Who's a Good Dog? Jessica Pierce, 2023-09-05 A guide to cultivating a shared life of joy and respect with our dogs Who's a Good Dog is an invitation to nurture more thoughtful and balanced relationships with our canine companions By deepening our curiosity about what our dogs are experiencing and by working together with them in a spirit of collaboration we can become more effective and compassionate caregivers With sympathy for the challenges met by both dogs and their humans bioethicist Jessica Pierce explores common practices of caring for dogs including how we provide exercise what we feed how and why we socialize and train and how we employ tools such as collars and leashes She helps us both to identify potential sources of fear and anxiety in our dogs' lives and to expand practices that provide physical and emotional nourishment Who's a Good Dog also encourages us to think more critically about what we expect of our dogs and how these expectations can set everyone up for success or failure Pierce offers resources to help us cultivate attentiveness and kindness inspiring us to practice the art of noticing of astonishment of looking with fresh eyes at these beings we think we know so well And more than this she makes her findings relatable by examining facets of her relationship with Bella the dog in her life As Bella shows throughout all dogs are good dogs and we as humans and dog guardians could be doing a little bit better to get along with them and give them what they need

The Two-in-one Rod Michalko, 1999 When Rod Michalko's sight finally became so limited that he no longer felt safe on busy city streets or traveling alone he began a search for a guide The Two in One is his account of how his search ended with Smokie a guide dog and a dramatically different sense of blindness Few people who regularly encountered Michalko in his neighborhood shops and cafes realized that he was technically blind like many people with physical disabilities he had found ways of compensating for his impairment Those who knew about his condition thought of him as a fully realized person who just happened to be blind He thought so himself Until Smokie changed all that In this often moving always compelling meditation on his relationship with Smokie Michalko probes into what it means to be at home with blindness Smokie makes no judgment about Michalko's lack of sight it simply is the condition within which they work together Their partnership thus allows Michalko to step outside of the conventional and even enlightened understanding of blindness he becomes not simply resigned to it but able to embrace it as an essential part of his being in the world Drawing on his training as a sociologist and his experience as a disabled person Michalko joins a still small circle of scholars who examine disability from the inside More rare still and what will resonate with most readers is Michalko's remarkable portrayal of Smokie avoiding sentimentality and pathos it is a deeply affectionate yet restrained and nuanced appreciation of his behavior and personality From their first meeting at the dog guide training school Smokie springs to life in these pages as a highly competent sure footed take charge full speed ahead indispensable partner Sighties are always in awe watching them work Michalko has even persuaded some of them that the Smokester can locate street addresses but has a little difficulty with odd numbers Readers of The Two in One can easily imagine Rod and Smokie sharing the joke as they continue on their way Author note Rod Michalko is Adjunct Professor of Sociology Department of Anthropology and Sociology St Francis Xavier University The Sportsman's Gazetteer and General Guide Charles Hallock,1878 The Dog Fancier Eugene Glass,1920 Best Dog Hikes Northern California David Mullally,2014-06-17 This guidebook reveals the 51 best hiking trails in northern California that are dog friendly Throughout are full color maps and photos helpful tips and sidebars and tailored hike specs for leash requirements Also included is information about dog packing and preparation before you hit the trail The area covers northern California to the Oregon border with the southernmost part including Big Sur and east across to Bishop CA Foundations of Orientation and Mobility William R.
