K.Gurnadha Gupta,C. Divya,Voruganti Ramesh,Tharini Benarji,2018-01-01 Artificial intelligence Introduction AI the power of a computer or computer controlled robot to perform tasks commonly related to intelligent beings The term is usually applied to the project of developing systems endowed with the intellectual processes characteristic of humans As well as like the power to reason discover meaning generalize or learn from experience Since the event of the computer within the 1940s it s been demonstrated that computers are often programmed to hold out very complex tasks For instance discovering proofs for mathematical theorems or playing chess with great proficiency Still despite continuing advances in computer processing speed and memory capacity there are so far no programs That will match human flexibility over wider domains or in tasks requiring much everyday knowledge Moreover some programs have attained the performance levels of human experts and professionals in performing certain specific tasks So Artificial intelligence introduction during this limited sense is found in applications as diverse as diagnosis computer search engines And also voice or handwriting recognition to all but the only human behavior is ascribed to intelligence While even the foremost complicated insect behavior isn t taken as a sign of intelligence What s the difference Consider the behavior of the sphecoid wasp Sphechneumon When the feminine wasp returns to her burrow with food she first deposits it on the edge Checks for intruders inside her burrow and only then if the coast is obvious carries her food inside The important nature of the wasp s instinctual behavior is revealed If the food is moved a couple of inches faraway from the doorway to her burrow Likewise she is inside on emerging she is going to repeat the entire procedure as often because the food is displaced Intelligence conspicuously absent within the case of Sphechneumon must include the power to adapt to new circumstances Psychologists generally don t characterize human intelligence by only one trait but by the mixture of the many diverse abilities
