Understanding Spiritual Power Marguerite G. Kraft,2003-08-18 While secularized cultures of the West have a great deal of difficulty dealing with the spiritual as a real non imaginary dimension of life most of the world s peoples do not Having worked and studied among peoples of several non Western societies Marguerite Kraft is convinced that coming to terms with spiritual power presents one of the greatest challenges for all those who work among non Westerners in pastoral or mission situations Understanding Spiritual Power addresses the dynamics of the felt need for spiritual power in relation to a people s assumptions values and commitments in order to provide a foundation for meaningful Christian witness in power oriented societies The Western Church Kraft argues under pressure from modern rationalism has largely lost awareness of God s power and position vis a vis the spiritual realm so important in other societies Indeed this loss of power could be one reason for the interest in Eastern and New Age philosophies on the part of Westerners disillusioned with the modern worldview Having worked among the Kamwe in Nigeria the Thai in Asia and the Navajo in North America Kraft focuses on specific ways in which people in these three societies view reality and suggests how the gospel can be articulated in forms they can understand Understanding Spiritual Power offers a theological as well as a practical perspective on spiritual power By exploring living societies providing examples and case studies and offering specific strategies this book makes a powerful case for rethinking and recasting traditional missiological methods At the same time it helps Western Christians with ears to hear question whether they might not learn as much from those with whom they work as they seek to teach The Holy Spirit Billy Graham,2011-11-21 Exactly who is the Holy Spirit and what does He do In this classic volume Billy Graham offers a timeless sensitive and comprehensive portrait of this much discussed but often misunderstood member of the Trinity Exciting revolutionary power is available exclusively to you as a Christian It s the supernatural power to transform human nature to enable you to be the salt and light to your world to help you face any crisis and to bring about a dramatic but peaceful revolution in those around you You cannot buy this extraordinary power nor can you find it by searching the earth for it As a Christian it resides in you already an awesome gift from God that you have only to claim and use once you know and accept its Source With prayerful reverence and focused wisdom Dr Graham puts an understandable face on this mysterious third Person of the Trinity This classic book contains chapters on Who is the Holy Spirit Baptism with the Spirit How to be filled with the Holy Spirit Sins against the Holy Spirit Gifts of the Spirit And more In this inspiring and insightful book Billy Graham reminds us that Christians are powerful people because we have the mighty power of God available to us through the Holy Spirit Open your eyes anew to see how the Spirit can transform your life and give you the power to be truly good and live victoriously

Power and Peril Michael K.W. Suh, 2020-03-09 This study probes the significance of Paul's statement in 1 Corinthians 3:16 announced to a group of believers in Corinth Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the spirit of God dwells among you The question is framed in the Greek language such that Paul expected an affirmative response i.e. Yes we know we are the temple of God and yet mapping such an idea onto a gathering of people is rather unprecedented in antiquity By surveying relevant literary texts and material culture from the ancient Mediterranean roughly 400 BCE 200 CE the author shows how Paul appropriated the concept of temple in his exhortation to the Corinthians A few key texts in 1 Corinthians can be read as a cohesive and coherent set of passages that unpack the idea of the Corinthians as the temple of God While these passages are not typically read together this study shows how themes such as power and spirit traditions from Exodus divine benefits and sacrificial foods found in these passages reflect similar concerns observed in temples and other sanctuaries in ancient Greek Roman and Jewish contexts Careful analysis of the religious experience of visitors to temples an important topic that remains largely ignored in secondary literature gives greater clarity to the nuances of Paul's temple discourse As the temple the Corinthian community not only receives God's power and benefits but also remains vulnerable to peril posed by insiders and outsiders

The Problem of Evil and the Power of God Atle Ottesen Søvik, 2011-05-23 The problem of evil can be defined theoretically as the apparent inconsistency between on the one hand belief in the existence of a perfectly good and omnipotent God and on the other hand the existence of evil This book discusses four different solutions to this problem provided by Richard Swinburne Keith Ward David Griffin and Johan Hygen with the goal of finding the most coherent solution The author makes several suggestions for improvement and concludes that there is a coherent answer to the problem of evil While the focus is on Christian approaches to the problem many of the approaches and solutions are applicable to other religions as well

Simply God Rick Richards, 2011-10-10 When pastors and evangelists preach they try to convince you to change your lifestyle now This is not their fault They know that they have to do this They have to get you close to God because time could be short That is not equipping and preparing Equipping and preparing means giving you the tools of the trade That is living God's Word and how to plan to do this The Word teaches that pastors are to equip the servants All that time convincing and not equipping is destroying God's world Jesus equipped and encouraged God's children and changed the world What is our excuse We need to divert all our mental and physical abilities to become like Jesus and begin to feel these changes in our bodies We have to stop becoming people of behaviors Over many generations we have reacted to what we have seen and heard and to the pleasures the world has given us We don't look and listen to God anymore because he doesn't give us what we want when we want it When the world sees this it gives us what we want and we take it We are not patient enough God gives us what we need As long as the world dangles that carrot in front of our faces we will continue to pull that heavy burdensome load of sin and pain It is only by seeing and hearing what God does in this world to bless his children that will show us how his grace and greatness will tower above our fears
