Key Themes in Qualitative Research Paul Atkinson, Amanda Coffey, Sara Delamont, 2003 The current state of qualitative research methodological writing and practices of ethnography are in danger of losing basic necessary continuities argue a team of sociologists from Cardiff U UK They further suggest that many of the controversies viewed as new by postmodernists and others have already been recognized by earlier sociologists They explore these issues setting forth their own views on such matters as autoethnography participation observation and styles of reporting The SAGE Handbook of Interview Research Jaber F. Gubrium, James A. Holstein, Amir B. Marvasti, Karyn D. McKinney, 2012-02-14 The new edition of this landmark volume emphasizes the dynamic interactional and reflexive dimensions of the research interview Contributors highlight the myriad dimensions of complexity that are emerging as researchers increasingly frame the interview as a communicative opportunity as much as a data gathering format The book begins with the history and conceptual transformations of the interview which is followed by chapters that discuss the main components of interview practice Taken together the contributions to The SAGE Handbook of Interview Research The Complexity of the Craft encourage readers simultaneously to learn the frameworks and technologies of interviewing and to reflect on the epistemological foundations of The SAGE Handbook of Innovation in Social Research Methods Malcolm Williams.W Paul the interview craft Vogt, 2011-04-19 Social research is a bourgeoning field Of course it has many traditions and approaches but there is a high premium upon thinking differently and thinking anew because social life is never static or wholly predictable The Handbook edited by internationally recognized scholars provides a comprehensive pitch perfect critical assessment of the field The main features of the Handbook are Clear organization into 4 parts dealing with The Social Context of Research Design and Data Collection Integrating The Analysis of New Data Types Sampling Inference and Measurement Clear cutting edge chapters on Objectivity Causation Organizing Social Research Correspondence Analysis Grounded Theory Conversational Surveys Mixed Methods Meta Analysis Optimal Matching Analysis GIS Analysis Quantitative Narrative Analysis Longitudinal Studies SEM MLM Qualitative Comparative Analysis Respondent Driven Sampling Brings together a glittering assembly of the key figures working in the field of research methods Demonstrates the continuities and productive tensions between classical traditions and real world research The result is a superbly organized text which will be required reading for anyone interested in the routes and future of social research It is an unparalleled teaching resource and a must have for serious Spoilt for Choice: How senior managers select professional advisors Wienke Seeger, 2019-11-04 social researchers How do senior executives such as CEOs and CFOs interact select and appoint professional advisors Based on a successful PhD project the research in this book explores the interactions between advisors of large professional service firms and senior executive clients on an evidence based academic level The research journey and the author's reflections are charted step by step providing an example of how to analyse unstructured qualitative data reach theoretical saturation and capture emerging substantive theories Moreover by taking a unique holistic and inductive approach this study offers a series of practical insights on how to combine and apply Kathy Charmaz constructivist grounded theory with an auto ethnographic stance Divided into eight chapters the author uses empirical data and rigorous analysis to uncover two distinct decision making processes namely a the client's decision to develop and maintain a relationship with the advisor and b to select and appoint the advisor for a particular project or services Mapping these to one common conceptual framework a second complementary model emerges a type of decision making matrix with the foci competitiveness skills and merit continuity and embeddedness control and manage and trust and empathy which offers the reader an alternative perspective of client decision making This book will be useful for practitioners and researchers alike who have an interest in understanding either naturalistic decision making processes the complexities of relationship development and procurement dynamics as well as applied qualitative research methods Educators of the Mediterranean... ... Up Close and Personal Ronald G Sultana, 2012-01-01 A score of prominent educators from South Europe and the Middle East and North Africa region speak about their upbringing their educational and professional journeys their academic achievements and their struggles in order to enhance democracy justice and equity in their countries and across the Mediterranean The interviews in this volume shed light on educational movements challenges and aspirations in a region that is attaining increasing importance geo politically and in comparative and international studies These are powerful and critical voices providing readers with fresh often unexpected insights about contexts cultures and convictions that deserve global attention The interviews with these men and women inform intrique but above all inspire calling as they do for an earnest commitment to a vision of education as a transformative democratising force In contrast to the global totalising discourse that has increasingly defined education in narrowly economistic terms here are the beginnings of alternative agendas inviting citizens to read and decode the world around them and to confront power wherever it lies In doing so the educators in this volume draw upon and put at our disposal a wide array of theoretical lenses nimbly weaving these within a narrative that speaks about a lifetime lived in the hope of making a difference These then are vivid engaging and reflexive accounts emerging from contexts where democracy has only recently taken root if at all and from a region that has come to symbolize the return of the political and the reclaiming of the public sphere as a site for transformation contestation revolt and hope Reconsidering Inclusion Alison Ekins, 2016-09-13 Informed by research undertaken on the reality of developing inclusive practices in schools and years of practitioner experience in the field of education Reconsidering Inclusion shows how staff s social and emotional relationships can sustain and build inclusive practices Providing engaging discussion of key findings and themes central to the practitioner encouraging them to critically engage in developing inclusive practices in their schools readers will find reflective questions about their practice and examples of key competing perspectives to enhance deeper understanding Ekins presents authentic accounts and discussions of the reality of developing inclusive practices as experienced and explained by teachers faced with the responsibility of enacting those practices The book concludes with a discussion on achievable implications for practice both at a personal and professional level Reconsidering Inclusion is suitable for all those interested in inclusive practice and provides a much needed critical insight into inclusive practices in schools Informal Urban Agriculture Michael Hardman, Peter J. Larkham, 2014-10-01 The book explores how unused and under used urban spaces from grass verges roundabouts green spaces have been made more visually interesting and more productive by informal and usually illegal groups known as guerrilla gardeners. The book focuses on groups in the English Midlands but the work is set in a broad international context and reveals how and why they undertake this illegal activity Guerrilla gardening is usually viewed uncritically and promoted as a worthwhile activity this study provides a more balanced evaluation and focuses on its contribution in terms of local food production Academic and Research Literacy Practices of Final Year Teacher Trainees in Luanda, Angola Celeste Sambeny, 2016-06-22 Academic and Research Literacy Practices of Final Year Teacher Trainees in Luanda Angola presents a detailed study of students and lecturers at higher teacher training institutions where English is taught as a medium of instruction and specialisation As such the book will help raise the awareness of educators teachers and supervisors of the need to be more supportive to students and will highlight the importance of increased responsibility on the part of the students regarding their studies especially during the process of writing their research reports Practical experience has shown that in most classrooms students are typically asked to produce texts for one single audience namely the teacher or the lecturer who already knows what constitutes an acceptable response However in many classrooms teachers and lecturers tend to believe that literacy can be defined as the ability to encode and decode texts the ability to decipher the main idea of a reading passage or to write a text that obeys the general conventions of language usage such as syntax organisation and idea development The central argument of this book however is that at higher levels of the educational system in Angola academic and research literacy practices are at best guestionable and at worst harmful An extensive re evaluation of assumptions regarding student capability and what it means to be a literate in the twenty first century information society is of critical importance Such a re examination allows for extensive reflection on current practices and a powerful critique of traditional academic and research literacy methods and suggests ways in which practices of quality teaching and learning may be implemented Situational Analysis in Practice Adele E. Clarke, Rachel Washburn, Carrie Friese, Adele E Clarke, 2016-07-01 Situational Analysis creates analytic maps of social processes and relationships identified using grounded theory Creator of the method award winning sociologist Adele E Clarke and two co editors show how the method can be and has been used in a variety of critical qualitative studies. The book Updates the basic concepts and methods of situational analysis a methodology created by Clarke Provides five important case studies of its use in a variety of health and educational settings Offers reflections from the original researchers on the studies and their impact Includes lists of published articles and available websites focused on situational analysis Handbook of Constructionist

Research James A. Holstein, Jaber F. Gubrium, 2013-10-21 Constructionism has become one of the most popular research approaches in the social sciences But until now little attention has been given to the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of the constructionist stance and the remarkable diversity within the field This cutting edge handbook brings together a dazzling array of scholars to review the foundations of constructionist research how it is put into practice in multiple disciplines and where it may be headed in the future The volume critically examines the analytic frameworks strategies of inquiry and methodological choices that together form the mosaic of contemporary constructionism making it an authoritative reference for anyone interested in conducting research in a constructionist vein Interpretive Research Design Peregrine Schwartz-Shea, Dvora Yanow, 2013-06-17 Research design is fundamental to all scientific endeavors at all levels and in all institutional settings In many social science disciplines however scholars working in an interpretive qualitative tradition get little guidance on this aspect of research from the positivist centered training they receive This book is an authoritative examination of the concepts and processes underlying the design of an interpretive research project Such an approach to design starts with the recognition that researchers are inevitably embedded in the intersubjective social processes of the worlds they study In focusing on researchers theoretical ontological epistemological and methods choices in designing research projects Schwartz Shea and Yanow set the stage for other volumes in the Routledge Series on Interpretive Methods They also engage some very practical issues such as ethics reviews and the structure of research proposals This concise guide explores where research questions come from criteria for evaluating research designs how interpretive researchers engage with world making context systematicity and flexibility reflexivity and positionality and such contemporary issues as data archiving and the researcher's body in the field Red Stamps and Gold Stars Sarah Turner, 2013-06-01 Red Stamps and Gold Stars brings together all the messiness compromise and ethical dilemmas that underscore fieldwork in upland socialist Asia and elsewhere in the Global South These challenges can range from how to gain research access to politically sensitive border regions to helping informants turned friends access appropriate health care to reflections on how to best represent ethnic minority voices The volume s contributors accomplished geographers anthropologists and ethnohistorians foreground the importance of questioning one's subjective gaze and of debating representations of the other Autoethnography Tony E. Adams, Stacy Holman Jones, Carolyn Ellis, 2014-10-01 Autoethnography is a method of research that involves describing and analyzing personal experiences in order to understand cultural experiences The method challenges canonical ways of doing research and recognizes how personal experience influences the research process Autoethnography acknowledges and accomodates subjectivity emotionality and the researcher's influence on research In this book the authors provide a historical and conceptual overview of autoethnography They share their stories of coming to autoethnography and identify key concerns and considerations that led to the development of the method Next they outline the purposes and practices the core ideals of autoethnography how autoethnographers can accomplish these ideals and why researchers might choose to do autoethnography They describe the processes of doing autoethnography conducting fieldwork discussing ethics in research and interpreting and analyzing personal experience and they explore the various modes and techniques used and involved in writing autoethnography They conclude with goals for creating and assessing autoethnography and describe the future of autoethnographic inquiry Throughout the authors provide numerous examples of their work and share key resources This book will serve as both a guide to the practices of doing autoethnography and an exemplar of autoethnographic research processes and Interpretation and Method Dvora Yanow, Peregrine Schwartz-Shea, 2015-03-04 Exceptionally clear and representations well written chapters provide engaging discussions of the methods of accessing generating and analyzing social science data using methods ranging from reflexive historical analysis to critical ethnography Reflecting on their own research experiences the contributors offer an inside applied perspective on how research topics evidence and methods intertwine to produce knowledge in the social sciences E-Marketing: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2012-05-31 The popularity of e marketing has helped both small and large businesses to get their products and services message to an unbounded number of potential clients Keeping in contact with your customers no longer require an extended period of time but rather mere seconds E Marketing Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications presents a vital compendium of research detailing the latest case studies architectures frameworks methodologies and research on e marketing With contributions from authors around the world this three volume collection presents the most sophisticated research and developments from the field relevant to researchers academics and practitioners alike In order to stay abreast of the latest research this book affords a vital look into electronic marketing Pandemic Perspectives on the Irish Diaspora in Germany Margaret Haverty, 2024-09-10 This book reflects on research how the pandemic impacted upon qualitative social research but also how it affected the lives of the members of the Irish diaspora on the European continent The crisis acted as a pressure cooker for those living abroad transforming distance and migration situations to resemble times gone by when travel was far more prohibitive and emigration felt more permanent At the same time expat lives were being thrown headlong into a new future shaped more profoundly than ever by digital means This work is a close examination of how Irish migrants in Germany construct their Irishness and in doing so maintain their belonging to Ireland across a geographic distance transformed by the pandemic This work seeks to draw out the underlying patterns and meanings in the day to day practices of Irishness by members of Ireland's putative diaspora in Germany by interweaving a multitude of ethnographic vignettes and rich interview material with relevant and interestingtheoretical concepts Interlocutors see Ireland as a site of personal memory good bad and in between and of meaning making practices Ireland is deeply personal to them that understood their practices of belonging to Ireland are nonetheless embroiled in the political goal of making Ireland visible abroad Solving for X in the Y Domain Gae Walters PhD,2017-11-30 Increasingly albeit in small numbers women are overcoming the forces that have prevented qualified women from entering the executive suites of organizations However very little is known about the strategies for overcoming gendered obstacles and reaching senior executive roles particularly in male dominated fields In Solving for X in the Y Domain sixteen women who are leaders in the fields of science technology engineering and mathematics STEM describe their experiences with overcoming gender based barriers to reaching senior level leadership positions and they share these strategies and skills with other aspiring women This study adds a new dimension to the body of knowledge by describing womens strategies behaviors and skills for overcoming gender bias and backlash with the differentiating aspect of this study being a focus on women who have empowered themselves to seek and to find strategies and behaviors that enabled them to surmount the specific obstacles they encountered Their detailed accounts incorporate extensive layers of situational facts as well as their feelings impressions perceptions thoughts and reactions Women leaders experiences in the use of buffering behaviorsself management impression management political skill and performanceprovide a template of behaviors to successfully mitigate the effects of gender based barriers These inspiring professional women did not give up they did not quit and they were tenacious in the face of disheartening and demoralizing situations On occasion they become discouraged angry incensed and frustrated However they continued to direct their energies and their intellects toward solving for X in the Y domain

Using Social Theory in Educational Research Mark Dressman, 2009-05-07 Using Social Theory in Educational Research is organised to help practising educators and novice researchers who have little familiarity with social theory to be introduced to major schools of social theory their basic concepts and their general applicability to educational issues develop an understanding of and appreciation for its potential to improve their own practice gain practical insight into how theory can function as a warrant or support for data interpretation through the use of multiple practical examples learn how to integrate theory into their own work more effectively Selected Contents 1 Getting Theoretical 2 An Illustrated Tour of How Theory Works and Doesn t Work in Educational Research 3 Framing Research Theoretically Part One Planning and Data Collection 4 Framing Research Theoretically 5 When Research Meets Research Situational Analysis Adele E. Clarke, Carrie Friese, Rachel S. Washburn, 2017-07-20 The Second Edition offers an innovative extension of grounded theory useful in qualitative research projects that draws on interviews observations and visual narrative and historical discourse materials To engage the dense complexities of real world situations Situational Analysis SA braids together Strauss s ecological social worlds arenas theory Foucault's discourse analysis and Deleuze and Guattari's rhizomes and assemblages The book will serve as an invaluable resource for advanced undergraduate and graduate level students as well as professional researchers and consultants from diverse backgrounds pursuing qualitative projects Going to the People Jeffrey Veidlinger, 2016-02-22 A remarkable achievement demonstrating the vitality of Jewish folklore and ethnographic studies a hundred years after An sky's pioneering expedition Folklore Taking S An sky's expeditions to the Pale of Jewish Settlement as its point of departure the volume explores the dynamic and many sided nature of ethnographic knowledge and the long and complex history of the production and consumption of Jewish folk traditions. These essays by historians anthropologists musicologists and folklorists showcase some of the finest research in the field. They reveal how the collection analysis and preservation of ethnography intersect with questions about the construction and delineation of community the preservation of Jewishness the meaning of belief the significance of retrieving cultural heritage the politics of accessing and memorializing lost cultures and the problem of narration among other topics. Going to the People proves itself a useful addition to scholarship on Jewish folklore and ethnography by introducing major issues in these fields as well as the historical figures and contemporary scholars who have shaped and continue to shape their development. Western Folklore This book is essays portray the various threads and trends in Jewish ethnography in Poland and Soviet Russia the US the new Jewish State of Israel and eventually in postcommunist societies. The endurance and evolution of Jewish folk culture is analyzed using techniques applicable to all groups and communities. Recommended Choice I read through this collection with pleasure and fascination. These are valuable voices that should be heard Gabriella Safran Stanford University. This volume brings together some of the most innovative research in the field Eugene Avrutin author of Photographing the Jewish Nation Pictures from S An sky is Ethnographic Expeditions.
