Essentials of Statistics for the Behavioral Sciences + Spss: User-friendly Approach Susan Nolan,Jeffery Aspelmeier,2010-04-09 Essential Statistics for the Behavioral Sciences Gregory J. Privitera,2024 In earlier editions I opened the preface by highlighting that statistics is not something static or antiquated that we used to do in times past statistics is an ever evolving discipline with relevance to our daily lives Privitera 2012 2015 2018 p xxvii in all editions In this spirit and true to the foundational philosophical approach of this text the third edition includes substantive changes that reflect an adaptive culture of analysis and interpretation in the social and behavioral sciences Initially on the basis of years of experience and student feedback I was inspired to write a book that instructors could truly teach from one that relates statistics to science using current practical research examples and one that is approachable and dare I say interesting to students I wrote this book in that spirit to introduce students to statistics as a way of understanding the world around them and encouraging students to be critical consumers of the information they come across each day This book more than ever in the third edition emphasizes the ongoing spirit of discovery that emerges using today s resources and technologies to record manage analyze and interpret data that is reported everywhere from online and print articles to the peer reviewed scientific literature The value and rationale for changes in the third edition that embody the philosophical approach of this book are discussed under the New to This Edition heading in this preface What follows here are key features and pedagogy that promote student learning make sense of difficult material connect content across chapters and build upon the philosophical approach in this book to promote student learning instill an ongoing spirit of discovery in the sciences integrate recent advances in our understanding of statistics and analysis and encourage students to be critical consumers of the information they come across each day
