Healing Into Action A Leadership Guide For Creating Diverse Communities:

Healing Into Action Cherie R. Brown, George J. Mazza, 1997 Leading Diverse Communities Cherie R. Brown, George J. Mazza, National Coalition Building Institute, 2004-10-22 Based on the National Coalition Building Institute's popular leadership development program Leading Diverse Communities gives community campus nonprofit and business leaders the tools they need to embrace diversity and encourage their stakeholders to do the same. The book is filled with practical guidance on how to achieve results and provides a simple skill oriented guidebook for busy leaders. Leading Diverse Communities distills the National Coalition Building Institute's wisdom into thirty two concise leadership principles. Each principle is illuminated with theory and a related example activity and worksheet that can help develop the skills required to put a particular principle into practice.

Race Experts Elisabeth Lasch-Quinn, 2002-12-17 Controversial and strikingly original Race Experts looks at how we capsized racial progress in the quest for self esteem. Now available in paperback it uncovers the hidden trajectory and terms of our thinking about race relations since the 1960s. Since segregation's dismantling intense anxiety has surrounded interracial encounters and a movement has arisen to engineer social relations through the specification of elaborate codes of conduct. Diversity Training in business, multicultural education in schools and cross cultural psychotherapy have created a world of prescriptions. Elisabeth Lasch-Quinn carefully examines the teachings of these self appointed experts and offers a bold and searching analysis of the origins of their ideas in the human potential movement and the radical milieu of the 1960s. Casting race primarily as an issue of etiquette or therapy rather than of justice or equality has had dire consequences for American life diverting attention from the deeper problems of poverty, violence and continued inequality and discrimination. In this sobering analysis Race Experts illuminates how far away we are from the issues that deserve our attention.

The Task Planner William James Reid, 2000 This practical guide for social workers presents systematic and streamlined techniques for helping clients resolve their problems. It includes an A-Z set of task planners for more than 100 psychosocial problems encountered by human service professionals.

Planning Health Promotion Programs L. Kay Bartholomew Eldredge, Christine M. Markham, Robert A. C. Ruiter, Maria E. Fernández, Gerjo Kok, Guy S. Parcel, 2016-01-06 The Intervention Mapping bible updated with new theory, trends and cases. Planning Health Promotion Programs is the bible of the field guiding students and practitioners through the planning process from a highly practical perspective. Using an original framework called Intervention Mapping this book presents a series of steps, tasks and processes that help you develop effective health promotion and education programs using a variety of approaches. As no single model can accurately predict all health behavior or environmental changes this book shows you how to choose useful theories and integrate constructs from multiple theories to describe health problems and develop appropriate promotion and education solutions. This new fourth edition has been streamlined for efficiency with information on the latest theories and trends in public health including competency based training and inter professional education. New examples and case studies show you these concepts in action and the companion website provides lecture slides additional case studies and a test bank to bring this book directly into the classroom Health education and health promotion is a central function of many public health roles and new models theories and planning approaches are always emerging This book guides you through the planning process using the latest developments in the field and a practical approach that serves across discipline boundaries Merge multiple theories into a single health education solution Learn the methods and processes of intervention planning Gain a practical understanding of multiple planning approaches Get up to date on the latest theories trends and developments in the field Both academic and practice settings need a realistic planning handbook based on system not prescription Planning Health Promotion Programs is the essential guide to the process equipping you with the knowledge and skills to develop solutions without a one size fits all approach

Rethinking the "L" Word in Higher Education: The Revolution of Research on Leadership Adrianna Kezar, Rozana Carducci, Melissa Contreras-McGavin, 2011-10-19 In these times of change and challenge in higher education pleas for leadership have become frequent However the type of leadership required within this new context of globalization demographic changes technological advancement and questioning of social authority may call for different skills requiring a re education among campus stakeholders if they want to be successful leaders In the past twenty years there has been a revolution in the way that leadership is conceptualized across most fields and disciplines Leadership has moved away from being leader centered individualistic hierarchical focused on universal characteristics and emphasizing power over followers Instead a new vision has emerged leadership that is process centered collective context bound non hierarchical and focused on mutual power and influence processes This volume summarizes research and literature about new conceptualizations of leadership to inform practice This is volume 31 number 6 of the ASHE Higher Education Report a bi monthly journal published by Jossey Bass See our entire list of ASHE Higher Education Report titles for a wide variety of critical issues facing Higher Education today

Undoing the Silence Louise Dunlap, 2007-11 Undoing the Silence offers guidance to help both citizens and professionals influence democratic process through letters articles reports and public testimony Louise Dunlap PhD began her career as an activist writing instructor during the Free Speech Movement of the 1960s She learned that listening and gaining a feel for audience are just as important to social transformation as the outspoken words of student leaders atop police cars Free speech is a first step but real communication matches speech with listening and understanding That is when thinking shifts and change happens Dunlap felt compelled to go where the silences were deepest because her work aimed not just at teaching but also at healing both individual voices and an ailing collective voice Her tales of those adventures and what she knows about the culture of silence how gender race education class and family work to quiet dissent are interwoven with practical methods for people to put their most challenging ideas into words Louise Dunlap gives writing workshops around the country for universities and social justice environmental and peace organizations that help reluctant writers get past their internal censors to find their powerful voice Her insight strengthens strategic thinking and her You can do it approach makes social action writing achievable for everyone
