The Women Impressionists Russell T. Clement, Christiane Erbolato-Ramsey, Annick Houzé, 2000-02-28 This reference organizes and describes the primary and secondary literature surrounding Mary Stevenson Cassatt Berthe Morisot Eva Gonzal's and Marie Bracquemond four major women Impressionist artists The Impressionist group included several women artists of considerable ability whose works and lives were largely ignored until the advent of feminist art criticism in the early 1970s They studied worked and exhibited with their male counterparts including Degas Manet Monet and Pissarro The entries provide extensive coverage of the careers critical reception exhibition history and growing reputations of these four female artists and discuss women Impressionists in general as they shared the challenges of becoming accepted as professional artists in late 19th century society Containing nearly 900 citations of manuscripts books articles reproductions films exhibitions and reviews this unique sourcebook will appeal to both art and women s studies scholars Each artist receives a biographical sketch chronology information about individual and group exhibitions and reviews and a primary and secondary bibliography which captures details about the artist s life career and relationship with other artists An art works index and names index complete the volume

Neo-Impressionist Painters Russell T. Clement, Annick Houzé, 1999-09-30 This reference provides biographical historical and critical information on Neo Impressionist painting and its most significant painters Neo Impressionism also called Divisionism and Pointillism was one of the most innovative and startling late 19th century French avant garde styles Over 2 000 books articles manuscripts and audiovisual materials as well as chronologies biographical sketches and exhibition lists are cited Also provided are both primary and secondary bibliographies for each artist Secondary bibliographies capture details about each artist s life and career relationships with other artists work in various media iconography critical reception and interpretation archival sources and more Art scholars will appreciate the comprehensive bibliographic research contained in this one volume Entries on Neo Impressionism in general on exhibitions and the primary and secondary bibliographies of artists follow an introduction about Neo Impressionism and a Neo Impressionism chronology that spans the years 1881 to 1905 An index of art works and an index of personal names complete the volume

Women and War Mary Raum, 2024-11-29 This volume explores how art and artifacts can tell women s stories of war a critical way into these stories often hidden due to the second tier status of reporting women s accomplishments This unique lens reveals personal cultural and historically noteworthy experiences often not found in records manuscripts and texts Nine stories from history are examined from the mythical Amazons of Ancient Greece to a female prisoner of war during World War II Each of the social political and battlefield experiences of Penthesilea Artemisia Boudica the feminine cavaliers the Dahomey Amazons suffragists World War I medical corps and a World War II prisoner of war are intertwined with a particular work of art or an artifact These include pottery iconographic images public sculpture stone engraving clothing decorative arts paintings and pulp art While each story stands alone brought together in this volume they represent a cross sectional reflection on the record of women and war The chapters cover not only a diverse range of women from around the globe the African continent the Hispanic territory of Europe Carian and Ancient Greece and Rome Iran Great Britain Scotland ancient Caledonia Western Europe and North America but also a diverse choice of artwork and artifacts eras and the nature of the wars being fought This book will be of value to those interested in gender across history and its interplay in the field of war

Mad Enchantment Ross King, 2016-09-06 From bestselling author Ross King a brilliant portrait of the legendary artist and the story of his most memorable achievement Claude Monet is perhaps the world s most beloved artist and among all his creations the paintings of the water lilies in his garden at Giverny are most famous Monet intended the water lilies to provide an asylum of peaceful meditation Yet as Ross King reveals in his magisterial chronicle of both artist and masterpiece these beautiful canvases featured in black and white images throughout as well as a 16 pg color insert belie the intense frustration Monet experienced in trying to capture the fugitive effects of light water and color They also reflect the terrible personal torments Monet suffered in the last dozen years of his life Mad Enchantment tells the full story behind the creation of the Water Lilies as the horrors of World War I came ever closer to Paris and Giverny and a new generation of younger artists led by Henri Matisse and Pablo Picasso were challenging the achievements of Impressionism By early 1914 French newspapers were reporting that Monet by then seventy three had retired his brushes He had lost his beloved wife Alice and his eldest son Jean His famously acute vision what Paul Cezanne called the most prodigious eye in the history of painting was threatened by cataracts And yet despite ill health self doubt and advancing age Monet began painting again on a more ambitious scale than ever before Linking great artistic achievement to the personal and historical dramas unfolding around it Ross King presents the most intimate and revealing portrait of an iconic figure in world culture

American Women Photographers Martha Kreisel, 1999-02-28 American women have made significant contributions to the field of photography for well over a century This bibliography compiles more than 1 070 sources for over 600 photographers from the 1880s to the present As women s role in society changed so did their role as photographers In the early years women often served as photographic assistants in their husbands studios The photography equipment initially heavy and difficult to transport was improved in the 1880s by George Eastman s innovations With the lighter camera equipment photography became accessible to everyone Women photographers became journalists and portraitists who documented vanishing cultures and ways of life Many of these important female photographers recorded life in the growing Northwest and the streets of New York City became pioneers of historic photography as they captured the plight of Americans fleeing the Dust Bowl and the horrors of the concentration camps and were members of the Photo Secessionist Movement to promote photography as a true art form This source serves as a checklist for not only the famous but also the less familiar women photographers who deserve attention

Art Market Research Tom McNulty, 2013-12-19 This book is for art market researchers at all levels A brief overview of the global art market and its major stakeholders precedes an analysis of the various sales venues auction commercial gallery etc Library research skills are reviewed and advanced methods are explored in a chapter devoted to basic market research Because the monetary value of artwork cannot be established without reference to the aesthetic qualities and art historical significance of our subject works two substantial chapters detail the processes involved in researching and documenting the fine and decorative arts respectively and provide annotated bibliographies Methods for assigning values for art objects are explored and sources of price data both in print and online are identified and described in detail In recent years art historical scholarship increasingly has addressed issues related to the history of art and its markets a chapter on resources for the historian of the art market offers a wide range of sources Finally provenance and art law are discussed with particular reference to their relevance to dealers collectors artists and other art market stakeholders      Matisse in Morocco Jeff Koehler,2025-06-03 The remarkable and little known story of the two groundbreaking winters that Henri Matisse spent painting in Morocco a fertile period that transformed his art and marked his work until the very end In winter of 1912 Henri Matisse forty two nearing mid career and yet to find lasting critical acceptance public admiration or financial security since exploding to the forefront of the avant garde in 1905 with his iconoclastic Fauve paintings was struggling Once the vanguard leader the Parisian avant garde now considered him pass His important early collectors including Gertrude and Leo Stein had stopped buying his work and were fully championing Picasso and he had exhibited little in the last few years In the face of Cubism that was now dominating the art scene Matisse needed to get away from Paris in order to advance his distinctive artistic vision Almost on a whim he went to Tangier Matisse had already been profoundly inspired by Islamic art and was primed for his arrival in the Moroccan city where such art was integrated into everyday life Despite the challenges of rain insomnia depression and finding models the sojourn was such a success he returned the following winter which would lead to even greater artistic triumph Matisse in Morocco tells the story of the artist s groundbreaking time in Tangier and how it altered Matisse s development as a painter and indelibly marked his work for the next four decades Through Koehler s research and travel we experience Matisse s time in Tangier the paintings and their subjects his relationships with his wife Am lie and his two important collectors and then come to understand the impact Morocco its light colors culture and artistic traditions had on his art From Landscape Viewed From a Window to Zorah on the Terrace from Kasbah Gate to the dream like tableau Moroccan Caf these works from Morocco are now recognized as some of the most significant and dazzling of Matisse s illustrious career      France and the Americas Bill Marshall,2005-05-24 A unique multidisciplinary encyclopedia covering the impacts that French and American politics foreign policy and culture have had on shaping each country s identity From 17th century fur traders in Canada to 21st century peacekeepers in Haiti from France s decisive role in the Revolutionary War leading to the creation of the United States to recent disagreements over Iraq France and the Americas charts the history of the inextricable links between France and the nations of the Americas This comprehensive survey features an incisive introduction and a chronology of key events spanning 400 years of France s transatlantic relations Students of many disciplines as well as the lay reader will appreciate this comprehensive survey which traces the common themes of both French policy language and influence throughout the Americas and the wide ranging transatlantic influences on contemporary France      Picasso's Demoiselles Suzanne Preston Blier,2019-12-13 In Picasso s Demoiselles eminent art historian Suzanne Preston Blier uncovers the previously unknown history of Pablo Picasso s Les Demoiselles d Avignon one of the twentieth century s most important celebrated and studied paintings Drawing on her expertise in African art and newly discovered sources Blier reads the painting not as a simple bordello scene but as Picasso s interpretation of the diversity of representations of women from around the world that he encountered in photographs and sculptures These representations are central to understanding the painting s creation and help identify the demoiselles as global figures mothers grandmothers lovers and sisters as well as part of the colonial world Picasso inhabited Simply put Blier fundamentally transforms what we know about this revolutionary and iconic work

When Paris Sizzled Mary McAuliffe,2016-09-15 When Paris Sizzled vividly portrays the City of Light during the fabulous 1920s les Ann es folles when Parisians emerged from the horrors of war to find that a new world greeted them one that reverberated with the hard metallic clang of the assembly line the roar of automobiles and the beat of jazz Mary McAuliffe traces a decade that saw seismic change on almost every front from art and architecture to music literature fashion entertainment transportation and most notably behavior The epicenter of all this creativity as well as of the era s good times was Montparnasse where impoverished artists and writers found colleagues and caf s and tourists discovered the Paris of their dreams Major figures on the Paris scene such as Gertrude Stein Jean Cocteau Picasso Stravinsky Diaghilev and Proust continued to hold sway while others now came to prominence including Ernest Hemingway Coco Chanel Cole Porter and Josephine Baker as well as Andr Citro n Le Corbusier Man Ray Sylvia Beach James Joyce and the irrepressible Kiki of Montparnasse Paris of the 1920s unquestionably sizzled Yet rather than being a decade of unmitigated bliss les Ann es folles also saw an undercurrent of despair as well as the rise of ruthless organizations of the extreme right aimed at annihilating whatever threatened tradition and order a struggle that would escalate in the years ahead Through rich illustrations and evocative narrative Mary McAuliffe brings this vibrant era to life RQ. ,1994 Dictionary of Artists' Models Jill Berk Jiminez,2013-10-15 The first reference work devoted to their lives and roles this book provides information on some 200 artists models from the Renaissance to the present day Most entries are illustrated and consist of a brief biography selected works in which the model appears with location a list of further reading This will prove an invaluable reference work for art historians librarians museum and gallery curators as well as students and researchers Choice ,2005 Sourcebook for Wind Band and Instrumental Music Russ Girsberger, Frank L. Battisti, William Berz,2014-11-01 Meredith Music Resource This sourcebook was created to aid directors and teachers in finding the information they need and expand their general knowledge The resources were selected from hundreds of published and on line sources found in journals magazines music company catalogs and publications numerous websites doctoral dissertations graduate theses encyclopedias various databases and a great many books Information was also solicited from outstanding college university school wind band directors and instrumental teachers The information is arranged in four sections Section 1 General Resources About Music Section 2 Specific Resources Section 3 Use of Literature Section 4 Library Staffing and Management The Artists of De Stijl Donald Langmead,2000-07-30 This guide summarizes and evaluates the available literature concerning the Dutch artistic movement De Stijl which was headed by art critic and painter Theo van Doesburg and was comprised of such architects and artists as J J P Oud Piet Mondrian Rovert van t Hoff and Georges Vantongerloo The loose knit group took its name from the avant garde journal they first published in October 1917 De Stijl The Style Although it was limited to Holland

De Stijl promoted ideas about a universal art combining tenets of theosophy and a holistic view of the oneness of all things including arts and culture and socialism. This bibliography examines publications that deal with the movement and with affiliated groups and individual members. Art historians and scholars of modern and of Dutch art and architecture will appreciate this comprehensive tool for further research. Within individual sections for the movement and for its members, entries are chronologically arranged with separate categories for books, monographs, and catalogs and periodicals. A final section analyzes and presents the contents of the journal De Stijl.

Tracing Vision Georgia Museum of Art, 2011. The latest in the Georgia Museum of Art's series of publications on drawings from its permanent collection, Tracing Vision focuses on nineteenth and twentieth century works by a huge range of artists. Contemporary feminist artists Lenore Tawney and Nancy Grossman are represented alongside Pierre Puvis de Chavannes and Chuck Close is closely followed by American Scene artist Howard Cook and turn of the century muralist Kenyon Cox. Carol Nathanson, who wrote by far the largest number of entries, also supplies a marvelous introductory essay that highlights the ties among this diverse selection of drawings and focuses on the importance of the medium throughout art history.

Fauves Judi Freeman, 1995. The book is a catalogue of an exhibition held in 1995-1996 in Sydney and Melbourne. It has illustrations of paintings by artists Georges Braque, Charles Camoin, André Derain, Kees van Dongen, Raoul Dufy, Othon Friesz, Henri Manguin, Albert Marquet, Henri Matisse, and Maurice de Vlaminck.
