Leaving to Learn Elliot Washor, Charles Mojkowski, 2013 We have a bold strategy for revitalizing schools and for graduating and preparing young people for success in their future learning and work This leaving to learn strategy is driven by our image of that future Our goal is not merely to graduate every student but to prepare graduates who are uncommonly ready for success in their workplaces and their communities Elliot Washor and Charles Mojkowski It s an alarming fact in the U S one student drops out of school every 12 seconds Elliot Washor and Charles Mojkowski both of Big Picture Learning have a proven innovative solution for stemming the flow of drop outs and breaking the cycle of disengagement that leads up to it It s called leaving to learn Leaving to Learn helps us deeply understand the real reasons kids drop out and the essential conditions for productive learning that today s adolescents require The authors then make a compelling argument in order to retain students through to graduation schools must offer experiences where students do some of their learning outside of school With common sense rules of the road the authors offer nuts and bolts guidelines for implementing a high quality Leaving to Learn program including examples of the many forms of out of school learning internships travel community service independent projects and more seamlessly integrating students outside learning with in school curriculum assigning academic credit for out of school accomplishments Isn t it time to try more innovative ways to address the challenges of our nation s dropout rate We can keep kids in school and prepare them for life after graduation by delivering authentic learning experiences that matter to them The first step is taking down the barriers between school and the outside world The first step is letting them leave to learn

The Dropout Prevention Specialist Workbook Howard M. Blonsky, 2019-11-15

Despite policy efforts at the state and federal levels the school dropout rate for students in the United States is estimated at a staggering 500 000 to 1 000 000 children and youth per year And while school social workers and other professionals working with truancy and school dropout issues are well positioned to offer assistance as Dropout Prevention Specialists DPSs an overwhelming number of those who fill such roles go vastly undertrained and underprepared for the demands they face Authored by a nationally leading specialist in dropout prevention this workbook serves as a how to guide for those in the helping professions who serve in an intervention or dropout prevention capacity Specifically it guides readers through useful resources that address the varied and intersecting causes of student dropout while providing real life anecdotal experience from the author s five plus decades in the field As school districts across the country continue to adopt DPSs in their schools The Dropout Prevention Specialist Workbook aims to meet the demand of training and preparing them for the future while clearly defining needs of the work ahead

Toward Graduation for All Students Montana. Office of Public Instruction, 1993

School Dropouts Laurie Reid, 2015 Every 26 seconds in the United States a teenager drops out of school A well implemented early warning system can help educators and others identify students at risk of dropping out and assign and monitor interventions to keep them on track for graduation This book summarises what is known about early warning system implementation and describes how states districts and schools can draw on the research to inform their work locally It provides evidence based recommendations for use by educators addressing the challenge of reducing student dropouts      "Why We Drop Out" Deborah L. Feldman, Antony T. Smith, Barbara L. Waxman, 2017 Through engaging stories and the use of students voices this book corrects persistent misconceptions about youth who drop out of high school Based on research conducted with high school dropouts in both urban and rural communities the authors argue that contrary to popular belief most dropouts are not disengaged from school at an early age Many have positive memories of their education both social and academic that educators and policymakers can draw on to create successful prevention and intervention practices The narratives and insights presented here will help readers to better understand the interplay of school related and personal factors that lead students to drop out of school Why We Drop Out is essential reading for K 12 educators school principals counselors psychologists and everyone concerned with our nation s dropout crisis Every educator will recognize in these stories the daily opportunities that adults have to reach out and grab onto kids who are desperate for a hand and just need someone to pull them over that line From the Foreword by Camille A Farrington PhD author of Failing at School Lessons for Redesigning Urban High Schools This book greatly improves our understanding of the complex and long term process of dropping out of high school Russell W Rumberger UC Santa Barbara director California Dropout Research Project A must read for any teacher principal or superintendent interested in changing the lives of our students most at risk Greg Baker superintendent Bellingham Public Schools This is a book that everyone with a stake in education must read Dr Shivohn Garcia SUNY Empire State College      Dropping Out Russell W. Rumberger, 2011-10-15 Most kids in the developed world finish high school but not in the United States More than a million drop out every year and the numbers are rising Dropping Out provides answers to fundamental questions Who drops out and why What happens to them when they do How can we prevent at risk kids from short circuiting their futures      Graduation George F Kenney Ed D, George F. Kenney, 2009-08-01 Seven thousand students drop out of school every day Many parents are desperate to keep their teens from dropping out Unfortunately once students begin to fail and the downward spiral begins it is very difficult to reverse the situation Graduation A Parents Manual for Keeping Teens From Dropping Out of School is written with those parents in mind Dr George Kenney has 27 years of experience in working with teens who are failing to succeed His experience in addressing the multifaceted problem of underachieving students is invaluable to help guide parents through difficult times Written in clear language utilizing good parenting techniques and common sense this book takes the high emotion out of the family situation and provides valuable insight into parents abilities to improve their teen s chances of completing school      High School Dropout Raymond Shinault, 2015-01-26 Raymond Believes If teens are going to be a success in life they will have to work for it Success does not come from thin air It comes from getting started They have to begin or they will never have it Hard Work and Dedication is what they will have to commit to Getting an education is in your own best interest You can reap massive benefits for doing so But reap stiff consequences for not doing so Take getting your education very seriously One of the things that all successful students have in common is that they've conquered the temptation to give up and Quit They must stay in school and finish what they've started Real World 101 Autumn McAlpin, 2010-06 Congratulations graduate You did it You're finally out on your own But as you walk off the stage and into the Real World you're going to need more than a diploma to survive Suddenly for the first time you're facing questions like How do I get a job What do I do with all this laundry What's a major and how do I pick one How do I go grocery shopping And what's for dinner What's a budget anyway and do I need one How do I set up a bank account Where should I live Don't panic help is on the way Author Autumn McAlpin gives you the common sense advice and reassurance you'll need to tackle just about any challenge with style grace and enough humor to make the whole thing fun From cap and gown to total independence Real World 101 is the only graduate guide you'll ever need Autumn McAlpin is a humor and entertainment columnist for the Orange County Register A former high school teacher she knows how unprepared some high school graduates are for the real world and has taken matters into her own hands With her sharp wit and hilarious anecdotes she is a favorite speaker for youth audiences Dropout Prevention C. Lee Goss, Kristina J. Hokkanen, 2014-05-09 Meeting a crucial need this book presents effective prevention and intervention methods that can help all students stay and succeed in school The authors emphasize that dropout is a process not an event They provide tools for identifying dropout risk including academic behavior and attendance problems and strategies for problem solving and data based decision making at the elementary and secondary levels Illustrative case examples and reproducible checklists and tools enhance this user friendly resource The print book has a large size format to facilitate photocopying Purchasers also get access to a Web page where they can download and print the reproducible materials This book is in The Guilford Practical Intervention in the Schools Series edited by Sandra M Chafouleas
