Going Native:

Going Native Shari M. Huhndorf, 2015-01-26 Since the 1800s many European Americans have relied on Native Americans as models for their own national racial and gender identities. Displays of this impulse include world's fairs, fraternal organizations and films such as Dances with Wolves. Shari M. Huhndorf uses cultural artifacts such as these to examine the phenomenon of going native, showing its complex relations to social crises in the broader American society, including those posed by the rise of industrial capitalism, the completion of the military conquest of Native America, and feminist and civil rights activism. Huhndorf looks at several modern cultural manifestations of the desire of European Americans to emulate Native Americans. Some are quite pervasive, as is clear from the continuing, if controversial, existence of fraternal organizations for young and old which rely upon Indian costumes and rituals. Another fascinating example is the process by which Arctic travelers went Eskimo, as Huhndorf describes in her readings of Robert Flaherty's travel narrative My Eskimo Friends and his documentary film Nanook of the North. Huhndorf asserts that European Americans' appropriation of Native identities is not a thing of the past and she takes a skeptical look at the tribes beloved of New Age devotees. Going Native shows how even seemingly harmless images of Native Americans can articulate and reinforce a range of power relations, including slavery, patriarchy, and the continued oppression of Native Americans. Huhndorf reconsiders the cultural importance and political implications of the history of the impersonation of Indian identity in light of continuing debates over race, gender, and colonialism in American culture. Going Native in Murcia Debbie Jenkins, Marcus Jenkins, 2012

EVERYTHING YOU EVER WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT THE MURCIA REGION Full of useful tips straight from a British couple who now call this region their home. Let Debbie and Marcus be your guides as they share their love for Murcia, its people, and its surrounds with intimate details, personal stories, and hot tips for visitors, home buyers, and new natives alike. This third edition has been carefully revised and is packed full of 300% more information, including all town guides and selected maps. Going Native in Murcia, the most comprehensive guide in print, is now even better. Empire Islands

Rebecca Weaver-Hightower, 2007 Through a detailed unpacking of the castaway genre's appeal in English literature, Empire Islands forwards our understanding of the sociopsychology of British Empire. Rebecca Weaver-Hightower argues convincingly that by helping generations of readers to make sense of and perhaps feel better about imperial aggression, the castaway story in effect enabled the expansion and maintenance of European empire. Empire Islands asks why so many colonial authors chose islands as the setting for their stories of imperial adventure and why so many postcolonial writers write back to those island castaway narratives. Drawing on insightful readings of works from Thomas More's Utopia to Caribbean novels like George Lamming's Water with Berries, from canonical works such as Robinson Crusoe and The Tempest to the lesser-known A Narrative of the Life and Astonishing Adventures of John Daniel by Ralph Morris, Weaver-Hightower examines themes of cannibalism, piracy, monstrosity, imperial aggression, and the concept of going native. Ending with analysis of contemporary film and the role of the United States in global neoimperialism Weaver Hightower exposes how island narratives continue not only to describe but to justify colonialism Rebecca Weaver Hightower is assistant professor of English and postcolonial studies at the University of North Dakota The Latinx Files Matthew David Goodwin,2021-05-14 In The Latinx Files Matthew David Goodwin traces how Latinx science fiction writers are reclaiming the space alien from its xenophobic legacy in the science fiction genre The book argues that the space alien is a vital Latinx figure preserving Latinx cultures by activating the myriad possible constructions of the space alien to represent race and migration in the popular imagination The works discussed in this book including those of H G Wells Gloria Anzald a Junot Diaz Andr M Carrington and many others often explicitly reject the derogatory correlation of the space alien and Latinxs while at other times they contain space aliens that function as a source of either enlightenment or horror for Latinx communities Throughout this nuanced analysis The Latinx Files demonstrates how the character of the space alien has been significant to Latinx communities and has great potential for future writers and artists Seeking an Alliance , The Mythic Indian James Boucher,2024-05-29 The Mythic Indian The Native in French and Qu b cois Cultural Imaginaries charts a genealogy of French and Qu b cois visions of the Amerindian Tracing an evolution of paradigms from the sixteenth century to present it examines how the myths of the Noble Ignoble and Ecological Savage as well as the Vanishing Indian and Going Native inform a variety of discourses and ways of thinking about Qu b cois culture By analyzing mythic depictions of the Native Figure that originate at first contacts this book demonstrates that an inextricable link exists between discourses as disparate as literature and science This book will be of interest to scholars in French Studies Francophone Studies Indigenous Studies Hemispheric Studies Social Sciences and Literary Studies Shamans/neo-Shamans Robert J. Wallis,2003 Robert J Wallis explores the interface between the new and prehistoric shamans of popular culture and anthropology drawing on interviews with a variety of practitioners particularly contemporary pagans in Britain and north America Taming Cannibals Patrick Brantlinger,2011-09-16 In Taming Cannibals Patrick Brantlinger unravels contradictions embedded in the racist and imperialist ideology of the British Empire For many Victorians the idea of taming cannibals or civilizing savages was oxymoronic civilization was a goal that the nonwhite peoples of the world could not attain or at best could only approximate yet the civilizing mission was viewed as the ultimate justification for imperialism Similarly the supposedly unshakeable certainty of Anglo Saxon racial superiority was routinely undercut by widespread fears about racial degeneration through contact with lesser races or concerns that Anglo Saxons might be superseded by something superior an even fitter or higher race or species Brantlinger traces the development of those fears through close readings of a wide range of texts including Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe Fiji and the Fijians by Thomas Williams Daily Life and Origin of the Tasmanians by James Bonwick The Descent of Man by Charles Darwin Heart of Darkness by Joseph Conrad Culture and Anarchy by Matthew Arnold She by H Rider Haggard and The War of the Worlds by H G Wells Throughout the wide ranging capacious and rich

The Dialogical Spirit Amos Yong, 2015-04-30 Contemporary proposals for Christian theology from post liberalism to Radical Orthodoxy and beyond have espoused their own methodological paradigms Those who have ventured into this domain of theological method however have usually had to stake their claims vis a vis trends in what may be called the contemporary post al age whether of the post modern post Christendom post Enlightenment post Western or post colonial varieties This volume is unique among offerings in this arena in suggesting a way forward that engages on each of these fronts and does so from a particularistic Christian perspective without giving up on Christian theology's traditional claims to universality This is accomplished through the articulation of a distinctive dialogical methodology informed by both Pentecostalism and Evangelicalism one rooted in the Christian salvation history narrative of Incarnation and Pentecost that is yet open to the world in its many and various cultural ethnic religious and disciplinary discourses Amos Yong here engages with twelve different interlocutors representing different ecumenical religious and disciplinary perspectives The Dialogical Spirit thus not only proffers a model for Christian theological method suitable for the twenty first century global context but also exemplifies this methodological approach through its interactions across the contemporary scholarly inter religious and theological landscape

Network Sovereignty Marisa Elena Duarte, 2017-07-11 In 2012 the United Nations General Assembly determined that affordable Internet access is a human right critical to citizen participation in democratic governments Given the significance of information and communication technologies ICTs to social and political life many U S tribes and Native organizations have created their own projects from streaming radio to building networks to telecommunications advocacy In Network Sovereignty Marisa Duarte examines these ICT projects to explore the significance of information flows and information systems to Native sovereignty and toward self governance self determination and decolonization By reframing how tribes and Native organizations harness these technologies as a means to overcome colonial disconnections Network

Sovereignty shifts the discussion of information and communication technologies in Native communities from one of exploitation to one of Indigenous possibility
