Sandberg,Kenza Aqertit,2014-09-26 Sandberg and Aqertit analyze how over the course of twenty five years dedicated smart and politically effective Moroccan women working simultaneously in multiple settings and aware of each other s work altered Morocco s entrenched gender institution of regularized practices and distinctive rights and obligations for men and women In telling the story of these Moroccan gender activists Sandberg and Aqertit s work is of interest to Middle East and North Africa MENA area specialists to feminist and gender researchers and to institutionalist scholars Their work operationalizes and offers a template for studying change in national gender institutions that can be adopted by practitioners and scholars in other country settings Arabs in Treatment: Yana Korobko,2016-08-19 When I was only starting the therapeutic work with the Middle Eastern patients I was looking for some kind of guidance to enable my genuine understanding of the Muslim patient cases However the material was scarce haphazardly scattered and mostly referring to the traditional therapies That was not helpful and was even more confusing With time I managed to amass my own systemized data based on regular observations practical cases reflections and exchanges with the colleagues This material helped me to approach each case individually while respecting the cultural environment of a patient Eventually the book was published This is the kind of book that I have always wanted to find and I had to write it eventually by myself The work contains the systematized knowledge on the evolution of scientific psychology in the Islamic world which starts with the prophetic times and continues until now The book reveals the signifiers which form a structure of a Muslim psyche It also exposes the recurrent mental health complaints of the Arab patients and investigates their unconscious roots The book is intended first of all for professionals who are directly related to the Muslim mental health care system Secondly it is for anyone who is considering undergoing a personal analysis And certainly the edition is for everyone interested in the subject This book does not intend to bring the answers It rather continues the dialogue regarding the necessity of creating the psychological counseling culture in the Muslim world

Mohammed VI's Strategies for Moroccan Economic Development Eve Sandberg,Seth Binder,2019-08-01 This book analyzes the economic development choices initiated by Morocco s King Mohammed VI since he ascended the throne in 1999 and situates those choices in the political economy development literature Examining the policies enacted by the King the authors argue that over the past twenty years Mohammed VI has achieved some outstanding successes in modernizing the foundational economic sectors of Morocco but the benefits of this development have not reached all Moroccans With its focus on economic development this book explores the way in which Mohammed VI s development strategies have in part resembled the neoliberal model advocated by Western powers and institutions as well as how the King also adopted some of the European practices of state intervention found in the varieties of capitalism models across Europe Additionally Mohammed VI s Strategies for Moroccan Economic Development looks at the way in which the King has sought to utilize leap frog technologies so that Morocco has become a leader in certain productive sectors and is not just catching up to rival producers The book also examines the extent to which Moroccan citizens have benefited from the economic transformations arguing that not all Moroccans have benefited many Moroccan citizens in 2019 echo the same economic concerns that were voiced in 1999 when King Mohammed VI first assumed the throne With its focus on economic development this book will be of interest not only to scholars and students of Middle East and North African Studies but also Economics International Development and Politics

Annual Report of the Director of the Mint United States. Bureau of the Mint,1907 Understanding Migrant Decisions Belachew Gebrewold,Tendayi Bloom,2016-06-10 Examining how changing conditions in the Mediterranean Region have affected the decisions of those considering migrating from Sub Saharan Africa to or through the Region this book represents an important and overdue contribution to international policy making and academic discourse In current discussions relating to this migration phenomenon the complexity of individual decision making is often left unacknowledged so that subsequent policy responses draw upon simplified models In this volume individual decision making takes central stage by bringing together chapters that demonstrate very different types of decision making frameworks In this project it is highlighted that people move for a variety of reasons such as being affected by conflict and insecurity by economic pressures and by desire for other forms of enrichment Throughout the book s contributors find that events in the Mediterranean cannot be considered alone in understanding migration decision making from Sub Saharan Africa but as part of an increasingly complicated global system not encompassed by one simplified theory or by looking at one regional context in isolation Knowing why individual people are moving and how they decide upon which routes to take can help to ensure policy that promotes safer travel options or makes genuine alternatives to migration available North Africa Yahia H. Zoubir, Haizam Amirah-Fernández, 2008-01-15 This volume provides a comprehensive overview of the contemporary Maghreb Made up of contributions from leading academics in the field it highlights specific issues of importance including international and security affairs With profiles of individual countries and regional issues such as migration gender integration economics and war in Western Sahara as well as a section dealing with international relations and the Maghreb including US and EU foreign policy and security issues North Africa Politics Region and the Limits of Transformation is a major resource for all students of Middle Eastern Studies and North African Politics Feasibility Assessment for a Database on Socio-economic Indicators for Mediterranean Fisheries Ramón Franquesa, Mohammed Malouli Idrissi, José Antonio Alarcón, 2001-01-01 This pilot study on the construction of socio economic indicators was useful in demonstrating the possibilities of developing indicators and of their application for building an understanding of main socio economic trends within a Mediterranean fisheries management unit Revisiting Moroccan Migrations Mohammed Berriane, Hein De Haas, Katharina Natter, 2018-02-02 Over the 20th century Morocco has become one of the world's major emigration countries But since 2000 growing immigration and settlement of migrants from sub Saharan Africa the Middle East and Europe confronts Morocco with an entirely new set of social cultural political and legal issues This book explores how continued emigration and increasing immigration is transforming contemporary Moroccan society with a particular emphasis on the way the Moroccan state is dealing with shifting migratory realities The authors of this collective volume embark on a dialogue between theory and empirical research showcasing how contemporary migration theories help understanding recent trends in Moroccan migration and vice versa how the specific Moroccan case enriches migration theory This perspective helps to overcome the still predominant Western centric research view that artificially divide the world into receiving and sending countries and largely disregards the dynamics of and experiences with migration in countries in the Global South This book was previously published as a special issue of The Journal of North African Studies
