Page,2016-09-13 Asia is regarded as the fastest growing area for international and domestic tourism in the world today and over the next 20 years Given the economic social and environmental importance of tourism in the region there is a need for a comprehensive and readable overview of the critical debates and controversies in tourism in the region and the major factors that are affecting tourism development both now and in the foreseeable future This Handbook provides a contemporary survey of the region and its continued growth and development as a key destination and generator of tourism which is marked by a high proportion of intra regional travel The book is divided into five sections This first section provides an introduction to the region and context to the nationally focused chapters The next three sections are then broadly based on the three UNWTO Asian regions South East Asia South and Central Asia and East and North East Asia providing readers with a valuable snapshot of tourism at various scales and from various approaches and positions The concluding section considers future prospects for tourism in Asia The handbook is interdisciplinary in coverage and is also international in scope through its authorship and content It presents a range of perspectives and understanding of the processes and forces that are shaping tourism in this fascinating and dynamic region that is one of the focal points of global tourism This is essential reading for students researchers and academics interested in tourism in the growth region of Asia now and in the future Maritime Empires National Maritime Museum (Great Britain),2004 Britain s overseas Empire pre eminently involved the sea In a two way process ships carried travellers and explorers trade goods migrants to new lands soldiers to fight wars and garrison colonies and also ideas and plants that would find fertile minds and soils in other lands These essays deriving from a National Maritime Museum London conference provide a wide ranging and comprehensive picture of the activities of maritime empire They discuss a variety of issues maritime trades among them the trans Atlantic slave trade Honduran mahogany for shipping to Britain the movement of horses across the vast reaches of Asia and the Indian Ocean the impact of new technologies as Empire expanded in the nineteenth century the sailors who manned the ships the settlers who moved overseas and the major ports of the Imperial world plus the role of the navy in hydrographic survey Published in association with the National Maritime Museum DAVID KILLINGRAY is Emeritus Professor of Modern History Goldsmiths College London MARGARETTE LINCOLN and NIGEL RIGBY are in the research department of the National Maritime Museum Publication ,1920 Lobsters: Biology.

Fisheries and Aquaculture E. V. Radhakrishnan, Bruce F. Phillips, Gopalakrishnan Achamveetil, 2019-11-28 This book is an important addition to the knowledge of lobster research. The book complements other books published on lobster research and management as it focuses on Indian lobster fisheries and aquaculture developments where there have been nearly 350 research papers and reports and 19 PhD awards. The book has 15 chapters written by international experts covering many aspects of the biology of a number of spiny and slipper lobster species occurring in India and world oceans with maps illustrating global distribution of spiny lobster families, genera and species. An updated taxonomy and checklist of marine lobsters, the status and management of lobster fisheries in India and Indian Ocean Rim countries and a review of aquaculture research in India and other major countries have also been presented. The book is timely as the 2nd International Indian Ocean Expedition (IIOE) is currently underway 2015-2020, 50 years after the original IIOE 1959-1965 with some of the original lobster research on the biology and distribution of phyllosoma larvae being undertaken on the plankton samples collected during the first IIOE. Many of the chapters are contributed by the authors from Central Marine Fisheries Research Institute (CMFRI) which has been collecting fishery and biological data on lobsters since 1950 when lobster fishing began on a subsistence scale followed by some industrial fishing for lobsters in different parts of India. Unfortunately, the development of some of these lobster fisheries was followed by overfishing due to lack of enforcement of regulations. The book provides a valuable addition to our knowledge of the biology, fisheries and aquaculture of spiny and slipper lobsters. American Trust Review of the Pacific, 1927
