Goethe's Faust. Parts I and II. Notes. Including Introduction, Summaries and Commentaries, Character Sketches, Critical Notes, Bibliography, Examination Questions... Consulting Ed. James L. Roberts,.... Robert Milch, James L. Roberts, 1965 Reading Notes, 2021-11-01 Reading notes constitute a vast resource for an understanding of literary history and culture. They indicate what writers read as well as how they read and what they used in their own work. As such, they play an important role in both the reception and the production of texts. The essays in this volume, representing the newest trends in European and international textual scholarship, examine literary creation and the relationship between reading and writing. To study how readers respond to writing and how reading engenders new writing, the contributing scholars no longer take for granted that authors write in splendid isolation but turn to a more broadly sociological investigation of authorship, assigning new roles to the writer as reader, notetaker, annotator, book collector, and so on. Notes and annotations may be fragmentary, private, undigested, and embryonic, but as witnesses to the reading process, they tell unique stories about writers and readers, ranging from great marginalists like Coleridge to women annotators of cookbooks. This subject of research is a junction of several fields of research and tries to bridge gaps between separate disciplines with a common ground such as the history of the book, the history of reading, and the history of writing, scholarly editing, and textual genetics the analysis commentary and critical interpretation of the way in which works of art come into being bridging the gap between literary and textual criticism Life of Johann Wolfgang Goethe James Sime,1888 Goethe's Faust; part II; translated from the German, partly in the metres of the original, and partly in prose. With other poems, original and translated; by L. J. Bernays Johann Wolfgang von Goethe,1839 Faust Johann Wolfgang von Goethe,2001 A complete annotated translation of Goethe's Faust plus extensive interpretive notes Faust illustrations and other visual sources used by Goethe several pieces of Goethe's correspondence and commentary eleven contemporary reviews by well known writers and ten modern pieces of criticism also includes a Goethe chronology and selected bibliography Goethe's Faust Johann Wolfgang von Goethe,E. J. Turner,Edmund Doidge Anderson Morshead,1882 Faust, Part II Goethe,2009-04-30 In this sequel to Faust Mephistopheles takes Faust on a journey through ancient Greek mythology conjuring for him the unsurpassably beautiful Helen of Troy as well as the classical gods Faust falls in love with and marries Helen embodying for Goethe his imaginative longing to join poetically the Romantic Medievalism of the Germanic West to the classical genius of the Greeks Further to the themes of redemption and salvation in this great drama are Goethe's eerie premonitions of modern phenomena such as inflation and the creation of life by scientific synthesis Publications of the English Goethe Society ,1909 Notes and Queries ,1869 Kierkegaard's Journals and Notebooks, Volume 11, Part 1 Søren Kierkegaard,2019-11-26 For over a century the Danish thinker Søren Kierkegaard 1813-55 has been at the center of a number of important discussions concerning not only philosophy and theology but also more recently fields such as social thought psychology and contemporary aesthetics especially literary theory Despite his relatively short life Kierkegaard was an extraordinarily prolific writer as attested to by the 26 volume Princeton University Press edition of all of his published writings But Kierkegaard left behind nearly as much unpublished writing most of which consists of what are called his journals and notebooks Kierkegaard has long been recognized as one of history's great journal keepers but only rather small portions of his journals and notebooks are what we usually understand by the term diaries By far the greater part of Kierkegaard's journals and notebooks consists of reflections on a myriad of subjects philosophical religious political personal Studying his journals and notebooks takes us into his workshop where we can see his entire universe of thought We can witness the genesis of his published works to be sure but we can also see whole galaxies of concepts new insights and fragments large and small of partially or almost entirely completed but unpublished works Kierkegaard's Journals and Notebooks enables us to see the thinker in dialogue with his times and with himself Kierkegaard wrote his journals in a two column format one for his initial entries and the second for the extensive marginal comments that he added later This edition of the journals reproduces this format includes several photographs of original manuscript pages and contains extensive scholarly commentary on the various entries and on the history of the manuscripts being reproduced Volume 11 Part 1 and Volume 11 Part 2 present an exciting enlightening and enormously varied treasure trove of papers that were found carefully sorted and stored by Kierkegaard himself in his apartment after his death These papers many of which have never before been published in English provide a window into many different aspects of Kierkegaard s life and creativity Volume 11 Part 1 includes items from his earliest formative years through his extensive studies at the university and up to the publication of Either Or These materials include Kierkegaard s studies in biblical exegesis his reading of theologians such as Schleiermacher and Baader his concern with aesthetic matters including a lengthy consideration of the Faust legend his first trial sermon delivered at the Pastoral Seminary his views on the burgeoning field of political journalism in the 1830s and a group of papers he titled The First Rudiments of Either Or The Green Book Some Particulars that were not Used

Cumulated Dramatic Index, 1909-1949 Frederick Winthrop Faxon, 1965 The Bibliographer Henry Benjamin Wheatley, 1882 Nature and Spirit Beings Rudolf Steiner, 2022-05-04 Suppose you have seen an event have formed an idea about it and you say something that is not true in other words something that is a lie Then what flows from the object is correct and what flows from you is false and this collision is a terrible explosion and each time you do this you attach a gruesome being to your karma which you cannot get rid of again until you have made good what you lied about Rudolf Steiner In a previously untranslated volume of lectures Rudolf Steiner presents shattering insights regarding the interaction of human and spiritual beings He speaks for example about how perfumes can give certain spirits access to people on earth or how phantoms spectres and demons can be created through human deficiencies or even how the arts of architecture sculpture painting and music allow good or hideous entities to enter our world As he states Learning about the effects of spiritual beings is of much greater help than moral preaching A future humanity will know what it is creating through lies hypocrisy and slander The lectures are divided into two broad thematic groups the first relating to the inner path of knowledge and its relation to the yearly festivals and the second focusing on the work of elemental beings in our everyday world The 18 lectures are complemented with notes an index and an introduction by Christian von Arnim International Index to Periodicals ,1920 An author and subject index to publications in fields of anthropology archaeology and classical studies economics folklore geography history language and literature music philosophy political science religion and theology sociology and theatre arts Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1920
