Maya Narrative Arts Karen Bassie-Sweet,Nicholas A. Hopkins,2019-01-15 In Maya Narrative Arts authors Karen Bassie Sweet and Nicholas A Hopkins present a comprehensive and innovative analysis of the principles of Classic Maya narrative arts and apply those principles to some of the major monuments of the site of Palenque They demonstrate a recent methodological shift in the examination of art and inscriptions away from minute technical issues and toward the poetics and narratives of texts and the relationship between texts and images Bassie Sweet and Hopkins show that both visual and verbal media present carefully planned narratives and that the two are intimately related in the composition of Classic Maya monuments Text and image interaction is discussed through examples of stelae wall panels lintels benches and miscellaneous artifacts including ceramic vessels and codices Bassie

Sweet and Hopkins consider the principles of contrast and complementarity that underlie narrative structures and place this study in the context of earlier work proposing a new paradigm for Maya epigraphy. They also address the narrative organization of texts and images as manifested in selected hieroglyphic inscriptions and the accompanying illustrations stressing the interplay between the two. Arguing for a more holistic approach to Classic Maya art and literature, Maya Narrative Arts reveals how close observation and reading can be equally if not more productive than theoretical discussions which too often stray from the very data that they attempt to elucidate. The book will be significant for Mesoamerican art historians, epigraphers, linguists, and archaeologists.

Travels with a Typewriter Michael Frayn, 2011-06-02 In mid-career, Michael Frayn took up his old trade of journalism and wrote a series of occasional articles for the Observer about some of the places in the world that interested him. He wanted to describe not the extraordinary but the ordinary, the typical, the everyday, and his accounts became the starting point for some of the novels and plays he wrote later. From a kibbutz in Israel to summer rains in Japan, bicycles in Cambridge to Notting Hill at the end of the 1950s, they are glimpses of a world that sometimes seems tantalisingly familiar, sometimes vanished forever. Michael Frayn is the celebrated author of fifteen plays, including Noises Off, Copenhagen, and Afterlife. His bestselling novels include Headlong, which was shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize, Spies, which won the Whitbread Best Novel Award, and Skios, which was longlisted for the Man Booker Prize. All writers of fiction should be required by law to go out and do a bit of reporting from time to time just to remind them how different the real world in front of their eyes is from the invented world behind them. Michael Frayn. Whether he's on a kibbutz or a bicycle, Frayn makes acute observations and the writing is enchanting. Conde Nast Traveller
