In Clabical Mood Reflections:

Aesthetic and Philosophical Reflections on Mood Birgit Breidenbach, 2020-04-19 This study explores the concept of Stimmung in literary and philosophical texts of the modern age Signifying both mood and attunement Stimmung speaks to the categories of affective experience and aesthetic design alike The study locates itself in the nexus between discourses on modernity existentialism and aesthetics and uncovers the pivotal role of Stimmung in 19th and 20th century European narrative fiction and continental philosophy The study first explores the philosophical and aesthetic origins and implications of Stimmung to then discuss its role in the narrative fiction of three key authors of modern literature Fyodor Dostoevsky Samuel Beckett and Thomas Bernhard These readings demonstrate a significant shift towards an aesthetic of affective intensity and immediacy in which the experience of the reading process takes centre stage as each author develops an aesthetic philosophy of Stimmung in their own right Through its focus on the concept of Stimmung the study thus unearths a fundamental link between existentialist concerns and narrative practice in modern literature

Rosen, 2004-01-01 This book explores the evolution of space and time from the apeiron the spaceless timeless chaos of primordial nature Rosen examines Western culture s effort to deny apeiron and the critical need now to lift the repression on apeiron for the sake of human individuation from Chaucer to Milton Sanjay Kumar, 2025-02-17 The book is structured to guide students through each poem with a detailed approach that covers essential aspects of poetry analysis Every chapter is organized to facilitate deeper insights into the poem by addressing the following core elements Title and Poet Theme and Subject Matter Structure and Form Rhyme and Meter Language and Diction Literary Devices Tone and Mood Symbolism and Allegory Personal Response Contextual Analysis and Overall Impact This comprehensive methodology ensures that students not only grasp the technical features of the poem but also appreciate its broader literary and historical significance. The journey begins with Geoffrey Chaucer's The Canterbury Tales an unparalleled work of medieval literature that provides a vivid snapshot of 14th century English society Through Chaucer's General Prologue and the character driven narratives like the Wife of Bath's Tale students will explore complex themes such as class gender and morality Chaucer's use of vivid characterization irony and humor offers a unique window into the medieval mindset and will challenge students to engage critically with its social implications Next the book delves into Edmund Spenser's The Faerie Queene Book I a Renaissance epic that combines chivalric romance with profound allegorical meaning Spenser's exploration of virtue justice and the moral conflicts faced by his characters invites readers to reflect on the complex interplay between personal duty and national identity while offering a rich canvas for analysis of meter rhyme and symbolic imagery The collection of poems in this book further includes a variety of works from the Metaphysical poets such as John Donne s The Good Morrow and The Canonization whose intellectual and emotional depth will prompt students to consider the relationship between love spirituality and philosophy Donne s bold use of conceits paradoxes and metaphysical wit challenges conventional poetic forms and provides a fascinating entry point for the study of early modern verse As the book progresses works by poets such as Andrew Marvell To His Coy Mistress and George Herbert The Collar will engage with themes of love time mortality and the tension between earthly and divine pursuits The lyrical beauty of these poems coupled with their intellectual vigor invites students to reflect on the inner conflicts and human desires expressed within Harvard Studies in Classical Philology, 1896 The Teaching of the Prayer Book, etc. John Warter, 2024-04-23 Reprint of the original first published in 1845
