Misinterest M.H. Bowker, 2019 The term interest lacks a precise antonym In English we have disinterested and uninteresting but we want for a term that denotes robust opposition to interest The same appears to hold true in every other language as far as we know Interest s missing antonym reflects not merely a widespread lexical oversight but a misrecognition of interest s complete and exact meaning More importantly the idea that interest has no opposite expresses a certain refusal to acknowledge the power of the impulse to extinguish interest for the self and for others Why then do we foreclose interest s possibility degrade our and others capacities to experience interest and destroy interest s objects Why do we decline what interest proffers which includes creative and subjective being thinking and relating in favor of more primitive modes of survival thoughtlessness and nonbeing Why do relationships with ourselves with others with objects toward which genuine interest draws us seem sometimes if not often unbearable These questions are difficult Their answers even more so MISINTEREST Essays Pens es and Dreams attempts to approach them in an honest way without making them fascinating mysterious boring obscurantist or fascinatingly mysteriously boringly obscurantist Outwardly MISINTEREST is concerned with dreams and forgetting and Eros and soaring dogs and groups and suicidal suburban teenagers and sex and jury duty and Nazis and fathers and hatred and holy parrots and fundamentalists and plagues and other things that may or may not be interesting Ultimately however it seeks like Jules Renard en restant exact in remaining true real to shed light on the establishment of misinterest missingness and mystery where and when they need not be and thus on the psychic familial and political forces that compel us not to be when and where we ought M H BOWKER is the author of ten books including Ostranenie On Shame and Knowing and Escargotesque or What is Experience both published with punctum and numerous papers in the areas of psychoanalytic theory social and political philosophy literary criticism and critical pedagogy He is a professor at a small college in upstate New York Educated at Columbia University and the University of Maryland College Park he edits the Psychoanalytic Political Theory book series at Routledge and is the North American Editor of the Journal of Psycho Social Studies He is a recent Fulbright grant recipient and has taught approximately one hundred courses in a wide array of disciplines including Political Science Philosophy Psychology English and more
