Federal Power Commission,1965      A Neolithic and Bronze Age Landscape in Northamptonshire Jan Harding,Frances Healy,2013-01-15 The Raunds Area Project investigated more than 20 Neolithic and Bronze Age monuments in the Nene Valley From c 5000 BC to the early 1st millennium cal BC a succession of ritual mounds and burial mounds were built as settlement along the valley sides increased and woodland was cleared Starting as a regular stopping place for flint knapping and domestic tasks first the Long Mound and then Long Barrow the north part of the Turf Mound and the Avenue were built in the 5th millennium BC With the addition of the Long Enclosure the Causewayed Ring Ditch and the Southern Enclosure

there was a chain of five or six diverse monuments stretched along the river bank by c 3000 cal BC Later a timber platform the Riverside Structure was built and the focus of ceremonial activity shifted to the Cotton Henge two concentric ditches on the occupied valley side From c 2200 cal BC monument building accelerated and included the Segmented Ditch Circle and at least 20 round barrows almost all containing burials at first inhumations then cremations down to c 1000 cal BC by which time two overlapping systems of paddocks and droveways had been laid out Finally the terrace began to be settled when these had gone out of use in the early 1st millennium cal BC This second volume of the Raunds Area Project published as a CD comprises the detailed reports on the environmental archaeology artefact studies geophysics and chronology

Meltdown: Money, Debt and the Wealth of Nations, Volume 4 William Krehm,1999      Hybridizing Mission Peter T. Lee,2022-09-27 This qualitative study explores intercultural social dynamics among international Christian workers who are part of multicultural teams engaged in Christian ministries in a North African country It seeks to understand these workers lived realities at intersections of multiple cultural flows Ethnographic methods were used to collect and analyze data and forty nine international Christian workers were interviewed The findings of this study indicate that intercultural Christian workers go through complex intercultural social processes interwoven in the fabric of their everyday life These processes are mediated by their social experiences in the local North African context and their multicultural teams resulting in significant changes in their personal dispositions and social behaviors Based on these findings a working concept of diasporic habitus is developed and the practice of double discourses of culture is further examined This research suggests that some existing missiological concepts need to be revisited and recommends further interdisciplinary conversations involving cultural anthropology and sub fields in psychology about the changes that happen to people in intercultural missions It also calls for a reflexive approach to missiological research that incorporates awareness of one s situatedness and the lasting impact of historical entanglements on contemporary intercultural relations      What Is Christian Truth for You? Jim Moore,2007-05 Moore draws from personal life experiences to show how Jesus Christ draws all people into seeking Him Christian      Putting Your Past in Its Place Stephen Viars,2011-02-01 Lives grind to a halt when people don t know how to relate to their past Some believe the past is nothing and attempt to suppress the brokenness again and again Others miss out on renewal and change by making the past more important than their present and future Neither approach moves people toward healing or hope Pastor and biblical counselor Stephen Viars introduces a third way to view one s personal history by exploring the role of the past as God intended Using Scripture to lead readers forward Viars provides practical measures to understand the important place the past is given in Scripture replace guilt and despair with forgiveness and hope turn failures into stepping stones for growth This motivating compassionate resource is for anyone ready to review and release the past so that God can transform their behaviors relationships and their ability to hope in a future      Revolutionary Iran and the United States Joseph J. St. Marie,Shahdad Naghshpour,2016-04-08 A unique and major contribution to the scholarly and policy debate on American foreign and economic policy toward the Islamic Republic of Iran. A volume that will be of interest to scholars and policy makers who struggle to understand the complex rivalry between these two nations and wish to analyze the Iranian American relationship since 1979. Authors frame the conflicted relationship between Iran and the United States as a low intensity conflict embodying elements of superpower gamesmanship, insurgent tactics, and economic warfare. Revolutionary Iran and the United States is unique in its approach by exploring how diplomatic, military, and economic weapons are employed to bolster each nation's strategic and tactical advantage. This analysis encompasses the political, military, and economic facets of the rivalry.
