Gesammelte Werke Christian Freiherr von Wolff, 1980 Deutsche Encyclopaedie oder Allgemeines Real-Wörterbuch aller Künste und Wissenschaften von einer Gesellschaft Gelehrten [Red. von H. M. G. Köster]
Henrich Martin Gottfried Koester, 1793 Schmidt's Jahrbuecher, 1895 Sparta's German Children Helen Roche, 2013-12-31 From the eighteenth century until 1945 German children were taught to model themselves on the young of an Ancient Greek city state Sparta From older children from teachers in the classroom and from higher authority first in Prussia then in Imperial and National Socialist Germany came images of Sparta designed to inculcate ideals of endurance discipline and of military self sacrifice Identification with Sparta could also be used to justify ideas of domination over Germany's eastern neighbours Helen Roche is the first to examine this still sensitive topic systematically and in depth She collects and analyses official and published German evocations of Sparta but also and remarkably reconstructs the experiences of German children taught to be little Spartans in the Prussian Cadet Corps and National Socialist elite schools the Napolas In treating the final and gravest period of this process the author has personally collected testimony from numerous surviving German witnesses who attended the Napolas as children in the early 1940s That testimony is presented here in a work which is likely to prove definitive not only for its treasury of new information but for its elegant and humane analysis Gesammelte Schriften: Facetiae pennalium Julius Wilhelm Zingref, 1978 Catalog der Bistritzer Gymnasial-Bibliothek [Anonymus AC09763691], 1858 Gesammelte Werke Maria Lauber, 1968 Buch Journal, 2004
Gesammelte pädagogische Schriften Erhard Weigel, 1970 De priorum scriptorum argenteae, quae dicitur latinitatis studiis scholasticis Ludolf Lützen, 1907 Gesammelte Werke Paul Heyse, 1924 Katalog der Arbeiter-Bibliothek in Basel, 1890 Gesammelte Werke: Grundlinien de Philosophie des Rechts Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel, 2010 Gesammelte Schriften Wilhelm Dilthey, 1961 Gesammelte Schriften Wilhelm Freiherr von Humboldt, 1935 Allegories of Reading Paul De Man, 1979-01-01 This important theoretical work by Paul de Man sets forth a mode of reading and interpretation based on exemplary texts by Rousseau Nietzsche Rilke and Proust The readings start from unresolved difficulties in the critical traditions engendered by these authors and they return to the places in the text where those difficulties are most apparent or most incisively reflected upon The close reading leads to the elaboration of a more general model of textual understanding in which de Man shows that the thematic aspects of the texts their assertions of truth or falsehood as well as their assertions of values are linked to specific modes of figuration that can be identified and described The description of synchronic figures of substitution leads by an inner logic embedded in the structure of all tropes to extended narrative figures or allegories De Man poses the question whether such self generating systems of figuration can account fully for the intricacies of meaning and of signification they produce Throughout the book issues in contemporary criticism are addressed analytically rather than polemically Traditional oppositions are put in question by a rhetorical analysis which demonstrates why literary texts are such powerful sources of meaning yet epistemologically so unreliable Since the structure which underlies this tension belongs to language in general and is not confined to literary texts the book starting out as practical and historical criticism or as the demonstration of a theory of literary reading leads into larger questions pertaining to the philosophy of language Through elaborate and elegant close readings of poems by Rilke Proust s Remembrance Nietzsche s philosophical writings and the major works of Rousseau de Man concludes that all writing concerns itself with its own activity as language and language he says is always unreliable slippery impossible Literary narrative because it must rely on language tells the story of its own inability to tell a story De Man demonstrates beautifully and convincingly that language turns back on itself that rhetoric is untrustworthy Julia Epstein Washington Post Book World The study follows out of the thinking of Nietzsche and Genette among others yet moves in strikingly new directions De Man s text almost certain to be endlessly provocative is worthy of repeated re reading Ralph Flores Library Journal Paul de Man continues his work in the tradition of deconstructionist criticism which begins with the observation that all language is constructed therefore the task of criticism is to deconstruct it and reveal what lies behind The title of his new work reflects de Man s preoccupation with the unreliability of language The contributions that the book makes both in the initial theoretical chapters and in the detailed analyses or deconstructions of particular texts are undeniable Caroline D Eckhardt World Literature Today Gesammelte Dichtungen in vier Bänden Johann Hinrich Fehrs,1913 Catalogue Liverpool (England).
