Illuminating The Makers And Interpreters:

Illuminating the Book Michelle P. Brown, Janet Backhouse, Scot McKendrick, 1998 Essays in honour of Janet Backhouse Curator of Illuminated Manuscripts at The British Library reflect her own research interests in the later Middle Ages and Renaissance and in the interaction between English collectors and continental book producers The Art of Allusion Sonja Drimmer, 2018-09-21 At the end of the fourteenth and into the first half of the fifteenth century Geoffrey Chaucer John Gower and John Lydgate translated and revised stories with long pedigrees in Latin Italian and French Royals and gentry alike commissioned lavish manuscript copies of these works copies whose images were integral to the rising prestige of English as a literary language Yet despite the significance of these images manuscript illuminators are seldom discussed in the major narratives of the development of English literary culture The newly enlarged scale of English manuscript production generated a problem namely a need for new images Not only did these images need to accompany narratives that often had no tradition of illustration they also had to express novel concepts including ones as foundational as the identity and suitable representation of an English poet In devising this new corpus manuscript artists harnessed visual allusion as a method to articulate central questions and provide at times conflicting answers regarding both literary and cultural authority Sonja Drimmer traces how just as the poets embraced intertextuality as a means of invention so did illuminators devise new images through referential techniques assembling adapting and combining images from a range of sources in order to answer the need for a new body of pictorial matter Featuring more than one hundred illustrations twenty seven of them in color The Art of Allusion is the first book devoted to the emergence of England's literary canon as a visual as well as a linguistic event Three Plays of Maureen Hunter Hunter, Maureen, 2003 Book is clean and tight No writing in text Like New The Middle English Book Michael Johnston, 2023 A new account of Middle English book production and circulation that analyzes 202 literary manuscripts from late medieval England 1350 1500 to show how the production of documents underscored the wide availability of literary copying Illuminating the Renaissance Thomas Kren, Scot McKendrick, 2003-07-01 This comprehensive and richly illustrated catalogue focuses on the finest illustrated manuscripts produced in Europe during the great epoch in Flemish illumination During this aesthetically fertile period beginning in 1467 with the reign of the Burgundian duke Charles the Bold and ending in 1561 with the death of the artist Simon Bening the art of book painting was raised to a new level of sophistication Sharing inspiration with the celebrated panel painters of the time illuminators achieved astonishing innovations in the handling of color light texture and space creating a naturalistic style that would dominate tastes throughout Europe for nearly a century Centering on the notable artists of the period Simon Marmion the Vienna Master of Mary of Burgundy Gerard David Gerard Horenbout Bening and others the catalogue examines both devotional and secular manuscript illumination within a broad context the place of illuminators within the visual arts including artistic exchange between book painters and panel painters the role of court patronage and the emergence of personal libraries and the international appeal of the new Flemish illumination style Contributors to the catalogue include Maryan W Ainsworth curator of European paintings at the Metropolitan Museum of Art independent scholar Catherine Reynolds and Elizabeth Morrison assistant curator of manuscripts at the Getty Museum Illuminating the Renaissance is published in conjunction with an exhibition organized by the Getty Museum the Royal Academy of Arts London and the British Library to be held at the Getty Museum from June 17 to September 7 2003 and at the Royal Academy of Arts from November 25 2003 to February 22 2004

Studies in Manuscript Illumination, 1200-1400 Lucy Freeman Sandler, 2007-12-31 The author is Helen Gould Sheppard Professor of Art History at New York University Institute of Fine Arts and a leading authority on English medieval manuscript illumination This volume bring together twenty six of Professor Sandler s studies focusing on illustrated manuscripts produced in England in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries particularly on the illuminated psalters The marginal illustrations in these psalters are a topic of particular interest and there are a number of iconographic studies derived from this material A separate section deals with the illustrated encyclopedias of the period particularly the Omne bonum The Guild Book of the Barbers and Surgeons of York (British Library, Egerton MS 2572) Richard D. Wragg, 2021 A new exploration of the secular manuscripts and medieval medical texts associated with the York Guild and its members Produced in 1486 and subsequently augmented the Guild Book of the Barbers and Surgeons of York British Library Egerton MS 2572 is a unique record of the knowledge ambitions activities and civic relationships maintained by the Barbers and Surgeons Guild over a period of 300 years The manuscript s earliest folios contain images astrological tracts a plague treatise and a bloodletting poem To these were added early modern ordinances and oaths a series of royal portraits and the names of the Guild s masters and apprentices It is a rare survival of late medieval medical knowledge placed within a civic context This new multi disciplinary examination of the York Guild Book presents a comprehensive edition of its content and a detailed study of the creation and use of this fascinating manuscript The York Guild Book was not owned by any one person but was intended to be representative of the types of manuscripts the Guild s members might have individually possessed The Guild s commission elevated their manuscript s functional content into something which could be proudly owned and displayed as is demonstrated by the stylishly executed pen and ink drawings two of which are possibly unique Through a contextualisation of the form and content of the manuscript the book articulates ideas about material culture and the ceremonial role of secular manuscripts whilst shedding new light on the dissemination and status of medieval medical texts

Thresholds and Boundaries Lynn F. Jacobs, 2017-09-25 Although liminality has been studied by scholars of medieval and seventeenth century art the role of the threshold motif in Netherlandish art of the late fourteenth fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries this late medieval early early modern period has been much less fully investigated Thresholds and Boundaries Liminality in Netherlandish Art 1385 1550 addresses this issue through a focus on key case studies Sluter s portal of the Chartreuse de Champmol and the calendar pages of the Limbourg Brothers Tr s Riches

Heures and on important formats altarpieces and illuminated manuscripts Lynn F Jacobs examines how the visual thresholds established within Netherlandish paintings sculptures and manuscript illuminations become sites where artists could address relations between life and death aristocrat and peasant holy and profane and man and God and where artists could exploit the betwixt and between nature of the threshold to communicate paradoxically both connections and divisions between these different states and different worlds Building on literary and anthropological interpretations of liminality this book demonstrates how the exploration of boundaries in Netherlandish art infused the works with greater meaning The book s probing of the often ignored meanings of the threshold motif casts new light on key works of Netherlandish art

Excavating the Medieval Image David S. Areford, 2017-11-30 Medieval images especially manuscript illuminations have long been treated independently of the contexts in which they were created These beautiful miniature paintings frequently valued as keepers of documentary evidence or as curious artistic commodities have only recently become the focus of art historians concerned with new questions related to artistic working methods audience and the status of the visual in the Middle Ages and the modern era Excavating the Medieval Image argues that the illuminated image is best understood as thoroughly integrated in the material context of the manuscript and thus integrated in a cultural context of production and reception Seen in this way the illuminated manuscript becomes a kind of archaeological site which must be carefully unearthed layer by layer The fourteen essays gathered here are written by scholars of both medieval and Renaissance art history and demonstrate varied methodological approaches that combine the pursuits of traditional connoisseurship and iconography with those of critical theory and historiography In addition the authors contribute more broadly to important interdisciplinary issues such as the study of gender text and image and the history of literacy and the book The Murthly Hours John Higgitt, British Library, 2000-01-01 Accompanying CD ROM contains digital facsimile of the Murthly Hours with commentary Exploring Written Artefacts Jörg B. Quenzer, 2021-10-25 This collection presented to Michael Friedrich in honour of his academic career at of the Centre for the Study of Manuscript Cultures traces key concepts that scholars associated with the Centre have developed and refined for the systematic study of manuscript cultures At the same time the contributions showcase the possibilities of expanding the traditional subject of manuscripts to the larger perspective of written artefacts Rural Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen, 2012-05-29 Older research on the premodern world limited its focus on the Church the court and more recently on urban space The present volume invites readers to consider the meaning of rural space both in light of ecocritical readings and social historical approaches While previous scholars examined the figure of the peasant in the premodern world the current volume combines a large number of specialized studies that investigate how the natural environment and the appearance of members of the rural population interacted with the world of the court and of the city The experience in rural space was important already for writers and artists in the premodern era as the large variety of scholarly approaches indicates The present volume signals how much the surprisingly close interaction between members of the aristocratic and of the peasant class determined many literary and art historical works In a surprisingly large number of cases we can even discover elements of utopia hidden in rural space We also observe how much the rural world was a significant element already in early medieval mentality Moreover as many authors point out the impact of natural forces on premodern society was tremendous if not catastrophic Art in England Sara N. James,2016-10-31 Art in England fills a void in the scholarship of both English and medieval art by offering the first single volume overview of artistic movements in Medieval and Early Renaissance England Grounded in history and using the chronology of the reign of monarchs as a structure it is contextual and comprehensive revealing unobserved threads of continuity patterns of intention and unique qualities that run through English art of the medieval millennium By placing the English movement in a European context this book brings to light many ingenious innovations that focused studies tend not to recognize and offers a fresh look at the movement as a whole The media studied include architecture and related sculpture both ecclesiastical and secular tomb monuments murals panel paintings altarpieces and portraits manuscript illuminations textiles and art by English artists and by foreign artists commissioned by English patrons Mappae Mundi Michael Fox,Stephen R. Reimer,2008-02 Discover the cultures of Medieval and Early Modern Europe through texts maps and images Illuminated Manuscripts in Cambridge Fitzwilliam Museum,2009 Images, Texts, and Marginalia in a "Vows of the Peacock" Manuscript (New York, Pierpont Morgan Library MS G24) Domenic Leo,2013-08-16 The Vows of the Peacock written in 1312 and dedicated to Thibaut de Bar bishop of Li ge recounts how Alexander the Great comes to the aid of a family of aristocrats threatened by Indians The poem remained popular throughout the fourteenth century and was soon followed by two sequels Twenty six illuminated manuscripts constitute part of a catalogue and concordance of all Peacock manuscripts One of the most provocative PML MS G24 has twenty two miniatures which illustrate chivalry and courtly love as epitomized in the text An unusually high number of scurrilous marginalia however surround them An interdisciplinary exploration of iconography reception image text marginalia dynamics and context reveals their ultimate polysemy as scatological comedians and serious harbingers of sin States and the Making of Others Jeanne Bouyat,Amandine Le Bellec,Lucas Puygrenier,2024-06-17 This volume offers a unique interdisciplinary and comparative perspective on contemporary processes of othering by state institutions in relation to dynamics of racism xenophobia sexism homo transphobia as well as ethnic and class based discriminations It focuses on eight original case studies empirically grounded in various domains of the social state in Southern African and Western European contexts the education and health care systems the regulation of work and of procreation rights and institutions in charge of granting asylum The authors provide key insights on how states produce Others and on how othering contributes in turn to the process of state formation and the politicization of public action Making Sense of New Testament Theology A K M Adam,2005-01-07 Critics have tried to revitalize the discipline of New Testament theology The results of their labors are often disappointing A K M Adam suggests the problems many sense in New Testament theology arise from a mismatch of method and goals That mismatch stems from a preoccupation with modernity as resident in the hallowed halls of regnant historical criticism We need a hermeneutics of theology a hermeneutics of hermeneutics Adam here helps us understand what to keep of the historical critical perspective when the realization hits that we have been sold a bill of goods that no longer makes good on its promises In that sense Adam's book is far more friendly to the historical critical method as such than unfriendly editor's preface The International Interpreter, 1922

Marriage Relationships in Tudor Political Drama Michael A. Winkelman, 2019-07-12 Originally published in 2005 While several recent studies have investigated the political dimensions of sixteenth century English drama until now there has not been a monograph that tells the story of how and why royal marital selection was examined By linking court interludes neoclassical university tragedies and popular plays by late Elizabethan dramatists Christopher Marlowe John Lyly Thomas Kyd and William Shakespeare to the inflammatory topic of Tudor marriage Michael Winkelman demonstrates their cultural centrality This new work interrogates the symbolic allusive and mimetic aspects of marital relationships in such plays Winkelman argues that they were crucial battlegrounds for a series of consequential debates about the future of the monarchy especially during the reigns of the oft married King Henry VIII and his unmarried daughter the Virgin Queen Elizabeth I Marriage as a critically important political metaphor as well as a pressing realpolitik quandary was the subject of major debate in the drama and government of Tudor England Royal conduct in the domestic sphere had a tremendous impact on the entire English social order and in an age before widespread freedom of speech court drama was often the only venue where the voicing of criticism was tolerated The fascinating soap opera story of Tudor marriage thus provides the author with a reference point for an interdisciplinary study of sixteenth century theatre and politics Drawing on evidence from playbooks and historical chronicles as well as contemporary work in gender studies audience response theory and anthropology this book explores how during a time of anxiety inducing change playwrights discussed controversies and propounded remedies theatre played a pivotal role in shaping society
