The Feminine Gaze Anne Innis Dagg, 2006-01-01 Many Canadian women fiction writers have become justifiably famous But what about women who have written non fiction When Anne Innis Dagg set out on a personal quest to make such non fiction authors better known she expected to find just a few dozen To her delight she unearthed 473 writers who have produced over 674 books These women describe not only their country and its inhabitants but a remarkable variety of other subjects from the story of transportation to the legacy of Canadian missionary activity around the world While most of the writers lived in what is now Canada other authors were British or American travellers who visited Canada throughout the years and reported on what they found here This compendium has brief biographies of all these women short descriptions of their books and a comprehensive index of their books subject matters The Feminine Gaze A Canadian Compendium of Non Fiction Women Authors and Their Books 1836 1945 will be an invaluable research tool for women s studies and for all who wish to supplement the male gaze on Canada s past The SAGE Handbook of Historical Geography Mona

Domosh,Michael Heffernan,Charles W. J. Withers,2020-11-25 Historical geography is an active theoretically informed and vibrant field of scholarly work within modern geography with strong and constantly evolving connections with disciplines across the humanities and social sciences Across two volumes The SAGE Handbook of Historical Geography provides you with an an international and cross disciplinary overview of the field presenting chapters that examine the history present condition and future potential of the discipline in relation to recent developments and research Red Coats and Wild

Birds Kirsten A. Greer,2019-11-21 During the nineteenth century Britain maintained a complex network of garrisons to manage its global empire While these bases helped the British project power and secure trade routes they served more than just a strategic purpose During their tours abroad many British officers engaged in formal and informal scientific research In this ambitious history of ornithology and empire Kirsten A Greer tracks British officers as they moved around the world just as migratory birds traversed borders from season to season Greer examines the lives writings and collections of a number of ornithologist officers arguing that the transnational encounters between military men and birds simultaneously shaped military strategy ideas about race and masculinity and conceptions of the British Empire Collecting specimens and tracking migratory bird patterns enabled these men to map the British Empire and the world and therefore to exert imagined control over it Through its examination of the influence of bird watching on military science and soldiers contributions to ornithology Red Coats and Wild Birds remaps empire nature and scientific inquiry in the nineteenth century world The Lovely and the Wild Louise de Kiriline Lawrence,1987-06-30 From childhood Louise de Kiriline Lawrence dreamed of settling one day in an unspoiled tranquil spot and living in harmony with nature This beautifully written book is the story of her dream come true Truly a labour of love The Lovely and the Wild is the product of an exceptional woman s profound joy at being part of the limitless world of nature Louise de Kiriline Lawrence passes over in a single sentence a fascinating life which does not belong to this book Born in Sweden daughter of a naturalist she served as a translator to an American military mission during the Russian Revolution and was in charge of a Russian military hospital She was a delegate of the Swedish Red Cross Expedition to the Volga region during the great famine of 1922 before emigrating to Canada Writers Directory NA NA,2016-03-05

Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Communicating in the Anthropocene C. Vail Fletcher,Alexa M. Dare,2021-02-04 The purpose of Communicating in the Anthropocene Intimate Relations is to tell a different story about the world Humans especially those raised in Western traditions have long told stories about themselves as individual protagonists who act with varying degrees of free will against a background of mute supporting characters and inert landscapes Humans can be either saviors or destroyers but our actions are explained and judged again and again as emanating from the individual And yet as the coronavirus pandemic has made clear humans are unavoidably interconnected not only with other humans but with nonhuman and more than human others with whom we share space and time Why do so many of us humans avoid deny or resist a view of the world where our lives are made possible maybe even made richer through connection In this volume we suggest a view of communication as intimacy We use this concept as a provocation for thinking about how we humans are in an always already state of being in relation with other humans nonhumans and the land More Than Birds Val Shushkewich,2012-11-17 The fascinating development of natural history studies in North America is portrayed through the life stories of 22 naturalists The hope is that once people personally encounter the natural world and become aware of its intricacy fragility beauty and significance they will recognize the need for conservation
