Patt, Michael Berkowitz, 2010 Collects groundbreaking research on displaced persons DPs in Europe in the period after World War II and before the establishment of Israel By the spring of 1947 less than two years after Nazi Germany's defeat some 250 000 Jewish refugees remained in the displaced persons camps of Germany Italy and Austria Yet many Jews did not know whether to return to their home countries or move on to someplace else As a result these stateless displaced persons DPs created a unique space for political cultural and social rebirth that was tempered by the complications of overcoming recent trauma In We Are Here editors Avinoam J. Patt and Michael Berkowitz present current research on DPs between the end of the war and the creation of the State of Israel in order to present a more complete and nuanced picture of the DP experience challenging many earlier assumptions about this group Contributors to this volume analyze art music and literature of the DPs as well as historical records of specific DP communities to explore the first reactions of survivors to liberation and their understanding of place in the context of postwar Germany and in Europe more generally A number of the contributions in this volume challenge prior interpretations of Jewish DPs and Holocaust survivors including the supposedly unified background of the DP population the notion of a general reluctance to confront the past the idea of Zionism as an inevitable success after the war and the suggestion that Jews despite their presence in Germany strenuously avoided contact with Germans Far from constituting a monolithic whole then We Are Here demonstrates that the DPs were composed of diverse groups with disparate wartime experiences Responding to burgeoning scholarship on DPs and related issues We Are Here sifts through the copious records DPs left behind to shed light on the many facets of a vibrant DP society Scholars of the Holocaust and all readers concerned with the Jewish experience immediately after World War II will be grateful for this volume To Be an Actress Nava Shean, 2010-04-13 In To Be an Actress Nava Shean tells about her life on the stage from children's theater in Prague to traveling theater in the Czech countryside to performances of prisoners in Terezin concentration camp to Israel's national theater Munich State theater and her one woman shows The common theme that runs through the memoir is Ms Shean's passion for the theater and her dedication to acting despite excruciating circumstances The memoir provides first hand account of life in Terezin concentration camp and the incredible artistic activity under the shadow of the transports to the death camps It also portrays the author's reconnection with her Jewish heritage against the background of her family's assimilation Upon her arrival in Israel in 1948 Ms Shean took part in the development of the Israeli theater an alliance that continued into the 1980s and culminated in her one woman show Requiem in Terezin Bach's Most Beautiful Melodies

Patt argues that Zionism was highly successful in filling a positive function for young displaced persons in the aftermath of the Holocaust because it provided a secure environment for vocational training education rehabilitation and a sense of family One of the foremost expressions of Zionist affiliation on the part of surviving Jewish youths after the war was the choice to live in kibbutzim organized within displaced persons camps in Germany and Poland or even on estates of former Nazi leaders By the summer of 1947 there were close to 300 kibbutzim in the American zone of occupied Germany with over 15 000 members as well as 40 agricultural training settlements hakhsarot with over 3 000 members Ultimately these young people would be called upon to assist the state of Israel in the fighting that broke out in 1948 Patt argues that for many of the youth who joined the kibbutzim of the Zionist youth movements and journeyed to Israel it was the search for a new home that ultimately brought them to a new homeland From publisher description O Jerusalem! Larry Collins,Dominique Lapierre,2007-09-04 The classic story and spellbinding events of the birth of Israel is now available in a mass market paperback American Jewish Archives ,1988 Billboard ,1950-11-18 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends The Marine Corps Gazette ,1980 Biography News ,1975 A Complete Concordance to the Book of Mormon George Reynolds,1900 Present Tense ,1974 The magazine of world Jewish affairs
