Labours Of Hercules Greenway Edition:

The Labours of Hercules Agatha Christie, 1967 True Crime Parallels to the Mysteries of Agatha Christie Anne Powers, 2020-02-28 Outsold only by the Bible and Shakespeare the works of Agatha Christie stand as some of the most celebrated crime fiction of our era This book takes ten of her most famous works and shows their relationship to ten of crime history s most famous and sensational cases cases whose notoriety still resounds to this day Addressing both novels and short stories the author illuminates the relationship between Christie s Murder on the Orient Express and the sensational Lindbergh Kidnapping Case of 1932 the connections between Christie s Mrs McGinty s Dead and the horrific true case of England s most loathed wife killer the American Dr Hawley Harvey Crippen and eight more engrossing pairings of Christie s ingenious mystery puzzles with vintage true crime s most sensational events The Gentle Art of Murder Earl F. Bargainnier, 1980 This study of the technique of Agatha Christie s detective fiction sixty seven novels and over one hundred short stories is the first extensive analysis of her accomplishment as a writer Earl F Bargannier demonstrates that Christie thoroughly understood the conventions of her genre and with seemingly inexhaustible ingenuity was able to develop for more than fifty years surprising variations within those conventions How Institutions Think Mary Douglas, 1986-06-01 Do institutions think If so how do they do it Do they have minds of their own If so what thoughts occupy these suprapersonal minds Mary Douglas delves into these questions as she lays the groundwork for a theory of institutions Usually the human reasoning process is explained with a focus on the individual mind her focus is on culture Using the works of Emile Durkheim and Ludwik Fleck as a foundation How Institutions Think intends to clarify the extent to which thinking itself is dependent upon institutions Different kinds of institutions allow individuals to think different kinds of thoughts and to respond to different emotions It is just as difficult to explain how individuals come to share the categories of their thought as to explain how they ever manage to sink their private interests for a common good Douglas forewarns us that institutions do not think independently nor do they have purposes nor can they build themselves As we construct our institutions we are squeezing each other s ideas into a common shape in order to prove their legitimacy by sheer numbers She admonishes us not to take comfort in the thought that primitives may think through institutions but moderns decide on important issues individually Our legitimated institutions make major decisions and these decisions always involve ethical principles National Union Catalog , 1982 Includes entries for maps and atlases Agatha Christie Agatha Christie, 2021-08-03 From Poirot to Miss Marple from The Mousetrap to Witness for the Prosecution this a fascinating look at the life and work of Agatha Christie the world s most successful and popular crime writer Agatha Christie was not only the most successful author of detective stories the world has ever known she was also a mystery in herself giving only the rarest interviews declining absolutely to become any sort of public figure and a mystery too in the manner in which she achieved her astonishing success Distinguished crime novelist and acclaimed critic H R F Keating brings together a dozen noted writers from both sides of the Atlantic to throw light on the ever intriguing Dame Agatha Some essays analyze Christie s art itself some explain the reasons for her success not just the books but also in film and theatre The myriad of critical angles explored here are penetrating affectionate enthusiastic analytical and even funny Together they give an almost unique insight into the life and work of the First Lady of Crime Includes essays by Sophie Hannah H R F Keating Elizabeth Walter Julian Symons Edmund Crispin Michael Gilbert Emma Lathen Colin Watson Celia Fremlin Dorothy B Hughes J C Trewin Philip Jenkinson William Weaver and Christianna Brand
