La Tribu Roman:

La Tribu Christian Lehmann, 1990 Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature's distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora Philosophy and Arts in the Islamic World Union européenne des arabisants et islamisants. Congress, 1998 The volume contains 26 contributions to literature philosophy linguistics and epigraphy in Islamic culture ranging from pre Islamic poetry to contemporary prose from the Ihwan as Safa to the theology of Mawdudi from lexicography to epigraphy These papers were read at the Eighteenth International Congress of the Union Européenne des Arabisants et Islamisants organized by the Catholic University of Leuven KUL from 3 to 10 September 1996 A second volume of proceedings that appears along with this one OLA 86 is more concerned with questions of actuality and political organisation including Christian minorities in the Arab world in their relation to the Muslim environment As such the two volumes put together will provide to the world of learning we may say an overall picture of the current scientific investigations about Islamic culture and society New World Myth Marie Vautier, 1998-01-06 There is an emphasis on de constructing de centring de stabilizing and especially de mythologizing in the study that illustrates New World myth narrators questioning the past in the present and carrying out their original investigations of myth place and identity Underlining the fact that political realities are encoded in the language and narrative of the works Vautier argues that the reworkings of literary religious and historical myths and political ideologies in these novels are grounded in their shared situation of being in and of the New World , La Tribu Zaharia Stancu, 1970 Roman Arabia Glen Warren Bowersock, 1994 The Roman province of Arabia occupied a crucial corner of the Mediterranean world encompassing most of what is now Jordan southern Syria northwest Saudi Arabia and the Negev Mr Bowersock's book is the first authoritative history of the region from the fourth century B C to the age of Constantine The book opens with the arrival of the Nabataean Arabs in their magnificent capital at Petra and describes the growth of their hellenized culture based on trade in perfume and spices It traces the transformation of the region from an Arab kingdom under Roman influence into an imperial province one that played an increasingly important role in the Roman strategy for control of the Near East While the primary emphasis is on the relations of the Arabs of the region with the Romans their interactions with neighboring states Jewish Egyptian and Syrian are also stressed The narrative concludes with the breakup of the Roman province at the start of the Byzantine age

Connected Histories of the Roman Civil Wars (88-30 BCE) David García Domínguez, Juan García González, Federico Santangelo, 2024-11-04 This book offers a distinctive take on the civil wars that unfolded in the Late Roman Republic It frames their discussion against the backdrop of the Mediterranean contexts in which they were fought and sets out to bring to the centre of the debate the significance of provincial agency on a traumatic and complex process which cannot be understood through an exclusive focus on Roman and Italian developments The study of the late Republican civil wars can be productively read as an exercise of connected history in which the fundamental interdependence of the Mediterranean world comes to the fore through a set of case studies that await to be understood through a properly integrative approach Our project brings together an international and diverse lineup of scholars who engage with a wide range of literary documentary and archaeological material and make a collective contribution to the reframing of a problem that requires a collaborative and interdisciplinary outlook and can yield invaluable insights to the understanding of the Roman imperial project The Institution of Property Charles Reinold Noyes, 2007 Reprint of the sole edition This is an important erudite and difficult book The author who is of the school of institutional economists has undertaken to analyze the structure only of that particular social organization and institution which is called property not merely in its legal aspects but also with respect to the underlying economic facts of the institution today Those who will make the effort requisite to an understanding of this book will be well repaid Sidney Post Simpson Harvard Law Review 49 1935 36 1211 16 Home Words Mavis

Reimer, 2009-08-01 The essays in Home Words explore the complexity of the idea of home through various theoretical lenses and groupings of texts One focus of this collection is the relation between the discourses of nation which often represent the nation as home and the discourses of home in children's literature which variously picture home as a dwelling family town or region psychological comfort and a place to start from and return to These essays consider the myriad ways in which discourses of home underwrite both children's and national literatures Home Words reconfigures the field of Canadian children's literature as it is usually represented by setting the study of English and French language texts side by side and by paying sustained attention to the diversity of work by Canadian writers for children including both Aboriginal peoples and racialized Canadians It builds on the literary histories bibliographical essays and biographical criticism that have dominated the scholarship to date and sets out to determine and establish new directions for the study of Canadian children's literature

The Military and Colonial Destruction of the Roman Landscape of North Africa, 1830-1900 Michael Greenhalgh,2014-05-08 The French invaded Algeria in 1830 and found a landscape rich in Roman remains which they proceeded to re use to support the constructions such as fortresses barracks and hospitals needed to fight the natives who continued to object to their presence and to house the various colonisation projects with which they intended to solidify their hold on the country and to make it both modern and profitable Arabs and Berbers had occasionally made use of the ruins but it was still a Roman and Early Christian landscape when the French arrived In the space of two generations this was destroyed just as were many ancient remains in France in part because real architecture was Greek not Roman
