Christian Perspective Justin A. Irving, Mark L. Strauss, 2019-06-18 This book brings the best of leadership theory and research together with biblical reflection and examples of leadership in action to offer a practical guide to Christian leaders. Combining expertise in leadership studies and biblical studies, Justin Irving and Mark Strauss explore how leadership models have moved from autocratic and paternalistic leader-centered models toward an increased focus on followers. The authors show how contemporary theories such as transformational leadership, authentic leadership, and servant leadership take an important step toward prioritizing and empowering followers who work with leaders to accomplish organizational goals. Irving and Strauss organize their book around nine empowering practices, making it accessible to students, church leaders, and business leaders. Integrating solid research in leadership studies with biblical and theological reflection on the leadership ideas that are most compatible with Christian faith, this book is an important resource for all Christian students of leadership.

You Can't Make Me Angry Dr. Paul O., 2022-01-14 And acceptance is the answer to all my problems today. You may already know of Dr. Paul's simple yet profound wisdom in the frequently quoted passage from his story in the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous. Dr. Paul continues sharing his experience, strength, and hope in this his second book, You Can't Make Me Angry. By the time you put this book down, you will be convinced that people and circumstances don't make us angry; we make ourselves angry. People can't make us angry unless we let them. We alone are responsible for our feelings. A measure of the effectiveness of communication is the result it produces. If you don't like the results you are getting when communicating with another person, there's a great deal you can do about it. I'm not willing to let anything or any person put my physical sobriety at risk; why should I put less value on my emotional sobriety? For physical sobriety, we had to give up drinking, and for emotional sobriety, we have to give up blaming others. No longer can we say, "You made me angry." Instead, we must accept personal responsibility for our emotional state. This much responsibility may seem extreme, yet in fact, it is a great freedom. Henceforth, no person or situation can upset us if we don't give them or it permission to do so. What could be a greater freedom than that? Emotional maturity is like serenity. The first time I felt serene, I wondered what was happening, but I liked the feeling and wanted more. The more I got, the more I wanted. Serenity is addictive. Get Along with Anyone, Anytime, Anywhere! Arnold Sanow, Sandra Strauss, 2013-01-01 A renowned business and communication expert demonstrates 8 key ways to create enduring connections with friends, customers, co-workers, and even kids. Whether you work in marketing and sales or in customer service, are a CEO or a stay-at-home mom, the ability to effectively connect with the needs of others dramatically affects your productivity, effectiveness, and motivation. This is your one-stop guidebook for all the information you need to communicate effectively and build lasting personal and professional relationships today, next week, and next year. Relationships are critical to success and happiness. This book, written by one of only 525 Certified Speaking Professionals in the world, will give you skills you need to turn your encounters with contacts, acquaintances, and even family members into enduring connections. A useful reminder of what we all need to make our lives and our businesses work better: communication.

unique challenges and sadly good intentions aren't always enough. With so many complex relationships involved, all the normal rules for family life change even how you apply something as simple as the five love languages. That's why Gary Chapman, the bestselling author of The 5 Love Languages and national expert on stepfamilies, and Ron Deal join together in this book to teach you how the five love languages can help your blended family. They'll teach you about the unique dynamics of stepfamilies, how to overcome fear and trust issues in marriage, how to develop healthy parenting and step-parenting practices, how the love languages should and should not be applied. You're going to face many challenges, but with the right strategies and smart work, your family can be stronger and healthier together.

Communicating User Experience Trudy Milburn, 2015-07-01. Communicating User Experience: Applying Local Strategies Research to Digital Media Design examines how Local Strategies Research (LSR) helps investigate user experiences with digital media. This edited collection uses case studies to examine the way we communicate in the digital age, whether between individuals and digital interfaces such as those installed in cars, dyads via mobile phones and online interfaces, or members of a group through a video conference. Milburn and her contributors consider the cultural norms that both inform and are used during interaction to provide a useful methodology that shifts design, particularly HCI research, from a focus on emotional, subjective user experiences to the everyday practices involved in interacting with one another in and through digital devices and interfaces. Communicating User Experience will be a valuable resource for designers and scholars of communication and new media.

Unwrapping Transcultural Romantic Love Relationships Claude-Hélène Mayer, 2023-06-01. This research study explores the interlinkages of three major themes: namely, transcultural romantic love relationships (TRLRs), sense of coherence (SOC), and identity development (ID) in individuals who are presently involved in romantic love relationships (RLRs) with partners from different cultural or ethnic backgrounds. The study uses a qualitative research design within the hermeneutical interpretative research paradigm, aiming to understand the interlinkages of TRLR, SOC, and ID. Based on purposive and snowball sampling techniques, the study includes 22 participants.

12 female and 10 male between 23 and 68 years of age from 14 different self defined cultural backgrounds At the time of the interview participants had been in TRLRs for at least 6 months to a maximum of 26 years Data were collected through semi structured interviews and analysed through content analysis Qualitative quality criteria and ethical considerations were applied The findings show that TRLRs are firmly based on relationship qualities strong feelings common actions spirituality and future orientation Further the findings present clear interlinkages between TRLR and SOC contributing positively to meaningfulness manageability and comprehensibility Finally TRLRs support SOC on intrapersonal cultural and interpersonal levels In addition they influence the development of identity awareness actions feelings and sexual SOC Conclusions limitations and recommendations for theory and practice are provided
