Out of the Norm

Norman Smith, 2011-11 I first tried writing these little blurbs weekly some years ago when I became a pastor My office manager suggested I try to fill this much space in the church bulletin I started with the obvious and wrote a sentence or two about the morning s sermon topic Today we look at the way God led Joshua and see that He still leads us through our personal struggles today That was deadly dull I couldn t take it My own mind drifted off into the nether regions Slowly unplanned I began to find diversions I followed my own wandering thoughts I strolled along ethereal shores looking for pretty shells or interesting wave worn rocks Over three hundred of these musings have been the result Some are ridiculous and probably none is sublime but they reflect my mental meanderings If you choose to come along I m grateful for the company Most of the topics may seem to appear with no rhyme or reason That is because it is so They were first dashed off as fillers Then I began to find the writing a brief respite in the week an outlet for my own interests I have always tried to observe and learn wherever I could from cereal boxes to the internet so the myriad magazines emails media pulp personal encounters and random meetings that were woven into the pastorate as well as countless experiences from previous careers all provided grist for the mill The aim of all writing and the aim of life itself it seems to me is to tell the truth It may be in the form of fiction or fact but the goal doesn t change Writing a poem or repairing a motorcycle or remodeling a room or preaching a sermon I see them as all the same Work recreation ministry serving laughing call them what you will if done honestly all become worship For each moment for each task we are to be true to ourselves and to others I have tried to be so here In this little collection you will find again like life itself that the sacred moments must exist side by side with the trivial the holy with the profane Also I have not bothered to group by topic or date of creation An anecdote about Christmas may follow one about paper clips I figure it s easier to tell you that than to do the tedious work of careful collating Please try to make the best of it
