The Sportsman , The New sporting magazine ,1855-07 Sermons George Whitefield,1832 The Sportsman's Friend in a Frost Harry Hieover,1857 Mythology in the Modern Novel John J. White,2015-03-08 J J White reexamines the use of myth in fiction in order to bring a new terminological precision into the field While concentrating on the German novel Mann Broch and Nossack he discusses the work of Alberto Moravia John Bowen Michel Butor and Macdonald Harris as well in order to show the modern predilection for myth in whatever national literature Throughout his discussion Mr White delineates carefully his specific subject the novel in which mythological motifs are used to prefigure events and character Joyce s Ulysses is of course the archetypal novel in this tradition Setting forth his terms and making clear his use of them Mr White then analyzes the wide appeal of the mythological novel for both twentieth century novelists and critics he distinguishes four ways in which modern novelists use myth and surveys the range of critical literature on the subject His concluding chapters are discussions of specific texts in which he differentiates between novels which have a unilinear parallel between myth and plot novels of juxtaposition in which chapters retelling myth parallel modern action and novels of fusion in which the action of the modern account synthesizes more than one mythic prefiguration of mythological motif Originally published in 1972 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Fallen Stars Julian Upton,2004 Fallen Stars probes the underside of fame to reveal a host of glittering careers stunted by ill health alcoholism drug addiction and egomania Twenty one tales of stardom turned sour these are the tragic final years of some of the world s best loved actors and comedians a latter day Hollywood Babylon that includes Benny Hill Diana Dors Peter Sellers Carry On legends and many others American History through Its Greatest Speeches Jolyon P. Girard,Darryl Mace,Courtney Michelle Smith,2016-12-05 What did America s greatest orators say regarding significant issues and concerns throughout United States history This three volume set examines hundreds of the most historically significant speeches from colonial times to the modern era allowing readers to consider exactly what the speakers said and to better understand the motivations behind each speech as well as the effect on the audiences that heard them This essential reference work presents the most important and historically significant speeches delivered since colonial times providing in essence a documentary history of the United States through these public utterances Readers can witness American history unfold firsthand through these stirring and at times controversial speeches from Patrick Henry s fiery words calling for an American revolution through the words of the 19th century abolitionists and Lincoln s immortal Gettysburg Address and up through the 20th century with

President Wilson's famous Fourteen Points FDR reminding Americans that the only thing they had to fear was fear itself and George W Bush responding to the attacks of September 11 For students teachers librarians and general readers this indispensable work provides essential reference resources on the speeches of great significance in American history Each speech is prefaced by a contextual headnote that provides essential background information and specific details about the speech This three volume set also includes a timeline a historical review of each era biographical sketches of each speaker and anecdotal sidebars containing additional information about the speech or speakers
