Health and Healing in Comparative Perspective ,2016      Theory and Practice in the Bioarchaeology of Care

Lorna Tilley,2015-08-28 This book provides the first comprehensive introduction to and explanation of the theory and practice of the bioarchaeology of care an original fully theorised and contextualised case study based approach designed to identify and interpret cases of care provision in prehistory The applied methodology comprises four stages of analysis each building on the content of the preceding one s which provide the framework for this process Theory and Practice in the Bioarchaeology of Care is the primary source of information on this new approach and serves as a manual for its implementation It elaborates the foundations on which the bioarchaeology of care is constructed it leads the reader through the methodology and it provides three detailed examples of prehistoric caregiving which illustrate how bioarchaeology of care analysis has the capacity to reveal aspects of past group and individual identity and lifeways which might otherwise have remained unknown      The Sociology of Health, Healing, and Illness Gregory L. Weiss,2017-02-24 With thorough coverage of inequality in health care access and practice this leading textbook has been widely acclaimed by teachers as the most accessible of any available It introduces and integrates recent research in medical sociology and emphasizes the importance of race class gender throughout This new edition leads students through the complexities of the evolving Affordable Care Act It significantly expands coverage of medical technology end of life issues and alternative and complementary health care topics students typically debate in the classroom Many new textboxes and enhancements in pedagogy grace this new edition which is essential in the fast changing area of health care New to this Edition More textboxes relating the social aspects of medicine to students lives Expanded coverage leading students through the complex impacts of the ACA and health care reform Expanded coverage of medical technology end of life issues and alternative and complementary health care Health and the Internet sections updated and renovated toward student assignments New end of chapter lists of terms Updated test bank      Comparative Perspectives on Communal Lands and Individual Ownership Lee Godden, Maureen Tehan,2010-02-26 Comparative Perspectives on Communal Lands and Individual Ownership Sustainable Futures addresses property and land title as central mechanisms governing access to communally held land and resources The collection assesses the effectiveness of property law and tenure models developed around concepts of individual ownership for achieving long term environmental and economic sustainability for indigenous peoples and local communities It explores the momentum for change in the international realm and then develops a comparative focus across Australia North America Africa Peru New Zealand and the Pacific region examining the historical and current impacts of individuation of title on the customary law and practice of indigenous peoples and local communities Themes of property privatisation and sustainable communities are developed in theoretical analyses and case studies from these jurisdictions The case studies throw into sharp relief how questions of land law and resources management should not be separated from wider issues about the long term viability of communities Comparative analysis allows consideration of how western models of land tenure and land title might better accommodate the exercise of traditional practices of indigenous peoples and local communities while still promoting autonomy choice and economic development This volume will be of interest to scholars and professionals working in the fields of property law land reform policy and planning indigenous law and customary law environmental sustainability development and resource management

Sociology of Health, Healing, and Illness Gregory L. Weiss, 2015-08-13 A comprehensive presentation of the major topics in medical sociology The Sociology of Health Healing and Illness 8 e by Gregory L Weiss and Lynne E Lonnquist provides an in depth overview of the field of medical sociology The authors provide solid coverage of traditional topics while providing significant coverage of current issues related to health healing and illness Readers will emerge with an understanding of the health care system in the United States as well as the changes that are taking place with the implementation of The Affordable Care Act

Drinking from the Same Well Lydia F. Johnson, 2011-05-09 Drinking from the Same Well is designed for those who seek a praxis oriented theological grounding in the exploration of cross cultural perspectives in the field of pastoral care and counseling It traverses the broad terrain of cultural analysis and also explores in depth a number of discrete cross cultural issues in pastoral counseling related to communication conflict empathy family dynamics suffering and healing Cultural analysis and theological reflection are situated alongside numerous case studies of persons and situations that enliven the concepts being discussed and readers are invited to engage personally with the material through a variety of focus questions and reflective exercises This book can serve as a helpful textbook for seminarians and a useful guide for pastors and priests church study groups multicultural parishes and anyone engaged in helping ministries with persons from other cultures The goal is to develop culturally competent pastoral caregivers by providing a comprehensive and practical overview of the generative themes and challenges in cross cultural pastoral care

Understanding and Applying Medical Anthropology Peter J. Brown, Svea Closser, 2016-07-01 The editors of the third edition of the seminal textbook Understanding and Applying Medical Anthropology bring it completely up to date for both instructors and students The collection of 49 readings 17 of them new to this edition offers extensive background description and exposes students to the breadth of theoretical methodological and practical perspectives and issues in the field of medical anthropology The text provides specific examples and case studies of research as it is applied to a range of health settings from cross cultural clinical encounters to cultural analysis of new biomedical technologies and the implementation of programs in global health settings The new edition features a major revision that eliminates many older readings in favor of more fresh relevant selections a new section on structural violence that looks at the impact of poverty and other forms of social marginalization on health an updated and expanded section on Conceptual Tools including new research and ideas that are currently driving the field of medical anthropology forward such as epigenetics and syndemics new chapters on climate change Ebola PTSD among Iraq Afghanistan veterans eating disorders and autism among others recent articles from Margaret Mead Award winners Sera Young Seth Holmes and Erin Finley along with new articles by such established medical anthropologists as Paul Farmer and Merrill Singer Worlds of Health Kate Reed, 2003-03-30 In this era of globalization we are faced with a plethora of health goods and services on the local and global marketplace Faced with such variety and availability how do we choose This volume examines the influence of ethnicity gender and generation on our health choices focusing in particular on the choices of British Asian mothers Asian women who are born and raised in Britain but are members of a globally dispersed ethnic group Other factors such as family religion community and space are also taken into account by the author who uses original empirical research to explore the interconnections between the different factors and the ways in which these women combine western and nonwestern health discourses in their daily lives The Routledge Handbook of the Political Economy of Health and Healthcare David Primrose, Rodney D. Loepky, Robin Chang, 2024-02-28 This handbook provides a comprehensive and critical overview of the gamut of contemporary issues around health and healthcare from a political economy perspective Its contributions present a unique challenge to prevailing economic accounts of health and healthcare which narrowly focus on individual behaviour and market processes Instead the capacity of the human body to reach its full potential and the ability of society to prevent disease and cure illness are demonstrated to be shaped by a broader array of political economic processes The material conditions in which societies produce distribute exchange consume and reproduce and the operation of power relations therein influence all elements of human health from food consumption and workplace safety to inequality healthcare and housing and even the biophysical conditions in which humans live This volume explores these concerns across five sections First it introduces and critically engages with a variety of established and cutting edge theoretical perspectives in political economy to conceptualise health and healthcare from neoclassical and behavioural economics to Marxist and feminist approaches The next two sections extend these insights to evaluate the neoliberalisation of health and healthcare over the past 40 years highlighting their individualisation and commodification by the capitalist state and powerful corporations The fourth section examines the diverse manifestation of these dynamics across a range of geographical contexts The volume concludes with a section devoted to outlining more progressive health and healthcare arrangements which transcend the limitations of both neoliberalism and capitalism This volume will be an indispensable reference work for students and scholars of political economy health policy and politics health economics health geography the sociology of health and other health related disciplines Chapters 1-8 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license Human Biology Sara Stinson, Barry Bogin, Dennis H. O'Rourke, 2012-03-19 This comprehensive introduction to the field of human biology covers all the major areas of the field genetic variation variation related to climate infectious and non infectious diseases aging growth nutrition and demography Written by four expert authors working in close collaboration this second edition has been thoroughly updated to provide undergraduate and graduate students with two new chapters one on race and culture and their ties to human biology and the other a concluding summary chapter highlighting the integration and intersection of the topics covered in the book

Healing in the New Testament John J. Pilch, How the earliest churches understood healing Plural Medical Systems In The Horn Of Africa: The Legacy Of Sheikh Hippocrates Leendert Jan Slikkerveer, 2013-10-28 First Published in 1990 This study is an important landmark in our understanding of the complexities of pluralistic medical systems It is an unusual study as it provides an overview of the indigenous Oromo and Amhara the regional Greco Arabic and the cosmopolitan health systems in the Horn of Africa using a variety of approaches and methodologies Dying and Death, 2007-01-01 Death is a topic people are reluctant to ponder Neither is dying a process that is usually being openly discussed However on a variety of occasions dying and death are on a person's mind under some sensitive circumstances he or she are eager to discuss with a close person a friend a professional The present volume the second in the Series on Dying and Death is meant to enrich personal experience of dying or death by providing its reader with knowledge and understanding of some aspects of dying or death Section 1 describes practices of mourning in different times and places USA during the Civil War Ashley Byock the Island of Viz between Croatia and Italy Kathleen Young present day Israel Asa Kasher medieval Serbia Mira Crouch and post Holocaust USA Paula David Section 2 consists of reflections on mourning It includes philosophical discussions of Friendship Gary Peters Grace Dana Freibach Heifetz and the Other Havi Carel all in the context of mourning as well as Mourning itself as a skill Marguerite Peggy Flynn Section 3 brings papers on culture and suicide in early modern Holland Laura Cruz in historical Japan Lawrence Fouraker as well as in the Jazz age Kathleen Jones Section 4 discusses different predicaments of medics facing death and dying terminal diagnosis Angela Armstrong Coster palliative patients Anna Taube and the hospice setting Elizabeth Gill An Introduction to Shamanism Thomas A. DuBois, 2009-05-14 This Introduction surveys the beliefs rituals and techniques found in shamanic traditions around the world International Handbook of Practical Theology Birgit Weyel, Wilhelm Gräb, Emmanuel Lartey, Cas Wepener, 2022-09-06 Practical theology has outgrown its traditional pastoral paradigm The articles in this handbook recognize that faith spirituality and lived religion within and beyond institutional communities refer to realms of cultures ritual practices and symbolic orders whose boundaries are not clearly defined and whose contents are shifting The International Handbook of Practical Theology offers insightful transcultural conceptions of religion and religious matters gathered from various cultures and traditions of faith The first section presents concepts of religion Chapters have to do with considerations of the conceptualizing of religion in the fields of anthropology community family institution law media and politics among others The second section is dedicated to case studies of religious practices from the perspective of their actors The third section presents major theoretical discourses that explore the globally significant diversity and multiplicity of religion Altogether sixty one authors from different parts of the world encourage a rethinking of religious practice in an expanded transcultural globalized and postcolonial world Equality Governance via

Policy Analysis? Arn T. Sauer, 2018-11-08 Gender impact assessment has been both celebrated as a beacon of hope for the cause of gender equality and criticised as being ineffectual More than 20 years of gender mainstreaming have demonstrated that equality governance with and through impact assessment is an intersectional and still evolving process Arn T Sauer's study examines the instruments of gendered policy analysis and the conditions under which they are being used by the Canadian federal government and the European Commission Interviews with experts from public administration and instrument designers as well as document analyses reveal benefits and challenges and show that the success of equality governance depends upon whether knowledge about gendered policy and appropriate administrative practices are embedded embodied and entrenched in public administration     Bibliographic Index ,2009     The African Transformation of Western Medicine and the Dynamics of Global Cultural Exchange David Baronov, 2010-05-14 Beginning with the colonial era Western biomedicine has radically transformed African medical beliefs and practices Conversely in using Western biomedicine Africans have also transformed it The African Transformation of Western Medicine and the Dynamics of Global Cultural Exchange contends that contemporary African medical systems no less biomedical than Western medicine in fact greatly enrich and expand the notion of biomedicine reframing it as a global cultural form deployed across global networks of cultural exchange The book analyzes biomedicine as a complex and dynamic sociocultural form the conceptual premises of which make it necessarily subject to ongoing change and development as it travels the globe David Baronov captures the complexities of this cultural exchange by using world systems analysis in a way that places global cultural processes on equal footing with political and economic processes In doing so he both allows the story of Africa's transformation of Western biomedicine to be told and offers new insights into the capitalist world system     Cultural Perspectives on Mental Wellbeing Natalie Tobert, 2016-09-21 Providing much needed understandings of cultural differences in attitudes and beliefs towards issues such as illness death and mental health this book is a remedy against the cultural dissonance occurring at present between Western medical systems and their increasingly diverse patients in order to facilitate integrated and suitable care     American Book Publishing Record ,2005
