of populations communities and ecosystems and their roles in sustainable agriculture Using examples of farming systems in a broad array of ecological conditions the book demonstrates how to use an ecosystem approach to design and manage agroecosystems for sustainability Agroecology V. Ernesto Mendez, Christopher M. Bacon, Roseann Cohen, Stephen R. Gliessman, 2015-11-18 Agroecology A Transdisciplinary Participatory and Action oriented Approach is the first book to focus on agroecology as a transdisciplinary participatory and action oriented process Using a combined theoretical and practical approach this collection of work from pioneers in the subject along with the latest generation of acknowledged leaders Local Food and Community Development Gary Paul Green, Rhonda G. Phillips, 2014-10-20 Food has become an essential component in community development practice Whether in reference to building a local or regional food system or addressing food insecurity food has become a focus in community development approaches in many localities Farmers markets community gardens farm to school programs and other food centered initiatives have been used to foster community development processes across a spectrum of desired outcomes The surging interest in food for fostering community development draws attention to numerous applications ranging from grassroots efforts to formal programs sponsored by the public or nonprofit sectors These efforts are often in conjunction with local private businesses helping create micro businesses and supporting the small farm movement Some regions are even considering economic development strategies of food clusters to promote speciality food businesses and supporting programs This volume explores the relationships between food and community and the various approaches for development through a selection of chapters illustrating a wide range of applications This book is a compilation of articles published in the journal Community

Development Integrating Agriculture, Conservation and Ecotourism: Examples from the Field W. Bruce Campbell, Silvia López Ortiz, 2011-06-07 Issues In Agroecology Present Status and Future Prospectus not only reviews aspects of ecology but the ecology of sustainable food production systems and related societal and cultural values To provide effective communication regarding status and advances in this field this series connects with many disciplines such as sociology anthropology environmental sciences ethics agriculture economics ecology rural development sustainability policy and education and integrations of these general themes so as to provide integrated points of view that will help lead to a more sustainable construction of values than conventional economics alone Such designs are inherently complex and dynamic and go beyond the individual farm to include landscapes communities and biogeographic regions by emphasizing their unique agricultural and ecological values and their biological societal and cultural components and processes

Making World Development Work Grégoire Leclerc, Charles A. S. Hall, 2007-06-16 The authors reexamine world development usually the province of economists as professionals trained in the natural sciences They show how we have and might use tested scientific and technical procedures and concepts as well as science itself to achieve much better results than what has been characteristic of the past Leclerc and Hall contend that to scholars with a scientific background the process of development and the economic logic behind it often look almost surrealistic The basic question at the foundation of this review is this Why should something so important as world development something capable of absorbing such vast sums of money and of human goodwill something that impacts the people and the environment so much continue to be organized and planned using economic techniques and theories that are both unconfirmed experimentally and proven to have led to development failures BOOK JACKET Using the Agricultural, Environmental, and Food Literature Barbara S.

Hutchinson, Antoinette Paris-Greider, 2002-07-17 This reference provides the groundwork tools and terminology required when conducting specialized searches for information and resources pertaining to traditional and emerging fields of agriculture The editors present 16 contributions from librarians and other information workers that offer information on research resources across the academic a
